Long Walks And Intimate Talks:

Long Walks and Intimate Talks Grace Paley, 1991 This first collaboration of two long time feminist and antiwar activists is a wonderful melding of word and image that creates a powerful call for world peace Paley's poems and short fiction and William's vivid watercolors depict the beauty and dignity of ordinary lives from El Salvador to the Bronx from New Hampshire to Vietnam Scenes and stories of domestic life solitude and nature are interspersed with heart wrenching images of women widowed and children crippled by war and incarcerated by urban poverty Here too are stories and paintings of protest joyous and defiant

Literary Sisterhoods Deborah Heller, 2005-02-11 Building on scholarship such as feminist criticism that has contributed to an awareness of the distinctive perspectives on female experience revealed in women's writing Heller reveals how women authors construct their female protagonists' quests for creative self expression By situating these narrative journeys in their own times and cultures Literary Sisterhoods shows how they contribute to a common tradition that speaks to readers today

Begin Again Grace Paley, 2014-07-15 The collected poems some never previously published of one of our best loved most respected authors Combining Grace Paley's four previous collections and new unpublished work Begin Again traces the career of this direct attentive never predictable poet Whether she describes the vicissitudes and pleasures of life in New York City or the hard beauty of her adoptive rural Vermont whether she celebrates the blessings of friendship or protests against social injustice her poems brim with the compassion and tough good humor that have made her stories and essays famous

Pow-Wow Ishmael Reed, 2009-01-27 Using the yardstick that a short story is any fiction under 15 000 words Ishmael Reed with the assistance of Carla Blank has assembled an anthology that reexamines the history of the form across a broader more inclusive spectrum The result is a collection that stretches the boundaries of the American literary landscape including work ranging from animal stories of the Northwest Coast Eyaks to African American folklore to reflections on the American Muslim experience Pow Wow is the sequel to Reed's From Totems to Hip Hop A Multicultural Anthology of Poetry Across the Americas 1900-2002 a volume that included both Tupac Shakur and T S Eliot and was named one of the best poetry anthologies of 2003 by Library Journal Its fiction focused follow up once again demonstrates the broad range of American writing from such stellar names as Langston Hughes Gertrude Stein Russell Banks and Alejandro Murgu to newly discovered writers of all races genders and backgrounds By presenting many different sides to the American story the fiction of these writers challenges official history shatters accepted myths and provides alternatives to mainstream notions of personal and national identity Gathering these voices together Pow Wow offers a fascinating and vital opportunity to traverse the fault lines that separate distinguish and define a nation made of many Americas

Traumatic Realism Michael Rothberg, 2000 Drawing on a wide range of texts Michael Rothberg puts forth an overarching framework for understanding representations of the Holocaust Through close readings of such writers and thinkers as Theodor Adorno Maurice Blanchot Ruth Kluger Charlotte Delbo Art Spiegelman and Philip Roth and an examination of films by Steven Spielberg and Claude Lanzmann Rothberg demonstrates how the Holocaust as a traumatic event makes three fundamental demands on representation a demand for documentation a demand for reflection on the limits of representation and a demand for engagement with the public

Ladies Laughing Barbara Levy, 2013-09-13 This engaging and accessible book examines the world of seven contemporary popular American women writers and their individual use of wit as a subtle and effective strategy to engage or control the reader A chapter is devoted to each of the seven writers Lisa Alther Rita Mae Brown Nora Ephron Shirley Jackson Alison Lurie Grace Paley and Anne Tyler and discusses their writings and their use of wit in the context of their lives An opening chapter frames wit and control in psychological realities and a concluding chapter summarizes the power of wit A bibliography of the writers works is also included making this an ideal introduction and companion to these writers and their works

Traumatism Realism Michael Rothberg, 2000-08-10 How to approach the Holocaust and its relationship to late twentieth century society While some stress the impossibility of comprehending this event others attempt representations in forms as different as the nonfiction novel and Hollywood blockbuster Schindler's List the documentary Shoah and the comic book Maus This problem is at the center of Michael Rothberg's book a focused account of the psychic intellectual and cultural aftermath of the Holocaust Drawing on a wide range of texts Michael Rothberg puts forth an overarching framework for understanding representations of the Holocaust Through close readings of such writers and thinkers as Theodor Adorno Maurice Blanchot Ruth Kluger Charlotte Delbo Art Spiegelman and Philip Roth and an examination of films by Steven Spielberg and Claude Lanzmann Rothberg demonstrates how the Holocaust as a traumatic event makes three fundamental demands on representation a demand for documentation a demand for reflection on the limits of representation and a demand for engagement with the public sphere and commodity culture As it establishes new grounding for Holocaust studies his book provides a new understanding of realism modernism and postmodernism as responses to the demands of history

Untimely Interventions Leigh Ross Chambers, 2009-12-22 As atrocity has become characteristic of modern history testimonial writing has become a major twentieth century genre Untimely Interventions relates testimonial writing or witnessing to the cultural situation of aftermath exploring ways in which a culture can be haunted by its own history Ross Chambers argues that culture produces itself as civilized by denying the forms of collective violence and other traumatic experience that it cannot control In the context of such denial personal accounts of collective disaster can function as a form of counter denial By investigating a range of writing on AIDS the First World War and the Holocaust Chambers shows how such writing produces a rhetorical effect of haunting as it seeks to describe the reality of those experiences culture renders unspeakable Ross Chambers is Professor of Romance Languages at the University of Michigan His other books include Facing It AIDS Diaries and the Death of the Author

background and education the moral importance of community feminism and women's liberation the sexual self and role enforcement America's need for communality and women's creative response to it the art of teaching and the importance of friendship

When Tenants Claimed the City Roberta Gold, 2014-02-15 In postwar America not everyone wanted to move out of the city and into the suburbs For decades before World War II New York's tenants had organized to secure renters rights After the war tenant activists raised the stakes by challenging the newly dominant ideal of homeownership in racially segregated suburbs They insisted that renters as well as owners had rights to stable well maintained homes and they proposed that racially diverse urban communities held a right to remain in place a right that outweighed owners rights to raise rents redevelop properties or exclude tenants of color Further the activists asserted that women could participate fully in the political arenas where these matters were decided Grounded in archival research and oral history When Tenants Claimed the City The Struggle for Citizenship in New York City Housing shows that New York City's tenant movement made a significant claim to citizenship rights that came to accrue both ideologically and legally to homeownership in postwar America Roberta Gold emphasizes the centrality of housing to the racial and class reorganization of the city after the war the prominent role of women within the tenant movement and their fostering of a concept of community rights grounded in their experience of living together in heterogeneous urban neighborhoods

The Freedom Formula David Finkel, 2019-09-03 Building a successful company and career doesn't mean sacrificing your family health or life You check email the moment you lift your head off the pillow in the morning You bring work with you on vacation sneak glances at your smart phone during family dinners and take business calls and texts at your kid's sports games It's as if you've been forced to make a choice between your company or your life sacrificing time for yourself and family for the sake of career success But it doesn't have to be that way The most successful business leaders have learned to bust through the direct one to one relationship between hours worked and value created by refocusing their company department or team's best talent and attention on their highest value activities generating hundreds even thousands of hours of value in the process In The Freedom Formula Wall Street Journal bestselling author and successful entrepreneur David Finkel will help you operationalize working smarter No fluff no theory Finkel shares the detailed blueprint to create maximum value for your company without working nights weekends or while on vacation You'll learn Why working longer and harder doesn't pay off and what actually does Why the 80/20 principle doesn't go far enough and how to take it to its most productive extreme How to escape the Time and Effort Economy How to structure your day and week so that you reclaim five or more hours each week in usable blocks of your best time How to leverage the five Freedom Accelerators to get your life back faster And much more Whether you're a business owner top executive key manager or aspire to be one The Freedom Formula offers a radical new approach to structuring your time and priorities and your team's in order to reclaim hours of your day and the freedom to live your life not just your job
