Companion to the American Short Story Alfred Bendixen, James Nagel, 2020-08-24 A COMPANION TO THE AMERICAN SHORT STORY A Companion to the American Short Story traces the development of this versatile literary genre over the past two centuries Written by leading critics in the field and edited by two major scholars it explores a wide range of writers from Edgar Allen Poe and Edith Wharton at the end of the nineteenth century to important modern writers such as Ernest Hemingway William Faulkner F Scott Fitzgerald and Richard Wright Contributions with a broader focus address groups of multiethnic Asian and Jewish writers Each chapter places the short story into context focusing on the interaction of cultural forces and aesthetic principles The Companion takes account of cutting edge approaches to literary studies and contributes to the ongoing redefinition of the American canon embracing genres such as ghost and detective fiction cycles of interrelated short fiction and comic social and political stories The volume also reflects the diverse communities that have adopted this literary form and made it their own featuring entries on a variety of feminist and multicultural traditions This volume

presents an important new consideration of the role of the short story in the literary history of American literature Those Hamilton Sisters Averil Kenny, 2021-08-05 A warm captivating and irresistible story of love family secrets and finding your place in the world For readers of Lucinda Riley and Kate Morton Esther Hamilton had a reputation in the small Queensland town of Noah Vale That was until she ran away twenty years ago under a cloud of shame It is now 1955 and following her death her daughters the Hamilton sisters have come to make the town their home Sonnet at twenty years old has never set foot in Noah Vale but has been the talk of the town for decades Fable is a budding artist and lovelier even than her heartbreaking mother And Plum is just a little girl who has been taken away from the only home she has ever known As the years pass the girls settle into their new life But suspicion and judgement follow them wherever they go In a small town where everyone knows each other it can be hard to escape the past A fresh original and evocative coming of age story Tea Cooper author of The Woman in the Green Dress This novel is an intelligent assured family saga which packs an emotional punch Meg Keneally author of Fled and The Wreck

Edgar Allan Poe Arthur Hobson Quinn, 1997-11-25 Renowned as the creator of the detective story and a master of horror the author of The Red Mask of Death The Black Cat and The Murders of the Rue Morgue Edgar Allan Poe seems to have derived his success from suffering and to have suffered from his success The Raven and The Tell Tale Heart have been read as signs of his personal obsessions and The Fall of the House of Usher and The Descent into the Maelstrom as symptoms of his own mental collapse Biographers have seldom resisted the opportunities to confuse the pathologies in the stories with the events in Poe s life Against this tide of fancy guesses and amateur psychologizing Arthur Hobson Quinn s biography devotes itself meticulously to facts Based on exhaustive research in the Poe family archive Quinn extracts the life from the legend and describes how they both were distorted by prior biographies
