Monsieur Francisque's Touring Troupe and Anglo-French Theatrical Culture, 1690-1770 Robert V. Kenny, 2025-04-08 This deeply accomplished and lively monograph charts the career of a travelling French actor manager whose impact and significance have been overlooked The inimitable Monsieur Francisque Fran ois Moylin c 1690 1770 was an extraordinary actor manager and key figure in the early eighteenth century theatre world of both England and France Leader of a family of gifted performers including his niece the famous dancer choreographer Marie Sall he took them to every corner of France and beyond playing before Louis XV as well as George I and II of England However despite his fame among his contemporaries Francisque s career has been largely overlooked Robert V Kenny resurrects Moylin from the footnotes of theatre history with this detailed case study of an entrepreneurial actor manager his troupe and their repertory Following them from the Paris fairs to the courts of Europe via one of the worst riots in English theatre history the book showcases the giddy range of activities and performances undertaken by this family and their associates Through the careful piecing together of diverse and fragmentary historical records Kenny reveals the crucial role played by Francisque and his troupe in the conflict between Parisian fairground players and the established theatres stressing Francisque s major contribution to the development of op ra comique This book not only revives Moylin s legacy but enriches our understanding of cross cultural theatrical exchanges in eighteenth century Europe

French-speaking Women Documentarians Janis L. Pallister, Ruth A. Hottell, 2005 French Speaking Women Documentarians is a guide for teachers of French and others interested in selecting and researching the work of female French speaking documentarians Represented in this book are filmmakers from Canada various African nations the Antilles Lebanon Switzerland Belgium and several other countries with emphasis on Agn s Varda of France arguably the greatest female documentarian of all The book includes information on each filmmaker classified by country of origin and lists and describes her works giving factual information such as date duration credits and synopses and pointing out critical treatments both in English and in French of her most important films Shorts docudramas and works of animation are also discussed as they too reflect history and culture This guide will lead to the viewing of films that shed understanding on the culture being portrayed and to a greater appreciation of the contribution of French speaking women filmmakers to this important if not always objective film genre Perspectives on the Performance of French Piano Music Lesley A. Wright,2016-04-22 Perspectives on the Performance of French Piano Music offers a range of approaches central to the performance of French piano music of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The contributors include scholars and active performers who see performance not as an independent activity but as a practice enriched by a wealth of historical and analytical approaches To underline the usefulness of contextual understanding for performance each author highlights the choices performers must confront with examples drawn from particular repertoires and composers Topics explored include editorial practice the use of early recordings emergent disciplines such as analysis and performance and traditions passed down from teacher to student Themes that emerge demonstrate the importance of editions as a form of communication the challenges of notation the significance of detail and of deeper continuity the importance of performing and teaching traditions and the influence of cross disciplinary frameworks A link to a set of performed examples on the frenchpianomusic.com website allows readers to hear and compare performances and interpretations of the music discussed The volume will appeal to musicologists and analysts interested in performance performers students and piano teachers Catalogue of music, instrumental and vocal, etc. (1852.). ,1852 Catalogue of
