Lopera Grafica Di Giorgio Morandi:

Montale, Debussy, and Modernism Gian-Paolo Biasin, 2014-07-14 Integrating the study of both music and art into an exploration of the early poetry of Eugenio Montale 1896 1982 this book situates Italy's premier poet of the twentieth century within the Modernist movement Gian Paolo Biasin finds in Montale's poetry broad resonances reverberations and comparisons that involve it in the European culture of its time and that invite the reading of poetry music and painting as texts in a cultural system This interdisciplinary approach expands our appreciation of Montale's work in a way not possible with literary analysis alone Biasin's study first shows the structural homology between some of Debussy's preludes for piano and certain poems in Montale's Ossi di seppia emphasizing the rhythmic qualities of the compositions This formal analysis leads to an understanding of the respective texts thematic symbolic and cultural meaning specifically antiheroism as a choice of life Similar methodology is then used to reveal the relationship between the poetry of Montale and Giorgio Morandi's etchings and between Montale's poetic persona Arsenio and the novelistic characters of Svevo and Pirandello Each of these comparisons brings to light a shared image that of the clown or antihero as a mocking self portrait of the modern artist Originally published in 1989 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Morandi Etchings Giorgio Morandi, 1978
