Looking For Normal Steve Slavin, 2020-11-02 AN AUTISTIC BOY WHO BEAT THE ODDS Looking For Normal is the memoir of author musician and filmmaker Steve Slavin His obsession with music at an early age led to a long career in the creative arts albeit one plagued by clinical depression and the symptoms of a condition he was unaware of until 2008 In recounting the 48 years that led to his autism diagnosis this darkly humorous memoir will inform and inspire anyone with an interest in mental health and autism But more than this it is the story of an emotionally disturbed child without a future who against the backdrop of low expectation became an ambitious independent adult with a wife daughters and a career stifled by the long shadow of his childhood dysfunction Reviews Insightful inspiring informative and entertaining Looking For Normal is not just about overcoming the adversities that life throws at you on a regular basis It is also about someone s journey of accepting embracing and celebrating everything that comes with having autism Dr RF Senior Practitioner Educational Psychologist and Academic and Professional Tutor A wonderful insight into an extraordinary life Peter Holmes Ph D

Thirteen Ways of Looking at a Black Man Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2011-06-08 This is a book of stories writes Henry Louis Gates and all might be described as narratives of ascent As some remarkable men talk about their lives many perspectives on race and gender emerge For the notion of the unitary black man Gates argues is as imaginary as the creature that the poet Wallace Stevens conjured in his poem Thirteen Ways of Looking at a Blackbird James Baldwin Colin Powell Harry Belafonte Bill T Jones Louis Farrakhan Anatole Broyard Albert Murray all these men came from modest circumstances and all achieved preeminence

They are people Gates writes who have shaped the world as much as they were shaped by it who gave as good as they got Three are writers James Baldwin who was once regarded as the intellectual spokesman for the black community Anatole Broyard who chose to hide his black heritage so as to be seen as a writer on his own terms and Albert Murray who rose to the pinnacle of literary criticism There is the general turned political figure Colin Powell who discusses his interactions with three United States presidents there is Harry Belafonte the entertainer whose career has been distinct from his fervent activism there is Bill T Jones dancer and choreographer whose fierce courage and creativity have continued in the shadow of AIDS and there is Louis Farrakhan the controversial religious leader These men and others speak of their lives with candor and intimacy and what emerges from this portfolio of influential men is a strikingly varied and profound set of ideas about what it means to be a black man in America today The Cabin Herman L. Curtis,2012-03-14 The life of a war hero that moves back home with his new bride and is accused of terrible crimes against woman and of dealing drugs in his community He is arrested and tried for the crimes and sent to prison but later escapes and is on the run where he meets a young woman and her son alone lost in a snow storm he befriends them and a whole community until he is captured and sent back to prison
