Façade as Spectacle Carolyn Marino Malone,2004-01-01 This interdisciplinary study interprets the facade of Wells Cathedral as an integral part of thirteenth century Church liturgy and politics The facade promoted the aims of the church of Wells the Fourth Lateran Council and the English Church and State following Magna Carta A Guide to the Cathedral Church of Salisbury. With addenda to parts I. and II. and Index by Konrad Burger. 1902 Walter Arthur Copinger,1902 A Catalogue of ... [books] ... Bernard Quaritch (Firm),1910 Music in Welsh Culture Before 1650 Sally Harper,2017-07-05 Music in Wales has long been a neglected area Scholars have been deterred both by the need for a knowledge of the Welsh language and by the fact that an oral tradition in Wales persisted far later than in other parts of Britain resulting in a limited number of sources with conventional notation Sally Harper provides the first serious study of Welsh music before 1650 and draws on a wide range of sources in Welsh Latin and English to illuminate early musical practice This book challenges and refutes two widely held assumptions that music in Wales before 1650 is impoverished and elusive and that the extant sources are too obscure and fragmentary to warrant serious study Harper demonstrates that there is a far wider body of source material than is generally realized comprising liturgical manuscripts archival materials chronicles and retrospective histories inventories of pieces and players vernacular poetry and treatises This book examines three principal areas the unique tradition of cerdd dant literally the music of the string for harp and crwth the Latin liturgy in Wales and its embellishment and Anglicised sacred and secular materials from c 1580 which show Welsh music mirroring English practice Taken together the primary material presented in this book bears witness to a flourishing and distinctive musical tradition of considerable cultural significance aspects of which have an important impact on wider musical practice beyond Wales The Use of Hereford William Smith, 2017-05-15

The Use of Hereford a local variation of the Roman rite was one of the diocesan liturgies of medieval England before their abolition and replacement by the Book of Common Prayer in 1549 Unlike the widespread Use of Sarum the Use of Hereford was confined principally to its diocese which helped to maintain its individuality until the Reformation This study seeks to catalogue and evaluate all the known surviving sources of the Use of Hereford with particular reference to the missals and gradual which so far have received little attention In addition to these a variety of other material has been examined including a number of little known or unknown important fragments of early Hereford service books dismembered at the Reformation and now hidden away as binding or other scrap in libraries and record offices This is the fullest examination of Hereford liturgical sources ever undertaken and may stimulate similar and much needed studies of other diocesan uses in particular Sarum and York As well as describing in detail the various manuscript sources the rare single edition printed Hereford texts the missals and breviaries are also discussed Unlike books of the Sarum and York rites these one offs were never revised and reissued In addition to the examination of these sources William Smith discusses the possible origins of the rite and provides an analysis of the Hereford liturgical calendar of the festa including those of the cathedral s patron St Ethelbert and the no less famous St Thomas Cantilupe that helped to make Hereford use so distinctive Middle English Marian Lyrics Karen Saupe, 1999-01-01 Through its contextualizing introduction notes and gloss this classroom friendly edition of Middle English lyric poetry makes the wide variety of Marian poems available to students of all levels The poems selected for this volume provide a sampling of the rich tradition of Marian devotion as expressed in Middle English They range widely in form tone and aesthetic quality in how they relate the iconic moments from Mary s life the Annunciation Nativity and her experience of Christ s passion for instance as well as in their variety of praises for the Queen of Heaven Taken together the poems express the full range of a people s effort to voice anxieties and joys through Mary This collection will spark an excellent discussion on English spirituality Marian devotion and Middle English lyrical poetry The Works of John Jewel John Jewel, 1845 Fanny, the Little Milliner, Or, The Rich and the Poor Charles Rowcroft, 1846
