Louis Faurer ,2016 This book is the first in fifteen years to present the largely overlooked work of Louis Faurer who depicted the melancholy streets of New York in the 1940s and 50s and whom Walter Hopps has described as a master of his medium Faurer initially worked for fashion magazines such as Harper s Bazaar in New York but soon focused his eye on the enchanting city itself Everywhere a new discovery awaited me Here Faurer made poetic darkly romantic images of the characters of the street often the poor and lonely amidst the bustle of Times Square during what he called its hypnotic dusk light Inspired by Walker Evans Faurer developed a personal highly empathetic vision comparable to that of Robert Frank with whom he shared a loft and darkroom in his early New York days Faurer solidified his ironic brooding aesthetic in the 50s often employing graphic contrasts reflections and distortions which show the influence of film noir and deepen his exploration of the psychology of the individual My eyes search for people who are grateful for life people who forgive and whose doubts have been removed who understand the truth whose enduring spirit is bathed by such piercing light as to provide their present and future with hope I have an intense desire to record life as I see it as I feel it As long as I m amazed and astonished as long as I feel that events messages expressions and movements are all shot through with the miraculous I ll feel filled with the certainty I need to keep going When that day comes my doubts will vanish Louis Faurer

Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren,2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included American Photo ,2002-05 Photography and Everyday Life Lisa Hostetler,2004 Marilyn and friends Sam Shaw,2004 This catalogue presents a selection of 135 images most of which have never before been published of Marilyn Monroe the famous star the myth and the icon of the 20th century It also includes portraits of other iconic stars such as Marlon Brando This Ain't No Holiday Inn James Lough,2013-07-01 During its heyday the Chelsea Hotel in New York City was a home and safe haven for Bohemian artists poets and musicians such as Bob Dylan Gregory Corso Alan Ginsberg Janis Joplin and Dee Dee Ramone This oral history of the famed hotel peers behind the iconic facade and delves into the mayhem madness and brilliance that stemmed from the hotel in the 1980s and 1990s Providing a window into the late Bohemia of New York during that time countless interviews and firsthand accounts adorn this social history of one of the most celebrated and culturally significant landmarks in New York City Photography after Photography Abigail Solomon-Godeau,2017-03-23 Presenting two decades of work by Abigail Solomon Godeau Photography after Photography is an inquiry into the circuits of power that shape photographic practice criticism and historiography As the boundaries that separate photography from other forms of artistic production are increasingly fluid Solomon Godeau a pioneering feminist and politically engaged critic argues that the relationships between photography culture gender and power demand renewed attention In her analyses of the photographic production of Cindy Sherman Robert Mapplethorpe Susan Meiselas Francesca Woodman and others Solomon Godeau refigures the disciplinary object of photography by considering these practices through an examination of the determinations of genre and gender as these shape the relations between photographers their images and their viewers Among her subjects are the 2006 Abu Ghraib prison photographs and the Cold War era exhibition The Family of Man insofar as these illustrate photography's embeddedness in social relations viewing relations and ideological formations Seizing the Light Robert Hirsch,2024-02-08 The definitive history of photography book Seizing the Light A Social Aesthetic History of Photography delivers the fascinating story of how photography as an art form came into being and its continued development maturity and transformation Covering major events practitioners works and social effects of photographic practice author Robert Hirsch provides a concise and discerning chronological account of photography drawing on examples from across the world This fundamental starting place shows the diversity of makers inventors issues and applications exploring the artistic critical and social aspects of the creative thinking process This new edition has been fully revised and updated to include the latest advances in technology and digital photography as well as information on contemporary photographers such as Granville Carroll Meryl McMaster Cindy Sherman Penelope Umbrico and Yang Yongliang New topics include the rise of mobile photography and surveillance cameras drone photography image manipulation protest and social justice photography plus the roles of artificial intelligence and social media in photography

Highly illustrated with over 250 full color images and contributions from hundreds of artists around the world Seizing the Light serves as a gateway to the history of photography Written in an accessible style it is perfect for those newly engaging with the practice of photography and for experienced photographers wanting to contextualize their own work City Dog

W. S. Di Piero,2009-02-16 When a self proclaimed lazy scholar embarks on a trip through his life s influences as diverse as girl group doo wop Yeats and Van Gogh readers are in for an illuminating ride This collection of essays from cultural critic Di Piero veers from his early years as the son of immigrants in Philadelphia to his working life in art film music and poetry Along with a few choice essays reprinted from out of print collections Di Piero s new work shows him to be insightful about himself and his work despite his protestations against the boosterism of autobiography Through the lens of his sharp artistic analysis readers see his story an immigrant story filled with the music and mystery of a multilingual family the men of his neighborhood wearing so many hats as they worked as the auspicious beginning for his life of observation and revelation His prose sings along tripping across slang poetry and painters with the same precision that allows him to nearly dance about architecture Though Di Piero would claim that his life s path lurches and swerves his essays prove that he has wandered expansively and with purpose a city dog trotting across continents along pages and through galleries American Witness

RJ Smith,2017-11-07 From the author of the acclaimed James Brown biography The One comes the first in depth biography of renowned photographer and filmmaker Robert Frank best known for his landmark book The Americans As well known as Robert Frank the photographer is few can say they really know Robert Frank the man Born and raised in wartime Switzerland Frank discovered the power and allure of photography at an early age and quickly learned that the art meant significantly more to him than the money success or fame The art was all and he intended to spend a lifetime pursuing it American Witness is the first comprehensive look at the life of a man who s as mysterious and evasive as he is prolific and gifted Leaving his rigid Switzerland for the more fluid United States in 1947 Frank found himself at the red hot social center of bohemian New York in the 50s and 60s becoming friends with everyone from Jack Kerouac Allen Ginsberg and Peter Orlovsky to photographer Walker Evans actor Zero Mostel painter Willem de Kooning filmmaker Jonas Mekas Bob Dylan writer Rudy Wirlitzer jazz musicians Ornette Coleman and Charles Mingus and more Frank roamed the country with his young family taking roughly 27 000 photographs and collecting 83 of them into what is still his most famous work The Americans His was an America nobody had seen before and if it was harshly criticized upon publication for its portrait of a divided country the collection gradually grew to be recognized as a transformative American vision And then he turned his back on certain success giving up photography to reinvent himself as a film and video maker Frank helped found the American independent cinema of the 1960s and made a legendary film with the Rolling Stones Today the nonagenarian is an embodiment of restless creativity and a symbol of what it costs to remain original in America his life defined by never repeating himself never being satisfied American Witness is a portrait of a singular artist and the country that he saw
