Musicals at the Margins Julie Lobalzo Wright, Martha Shearer, 2021-04-22

But is it a musical? This question is regularly asked of films, television shows, and other media objects that sit uncomfortably in the category despite evident musical connections. Musicals at the Margins argues that instead of seeking to resolve such questions, we should leave them unanswered and unsettled, proposing that there is value in examining the unstable edges of genre. This collection explores the marginal musical in a diverse range of historical and global contexts. It encompasses a range of different forms of marginality, including boundary texts, films, media that are sort of not quite musicals, musical sequences, marginalized sequences in musicals, musical sequences in non-musicals, music films, musicals of the margins, musicals produced from social, cultural, geographical, and geopolitical margins, and musicals across media, television, and new media. Ultimately, these essays argue that marginal genre texts tell us a great deal about the musical, specifically, and genre more broadly.
