Jordan and a Palestinian refugee camp engagingly depicts young people's experiences growing up in the Middle East. The characters drawn from urban and rural settings and from different classes as well as a mix of countries confront situations involving friends, family, teachers and society at large. Along with some specifically Middle Eastern issues such as strife in Iraq, the hardships of life in a Palestinian refugee camp and honor crimes, the young people deal with more familiar concerns such as loyalty to friends, overcoming personal insecurities, dreams of a future career and coping with divorcing parents. Coming of age in a complicated world, they meet life with courage, determination and not least of all, humor. With accompanying notes that provide contextual information, Santa Claus in Baghdad brings a fresh perspective to youth literature about the Arab world.
