Saving Agnes A Novel:

Saving Agnes Rachel Cusk, 2001-01-06 A working girl in London is searching for love Agnes works for a magazine and shares an apartment with two other girls One day she meets a handsome mysterious man just what she was looking for Alas he turns out to be a rotter Rachel Cusk Roberta Garrett, Liam Harrison, 2024-07-25 Rachel Cusk is one of the most critically acclaimed and controversial contemporary British authors Her diverse body of work offers a striking portrait of trends in 21st century literature and the history of Cusk's literary output is one of experimentation and a desire to push against established cultural models Rachel Cusk Contemporary Critical Perspectives is the first critical guide to Cusk's work spanning novels including Saving Agnes A Country Life and Second Place her autofictional Outline trilogy and her nonfiction A Life's Work The Last Supper Aftermath and the Coventry essays Rigorous and wide ranging this book provides an accessible and lucid introduction to Cusk's work exploring themes of gender relations class dynamics maternal identity and creative freedom The collection concludes with an in depth interview with Cusk conducted by Merve Emre reflecting on her influences writing and experiences Mapping the formal and stylistic shift across her career and locating them within their specific contexts this collection provides a crucial analysis of Cusk's influences politics and literary techniques that speak to many of the most pressing issues in contemporary literature

Encyclopedia of Contemporary Writers and Their Work Geoff Hamilton, Brian Jones, 2015-04-22 Presents an alphabetical reference guide detailing the lives and works of authors associated with the English language fiction of the twentieth and twenty first centuries

Four Moments of Aesthetic Experience Bryan Counter, 2025-04-15 This book examines the question of aesthetic experience in the novels of Joris Karl Huysmans Marcel Proust Tom McCarthy and Rachel Cusk in order to propose a reconsideration of aesthetic experience informed by literature and philosophy in equal measure The introduction suggests an alternative four moments of aesthetic experience to Kant's four moments of aesthetic judgement derived in part from my four literary authors respectively curation quietness violence and disconnection Taken collectively the four moments show the danger of becoming too invested or interested in aesthetic experience as well as patience and openness toward the creative act of writing While these four moments are not meant as determinations taken together they offer a picture of aesthetic experience as involuntary subject to chance and resistant to calculation on the part of the aesthetic subject Besides contributing to the scholarship on each of the four novelists this book advances a theory of the aesthetic that shifts away from the framework of judging objects to focus instead on experience and how it is articulated both within and beyond literature It is here that the theory of aesthetic experience benefits from literature's singularity no one text or passage can serve as an example that would adequately circumscribe the field of aesthetic experience just as no one philosophical example could and yet the reflective nature of the literary text demands a rigorous look at aesthetic experience without the restrictions of a totalising philosophical system The two negative moments represented by Huysmans's reboours and McCarthy's Remainder besides ending poorly for the protagonists wind up with a foreclosure of aesthetic experience For Huysmans's Des Esseintes who attempts to sustain aesthetic experience at will via curation the fantasy falls apart leaving him ill and necessitating his dreaded return to society For McCarthy's unnamed narrator who is engaged throughout the novel with various projects of re-enactments the story ends violently with bloodshed and a plane hijacking Theoretically these novels provide a cautionary tale about the impulse to seek out and even domesticate the aesthetic object On the contrary the two positive moments represented by Proust's Recherche and Cusk's Outline trilogy each involve narrators and characters who are invested in the creative act of writing Two particular critically underrepresented passages from Proust can help articulate the quiet moment of aesthetic experience without relying on works of art they are theoretically compelling in their refusal to theorise themselves unlike the more popular passages from the novel Cusk's novels present the moment of disconnection that is the sense of an experience being dislodged from any particular narrative or plot And yet each of the characters in question are creative writers meaning that this everyday feeling of alienation tends to factor into a productive artistic impulse In conclusion these four moments are tied together as they pertain to the nature and boundaries of aesthetic experience in general Just as Kant's four moments of aesthetic judgement seem to be grouped in pairs disinterest and purposiveness without purpose on one hand and universality and necessity on the other hand these four moments can be grouped and set apart to help reconsider what we mean when we talk about aesthetic experience

Food and Femininity in Twentieth-Century British Women's Fiction Andrea Adolph, 2016-04-15 In her feminist intervention into the ways in which British women novelists explore and challenge the limitations of the mind body binary historically linked to constructions of femininity Andrea Adolph examines female characters in novels by Barbara Pym Angela Carter Helen Dunmore Helen Fielding and Rachel Cusk Adolph focuses on how women's relationships to food cooking eating serving are used to locate women's embodiment within the everyday and also reveal the writers' commitment to portraying a unified female subject For example using food and food consumption as a lens highlights how women writers have used food as a trope that illustrates the interconnectedness of sex and gender with issues of sexuality social class and subjectivity all aspects that fall along a continuum of experience in which the intellect and the physical body are mutually complicit Historically grounded in representations of women in periodicals housekeeping and cooking manuals and health and beauty books Adolph's theoretically informed study complicates our understanding of how women's social and cultural roles are intricately connected to issues of food and food consumption

Clever Girls and the Literature of Women's Upward Mobility Mary Eagleton, 2018-02-15 This book follows the figure of the clever girl from the post war to the present and focuses on the fiction plays and memoirs of contemporary British women writers Spurred on by an ethic of meritocracy the clever girl is now facing austerity and declining social mobility Though suggesting optimism a public discourse of opportunity aspiration and choice is often experienced as an anxious and chancy process In a wide ranging study the book explores the struggle to move away from home and traditional notions of femininity the persistent problems associated with women's embodiment the pressures of class and racial divisions the new subjectivities of the neoliberal era and the generational conflict underpinning austerity The book ends with a consideration of feminism's place as a phantom presence in this history of clever girls This study will appeal to readers of contemporary women's writing and to those interested in what has been one of the dominant social narratives of the post war period from

Chick Lit and Postfeminism Stephanie Harzewski, 2011-02-09 Originally a euphemism for Princeton University's Female Literary Tradition course in the 1980s chick lit mutated from a movement in American women's avant garde fiction in the 1990s to become by the turn of the century a humorous subset of women's literature journalism and advice manuals Stephanie Harzewski examines such best sellers as Bridget Jones's Diary The Devil Wears Prada and Sex and the City as urban appropriations of and departures from the narrative traditions of the novel of manners the popular romance and the bildungsroman Further Harzewski uses chick lit as a lens through which to view gender relations in U S and British society in the 1990s Chick Lit and Postfeminism is the first sustained historicization of this major pop cultural phenomenon and Harzewski successfully demonstrates how chick lit and the critical study of it yield social observations on upheavals in Anglo American marriage and education patterns heterosexual rituals feminism and postmodern values      Radical Realism, Autofictional Narratives and the Reinvention of the Novel Fiona J. Doloughan, 2023-02-14 This monograph treats modes of fictionality in contemporary auto biography memoir and autofiction Adopting a case study approach it demonstrates the extent to which contexts of production and reception are important in framing generic expectations with respect to the representation of lived experience and in helping to determine the status of the narrator as fictional persona or implied author      The Secret Life of Literature Lisa Zunshine, 2022-03-15 An innovative account that brings together cognitive science ethnography and literary history to examine patterns of mindreading in a wide range of literary works For over four thousand years writers have been experimenting with what cognitive scientists call mindreading constantly devising new social contexts for making their audiences imagine complex mental states of characters and narrators In The Secret Life of Literature Lisa Zunshine uncovers these mindreading patterns which have until now remained invisible to both readers and critics in works ranging from The Epic of Gilgamesh to Invisible Man Bringing together cognitive science ethnography and literary studies this engaging book transforms our understanding of literary history Central to Zunshine's argument is the exploration of mental states embedded within each other as for instance when Ellison's Invisible Man is aware of how his white Communist Party comrades pretend not to understand what he means when they want to reassert their position of power Paying special attention to how race class and gender inform literary embeddings Zunshine contrasts this dynamic with real life patterns studied by cognitive and social psychologists She also considers community specific mindreading values and looks at the rise and migration of embedding patterns across genres and national literary traditions noting particularly the use of deception eavesdropping and shame as plot devices Finally she investigates mindreading in children's literature Stories for children geared toward different stages of development she shows provide cultural scaffolding for initiating young readers into a long term engagement with the secret life of literature

Cathedrals of Bone John C. Waldmeir, 2009-08-25 The metaphor of the Church as a body has shaped Catholic thinking since the Second Vatican Council Its influence on theological inquiries into

Catholic nature and practice is well known less obvious is the way it has shaped a generation of Catholic imaginative writers Cathedrals of Bone is the first full length study of a cohort of Catholic authors whose art takes seriously the themes of the Council from novelists such as Mary Gordon Ron Hansen Louise Erdrich and J F Powers to poets such as Annie Dillard Mary Karr Lucia Perillo and Anne Carson to the Pulitzer Prize winning playwright John Patrick Shanley Motivated by the inspirational yet thoroughly incarnational rhetoric of Vatican II each of these writers encourages readers to think about the human body as a site perhaps the most important site of interaction between God and human beings Although they represent the body in different ways these late twentieth century Catholic artists share a sense of its inherent value Moreover they use ideas and terminology from the rich tradition of Catholic sacramentality especially as it was articulated in the documents of Vatican II to describe that value In this way they challenge the Church to take its own tradition seriously and to reconsider its relationship to a relatively recent apologetics that has emphasized a narrow view of human reason and a rigid sense of orthodoxy
