Deliver Us From Sarah Chinedu Nnadi,2025-07-09 She was the envy of many beautiful untouched and unyielding Sarah believed her virginity made her untouchable a crown no man was worthy to claim unless he met her impossible standards Suitors came in droves powerful promising men but they all left scorched by her pride and scorn As the years crept by whispers grew louder The once revered maiden became the subject of quiet pity then mocking laughter But Sarah didn t flinch She held her ground convinced that divine favor would deliver her perfect match Then on the eve of her thirty sixth birthday a stranger arrived in the village Charming mysterious and wealthy beyond imagination he asked for Sarah by name The villagers rejoiced Her father wept Sarah smiled certain her prophecy had come But as the wedding nears unease festers The stranger knows things no outsider should People begin to vanish And Sarah for the first time feels something unfamiliar fear What if the man she prayed for is not her salvation but her reckoning In this chilling tale of pride obsession and the price of waiting too long Deliver Us from Sarah asks What happens when the thing you treasure most becomes the bait that dooms you And what if your greatest virtue attracts your greatest evil
