Saudi Arabian Modernization:

Saudi Arabian Modernization John A. Shaw, David E. Long, 1982 Saudi Arabian Modernization John A. Shaw, 1982
Saudi Arabian Modernization D. E. Long, 1982 Modernity and Tradition Fouad Al-Farsy, 2012-10-12 First published in 1990 A country's development does not take place in a vacuum and it was therefore essential in this earlier work that the main subject the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia's development should be set into an historical political and social context The original edition includes a summary of this background information starting with the Kingdom's geographical location and proceeding with a brief account of its history its political importance and its role in the world economy Within this context is described the development and progress of what the Kingdom had achieved outlining the country's governmental structure its administrative divisions its available investment potential its prevailing legal and commercial regulations and its future plans and ambitions This new book which has been structured to encompass all aspects of the Kingdom's development contains the latest statistical data on the Kingdom's progress together with the newly revised background information of the former book Thus each of the books complements the other for each records the relevant information at a particular stage in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia's continuing developmental process The DISAM Journal of International Security Assistance Management, 2000 Saudi Arabian Modernization Angela Stent, Dan Haendel, David Scott Yost, John A. Shaw, 1981 King Faisal And The Modernisation Of Saudi Arabia Willard A. Beling, 2019-03-13 The late King Faisal bin Abdul Aziz was born in Riyadh in 1905 6 several years after his father Abdulaziz Ibn Saud had recaptured it from Ibn Rashid In 1964 he became king of Saudi Arabia famous for harbouring twenty five percent of the world's oil reserves and hailed as the most powerful Arab ruler in centuries In 1975 his nephew shot him in Modernity and the Ideals of Arab-Islamic and Western-Scientific Philosophy A. Z. Obiedat, 2022-07-08 This is the first study to compare the philosophical systems of secular scientific philosopher Mario Bunge 1919 2020 and Moroccan Islamic philosopher Taha Abd al Rahman b 1945 In their efforts to establish the philosophical underpinnings of an ideal modernity these two great thinkers speak to the same elements of the human condition despite their opposing secular and religious worldviews While the differences between Bunge's critical realist epistemology and materialist ontology on the one hand and Taha's spiritualist ontology and revelational mystical epistemology on the other are fundamental there is remarkable common ground between their scientific and Islamic versions of humanism Both call for an ethics of prosperity combined with social justice and both criticize postmodernism and religious conservatism The aspiration of this book is to serve as a model for future dialogue between holders of Western and Islamic worldviews in mutual pursuit of modernity's best case scenario The Impact of Modernization in Saudi Arabia Robert C. Vasile, ARMY MILITARY PERSONNEL CENTER ALEXANDRIA VA., 1978 The Saudi leadership has greatly emphasized economic development in modernization efforts Though development is readily measured in economic terms the social impact of modernization is even more critical Rapid changes in the configuration of power among elites can evoke a period of political instability which may invite foreign intervention Personal interviews with Saudis coupled with general trends indicate changes in values and behavior among the society As the momentum of modernization increases risks of disorientation and elite confrontation become inevitable Dual standards of behavior currently suggest a transition from traditional values to modernity The loss of tradition in Saudi Arabia removes the legitimacy of the monarchy Accommodation of innovations will require greater dependence upon bureaucratic and military elites by the ruling family Such reconfiguration of power will serve to alienate the conservative elites and promote unrest among the populace Added flexibility in government must be introduced at this stage or future problems will arise beyond the cure of money Author

National and International Politics in the Middle East Edward Ingram, 2013-07-23 First published in 2004 Professor Kedourie is known for his unforgettable essays for the pattern of interpretation and view of the world which hold his readers spellbound even when they strongly disagree with his opinions and for Middle Eastern Studies which recently reached its majority and which he and Frank Cass together have turned into the foremost scholarly journal in its field These essays are presented to him by a group of his admirers overseas In Doubt for the Monarchy: Autocratic Modernization in Saudi-Arabia Iris Wurm, 2022 U.S. Security Interests in the Persian Gulf, 1981 International Security Assistance Act of 1976 United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations, 1976 Multinational Corporations and United States Foreign Policy: Political and financial consequences of the OPEC price increases United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations. Subcommittee on Multinational Corporations, 1973 Multinational Corporations and United States Foreign Policy United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations. Subcommittee on Multinational Corporations, 1975 United States Arms Policies in the Persian Gulf and Red Sea Areas United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations, 1977 The Arabian Peninsula Derek Hopwood, 2015-07-24 Although the Arabian Peninsula is the heartland of Islam and of the Arab world for decades it did not receive the attention it deserves from scholars and writers The School of Oriental and African Studies University of London and the Middle East Centre of St Antony's College Oxford jointly organized a series of seminars culminating in a conference at which the papers in this volume first published in 1972 were discussed Together they constitute an authoritative statement of our present knowledge of several areas of the Peninsula with particular emphasis on the Gulf States Three chapters trace the history of Oman from pre Islamic times to the recent past and in so doing emphasize the theme of continuing conflict between sultan and imam Other chapters examine the Gulf and the Peninsula from the standpoint of inter Arab and of international relations The third section of the book is devoted to a discussion of the increasing rate of social change in the area and the final section deals with problems of oil and state and of economic development Crosscurrents in the Gulf John Peterson, Richard Sindelar, 2021-12-24 The discovery of oil in the Gulf revolutionised its social and economic relationship with the West This book provides a broad overview of foreign policy imperatives an examination of three of the most important issues the Iran Iraq war OPEC socio political extremism and finally a closer inspection of three of the key players in that area Oman Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates The Persian Gulf, 1975, the Continuing Debate on Arms Sales United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations. Special Subcommittee on Investigations, 1976 The Evaluation And Application Of Survey Research In The Arab World Mark Tessler, Monte Palmer, Tawfic E Farah, Barbara Ibrahim, 2019-07-11 At a time when survey research is increasingly being conducted in the Arab world there is also growing concern about the degree to which research assumptions and methods developed in the West are appropriate for use in the study of Arab society This book assesses the application and limits of survey research performed in the Arab world reviews the surveys currently being used to study public attitudes and behavior patterns and discusses epistemological methodological and ethical issues associated with these studies Readers are alerted to normative and empirical considerations bearing on the quality of survey research and given practical suggestions for innovation in the design and execution of survey research and in the analysis of survey data The book raises intellectual issues of concern to all who seek to better understand Arab society and provides extensive information about attitudes and behavior in the Arab world
