The Underground Girls of Kabul Jenny Nordberg, 2015-07-14 An investigative journalist uncovers a hidden custom in Afghanistan that will transform your understanding of what it means to grow up as a girl An astonishingly clear picture of this resourceful if imperfect solution to the problem of girlhood in a society where women have few rights and overwhelming restrictions The Boston Globe In Afghanistan a culture ruled almost entirely by men the birth of a son is cause for celebration and the arrival of a daughter is often mourned as misfortune A bacha posh literally translated from Dari as dressed up like a boy is a third kind of child a girl temporarily raised as a boy and presented as such to the outside world Jenny Nordberg the reporter who broke the story of this phenomenon for the New York Times constructs a powerful and moving account of those secretly living on the other side of a deeply segregated society where women have almost no rights and little freedom The Underground Girls of Kabul is anchored by vivid characters who bring this remarkable story to life Azita a female parliamentarian who sees no other choice but to turn her fourth daughter Mehran into a boy Zahra the tomboy teenager who struggles with puberty and refuses her parents attempts to turn her back into a girl Shukria now a married mother of three after living for twenty years as a man and Nader who prays with Shahed the undercover female police officer as they both remain in male disguise as adults At the heart of this emotional narrative is a new perspective on the extreme sacrifices of Afghan women and girls against the violent backdrop of America's longest war Divided into four parts the book follows those born as the unwanted sex in Afghanistan but who live as the socially favored gender through childhood and puberty only to later be forced into marriage and childbirth The Underground Girls of Kabul charts their dramatic life cycles while examining our own history and the parallels to subversive actions of people who live under oppression everywhere

Afghan War of 1879-80 ... Howard Hensman, 1882

Afghanistan: Minorities, conflict and the search for peace

Peter Marsden, 2001-11-01 The US led air strikes on Afghanistan that began on 7 October 2001 are only the latest episode in a conflict that has lasted 20 years This conflict has left Afghanistan's infrastructure devastated and its people at the bottom of the UN's Human Development Indices This new Report situates Afghanistan in its regional and international context It explains the political social religious and ethnic factors underlying the country's recent history debunking some of the simplistic and stereotyped views of the country and its population The Report also gives a detailed picture of the interaction between domestic conditions and foreign interests that led to the rise and dominance of the Taliban It describes the impact of prolonged conflict on the people of Afghanistan and the way in which the conflict has become ethnicized It ends with a set of Recommendations to prevent the escalation or perpetuation of the conflict

The Afghan War of 1879-80 Howard

Hensman,2008 This text is a first hand account of the Afghan War by an embedded journalist Recounted in dramatic and unparalleled detail Hensman brings to life the bitter conflict of the Afghan Wars as only a man on the ground could do

The EU's Afghan Police Mission Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee,2011-02-16 This report finds that the EU s Police Mission in Afghanistan risks failing in an area where the EU should be showing leadership The Committee found that the Afghan National Police force is in a dire state due to high attrition and illiteracy rates and corruption The mission must pay greater attention to the most basic of policing skills not least reading and writing if it is to succeed The EU is undertaking a vital task in Afghanistan but it must address the reasons why the mission is failing before it is too late Reasons include too few staff the small target of 400 people has never been met demonstrating lack of EU commitment and meaning that the mission cannot cover many important parts of the country the EU and NATO are not working together properly insufficient attention has been paid to the Afghan judiciary where there are problems of capacity and corruption levels which risk making police reform unproductive and seriously limiting prosecution levels The Committee is also concerned that the timetable for building up Afghanistan s ability to police itself does not coincide with the departure of foreign combat troops

Operations in Afghanistan Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Defence Committee,2011-07-17 This report looks at operations in Afghanistan since 2006 and makes further recommendations for the anticipated draw down of forces UK Forces were deployed in Helmand Province in Afghanistan for three years from 2006 without the necessary personnel equipment or intelligence to succeed in their mission Mistakes were made as a result of a failure in military and political coordination The decision to move UK Armed Forces into the South of Afghanistan in early 2006 was not fully thought through The Committee is concerned that the MoD did not anticipate that the presence of the Armed Forces in Helmand might stir up a hornets nest especially as much of the intelligence was contradictory Senior military advisers should have drawn attention to the need for force levels to be sufficiently robust to cope with an unpredictable conflict The Committee is disturbed that the Secretary of State was told that commanders on the ground were content with the support they were being given in Helmand when clearly they were not After only a matter of months in Helmand the nature of the UK Mission changed with serious strategic implications The MoD did not respond quickly enough to changes in Taliban tactics The MoD should prioritise the protection of personnel The Government s room for manoeuvre regarding the number of troops that could be withdrawn from Afghanistan as part of an immediate transition is necessarily limited More emphasis needs to be placed on capacity building within the political system if long term success is to be achieved

The Church Missionary Gleaner 1858

Anonymous,2025-08-18 Reprint of the original first published in 1859 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Church missionary gleaner [afterw.] C.M.S. gleaner [afterw.] The Church missionary outlook [afterw.] The C.M.S. outlook Church missionary society, My Life on Three Continents Stanislav Fabric,2012-01-10 The author depicts life in Bosnia first as part of Yugoslavia then as part of the independent state of Croatia service in the Croatian Navy training on the Sailing Ship Horst Wessel now in the U S renamed Eagle life in Titos Yugoslavia and in 1949 escape to Italy across the Adriatic Sea Year in Italy ending with emigration to Australia After 8 years there arrival in Berkeley CA to pursue graduate studies in nuclear engineering marriage to Barbara from Kansas and start of a family Follows work for Westinghouse in Pittsburgh PA then in Maryland for the US Atomic Energy Commission Includes description of many local and overseas trips The Church Missionary Gleaner ,1856 The UK's foreign policy approach to Afghanistan and Pakistan Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Foreign Affairs Committee,Richard Ottaway,2011-03-02 In this report the Foreign Affairs Committee calls on the British Government to use its influence to persuade the US to engage more fully and swiftly with the process of political reconciliation in Afghanistan if the US wishes to disengage its forces there Although the current international emphasis favours intense military pressure aimed at defeating the insurgency it is clear that military pressure alone is not enough to bring security and stability to Afghanistan The evidence presented to the Committee has suggested that the current full scale and highly intensive ISAF counter insurgency campaign is not succeeding The Committee question the fundamental assumption that success in Afghanistan can be bought through a strategy of clear hold and build The distinction between al Qaeda and the Taliban is crucial to generating appropriate policy responses in Afghanistan The Committee says that despite the significant resources that have been invested in Afghanistan and the enduring wholehearted and admirable commitment and sacrifices of British personnel

the UK has not yet achieved its stated goals There is also evidence that the core foreign policy justification for the UK's continued presence in Afghanistan namely that it is necessary in the interests of UK national security may have been achieved some time ago given the apparently limited strength of al Qaeda in Afghanistan The security rationale behind the UK Government's decision to announce the 2015 deadline for the unconditional withdrawal of UK combat forces remains unclear and there are a number of potential risks inherent in such an approach

The Afghan Frontier George Campbell, 1879 George Campbell 1824-92 had a long career as an administrator in India where he first went in 1843 in the service of the East India Company He eventually rose to become lieutenant governor of Bengal 1871-74 Campbell wrote several books about India where he established a reputation as an administrator who while paternalistic and authoritarian was genuinely interested in the welfare of the Indian people Campbell left India in 1874 to return permanently to England He joined the Liberal Party and in 1875 was elected to Parliament as the member for Kirkcaldy The Afghan Frontier published in 1879 early in the Second Anglo-Afghan War of 1878-80 is a short book containing Campbell's sweeping critique of the errors and inconsistencies that in his view marked British policy with regard to Afghanistan After a brief overview of the situation before the war the military and political situation in the spring of 1879 and the history geography and ethnography of the country Campbell presents his argument that the British should accept a compromise accord with the new Afghan leader Abd al Rahman Khan and withdraw from the country Campbell's philosophy is summed up in the concluding sentences of the book I am myself all for economy peace and quiet at home and would only seek to hold India so long as we can do so without being forced into ambitious projects beyond the Indian border That was my view in 1849 and that is my view in 1879
