Lazenby, 2017-07-03 A gem of a book Graham Tomlin Bishop of Kensington Many of our everyday encounters in the world are touched by the divine if we were only aware of it We may find it impossible to miss God in the great interruptions of human existence but God often finds a humbler dwelling place Donna Lazenby was in a packed underground carriage when it was taken siege by a group of musicians ripe to start a ceilidh The eruption into dull passivity of joy seemed a herald of the Kingdom of God And so she began to write a series of reflections some prosaic others more poetic in tone that open up ways of seeing light in darkness love in places of desolation in breaking life when all seems tired and old But the coming of this Kingdom is also revealed in protest in the world s cry against a pervasive sense of alienation while an allegedly secular culture steals and presents the claims of the Gospel as its own And so Divine Sparks calls us to be prophets visionaries able to discern and proclaim God s incoming Kingdom as it arrives by day and night Praise for the author s A Mystical Theology Bloomsbury 2014 Written with elegance and originality Catherine Pickstock Professor of Metaphysics and Poetics University of Cambridge      A Concordance to the Poems of W.B. Making Worlds Claudia Breger, 2020-04-14 The twenty first century has witnessed a resurgence of economic inequality racial exclusion and political hatred causing questions of collective identity and belonging to assume new urgency In Making Worlds Claudia Breger argues that contemporary European cinema provides ways of thinking about and feeling collectivity that can challenge these political trends Breger offers nuanced readings of major contemporary films such as Michael Haneke's The White Ribbon Alejandro González Iñárritu's Biutiful Fatih Akın's The Edge of Heaven Asghar Farhadi's A Separation and Aki Kaurismäki's refugee trilogy as well as works by Jean-Luc Godard and Rainer Werner Fassbinder Through a new model of cinematic worldmaking Breger examines the ways in which these works produce unexpected and destabilizing affects that invite viewers to imagine new connections among individuals or groups These films and their depictions of refugees immigrants and communities do not simply counter dominant political imaginaries of hate and fear with calls for empathy or solidarity Instead they produce layered sensibilities that offer the potential for greater openness to others present past and future claims Drawing on the work of Latour Deleuze and Rancière Breger engages questions of genre and realism along with the legacies of cinematic modernism Offering a rich account of contemporary film Making Worlds theorizes the cinematic creation of imaginative spaces in order to find new ways of responding to political hatred
