Sometimes funny sometimes infuriating sometimes heartbreaking this is the story of one young man s quest for meaning in an increasingly meaningless world Don't Bug Me; I'm Reading Bill York,2012-05 My cathedral is in an isolated wilderness away from contemporary blight After several years of marriage my wife describes me as odd I prefer eccentric She calls me a cheapskate I am frugal I also choose to be different we put way too much emphasis on the words Hall of Fame legend glamour champion celebrity and famous I may admire but never idolize Heroes aren t on golf courses nor in stadiums but in the uniforms of our firefighters military and police officers There are no idols in my life Stars are to be revered only in the night sky not in Hollywood Rather than sit in a night club involved in inane conversations I would rather see hummingbirds performing aerobatics canoe a rogue river watch a moose cavorting with her calf in a turbulent stream see the Aurora

Borealis fire streamers of color across a darkening sky study undulating lines of snow geese buffeted by lofty winds honking their way to their mysterious destinations There are yet unseen wonders in nature My adventurous nature was established when I lived for a month on a Chipewyan reservation in Manitoba hunting seal and bear from a dog sled using harpoons and bow and arrows living the way of their ancestors Frogs in a well have a limited view of the limitless sky Beyond every horizon there is a horizon I have canoed the Mackenzie River in Canada s Northwest Territory the Churchill in Manitoba Fraser River in British Columbia the Deschutes in Oregon and the Wolverine in Nunavut I lust to explore each wilderness on earth where overpopulation has not contaminated the environment Time away from the fallacies of civilization is regenerative

The Unit-activity Reading Series: Near and far Nila Banton Smith,1935      Horsekeeping Roxanne Bok,2011-11-01 Why would successful urbanites used to clean controlled and orderly lives take on the task of restoring a near collapsing empty barn littered with haphazard and decayed fencing pastures deep in standing water and try to turn it into a thriving horse farm Initially motivated only by a city dweller s fantasy and obscure memories of childhood visits to the country

Roxanne Bok oversees the reconstruction of a thirty seven stall barn and painstakingly discovers something about both large animals and running a small business Follow an equine novice as she leads her equally na ve family in an eighteen month long adventure of breathing life back into a once great horse farm in rural New England A thoughtfully detailed memoir Roxanne Bok learns it all the hard way from the agony of repeatedly being tossed off a beloved horse to the thrill of winning a blue ribbon For those who love horses the dream of country life or simply the sight of an otherwise urban family on great rural adventure here is a tale that plumbs the full range of human emotions but ends with a deepened love of the land and the extraordinary equine creatures that inhabit it Proceeds from book sales will be donated to support horse rescue charities
