Looking Back Stories Of Our Mothers Fathers In Retrospect:

Looking Back Rebecca Weeks, 2003 For many of us our relationships with our parents have changed or are in the process of changing Age and experience allows us to recall a memory of a parent from a very different place and often our matured perceptions bring about new understanding Looking Back is a collection of stories written by women and men reflecting on a memory of a parent In retrospect these stories now bring forth shifts in insight or awareness and inspire all of us to revisit our own memories perhaps discovering new conclusions to our stories as well Back cover Looking Back Regina Bennett, 2022-11-11 Looking Back captures individual memories from birth and beyond sometimes painful other times happy But through it all there is healing in remembering Read along as Regina takes us on a journey through the pages of her book Looking Back as memories are awakened past the age of infancy experiencing glimpses of laughter pain and tears through herself and others But through it all she found healing within her process of remembering Looking Back is a memento Use it as a guide and step into the process of sharing and communicating with loved ones and or friends Listen as they speak one on one to you and share your truths and watch the positive benefits all will gain by the way of healing Conversations with Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Daria Tunca, 2020-08-25 Nigerian author Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie b 1977 is undoubtedly one of the most widely acclaimed African writers of the twenty first century Best known for her insightful fiction viral TED talks and essays on feminism she is also an outspoken intellectual As she puts it in an interview with Lia Grainger in her characteristically straightforward style I have things to say and I ll say them Conversations with Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie is the first collection of interviews with the writer Covering fifteen years of conversations the interviews start with the publication of Adichie s first novel Purple Hibiscus 2003 and end in late 2018 by which time Adichie had become one of the most prominent figures on the international literary scene As both scholars and passionate readers of the author s work are bound to find out the opinions shared by Adichie in interviews over the years coalesce into a fascinating portrait that presents both abiding features and gradual transformations Reflecting the political and emotional scope of Adichie s work the conversations contained in this volume cover a wide range of topics including colonialism race immigration and feminism Collectively these interviews testify both to the author s ardent wish to strive for a more just and equal world and to her deep interest in exploring our common humanity As Adichie says in her 2009 interview with Joshua Jelly Schapiro When people call me a novelist I say well yes I really think of myself as a storyteller This book invites Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie to tell her own literary story American Book Publishing Record , 2004 The Collected Stories William Trevor, 1993-12-01 A collection of short stories from celebrated author William Trevor in which he shines a light on the day to day life of Ireland and its citizens From his debut collection The Day We Got Drunk on Cake published in 1968 to Family Sins 1990 William Trevor has crafted the short story to perfection giving us brilliant and subtle stories full of the reversals surprises and shadowy truths we discover in life itself To read this volume is not just to encounter an extraordinary literary stylist but to
