It's 1924 and New York is the centre of the universe Henry Smart on the run from Dublin lands on his feet After the 1916 Rebellion Henry Smart is running from the Republicans for whom he committed murder and mayhem Lying to the immigration officer avoiding Irish eyes that might recognise him hiding the photograph of himself with his wife because it shows a gun across his lap he throws his passport into the river and forges a new identity He's a handsome man with a sandwich board behind which he stashes hooch for the speakeasies of the Lower East Side He catches the attention of the mobsters who run the district and soon there are eyes on his back and men in the shadows It is time to leave for another America The Depression is sending folks to ride the rails in search of a new life and new hope and all trains lead to Chicago As Henry's past tries to catch up with him he takes off on a journey to the great port where music is everywhere Chicago is wild and new and newest of all is the music Furious wild happy music played by a man with a trumpet and bleeding lips called Louis Armstrong His music is everywhere coming from every open door every phonograph But Armstrong is a prisoner of his colour there are places a black man cannot go things he cannot do Armstrong needs a man a white man and the man he chooses is Henry Smart FLYING CATS (actually swooping) Dan Sklar, 2013 Sklar's poetry could be characterized as American Primitive clean and bracing as creek water Like Whitman Sklar celebrates the mystery and profundity of the everyday This is guy poetry muscularly chronicling the days and to do list of the contemporary American male helplessly and joyfully committed to the challenges of raising a houseful of boys teaching sleepy eyed college students and handling the ignominies of manuscript rejection letters Sklar's poems tumble and sing with enormously universal appeal publisher

music background music that comes from off screen and is not audible to the film's characters to further the dramatic development of plot character or other themes and diegetic music source music produced on screen and or that is audible to the film's characters adding to the realism of the mise en scene without contributing much to other dramatic meanings This book defines describes and illustrates another hitherto neglected type of film music ambi diegetic film music which appears on screen but which contributes to the dramatic development of plot character and other themes Consistent with an interest in macromarketing such ambi diegetic film music serves as a kind of product placement suitable for commercialization via the cross promotion of soundtrack albums for example and plays a role in product design It also provides one type of symbolic consumer behavior that indicates choices made by film characters when playing singing listening or dancing in ways that reveal their personalities or convey other cinemusical meanings Morris Holbrook argues that ambi diegetic film music sheds light on various social issues such as the age old tension between art and entertainment as it applies to the contrast between creative integrity and commercialization Music Movies Meanings and Markets explores the ways in which ambi diegetic jazz contributes to the development of dramatic meanings in various films many of which address the art versus commerce theme as a central concern
