modern Europe With particular focus on French interiors Isabelle Tillerot reveals how a European enthusiasm for East Asian culture and a demand for novelty transformed the dynamic between painting and decor Models of space landscape and horizon as shown in Chinese and Japanese objects and their ornamentation disrupted prevailing design concepts in Europe With paintings no longer functioning as pictorial windows they began to be viewed as discrete images displayed on a wall and with that their status changed from decorative device to autonomous work of art This study presents a detailed history of this transformation revealing how an aesthetic free from the constraints of symmetry and geometrized order upended paradigms of display enabling European painting to come into its own The representation of Roma in major European museum collections Sarah Carmona,2020-05-14
