Love 31 Reflections On Christian Virtue:

Love Carl Koch, 1996 If we believe in God's love for us perhaps we will believe in our own ability to love We pray to accept the grace to love May each of these thirty one days of prayer for love challenge invite inspire and inform us to love more fully wisely and well Humility Robert Morneau, 1997-01-01 This book of 31 days of reflections opens a door giving readers entrance for a moment into how some fellow pilgrims encounter the grace of humility It may be through their sharing of this virtue that readers may befriend it and wake up one day to find their feet walking down the humble path of God's love and mercy The Democratic Virtues of the Christian Right Jon A. Shields, 2009-02-22 Jon Shields argues that religious conservatives have in fact dramatically increased and improved democratic participation and that they are far more civil and reasonable than is commonly believed from publisher description Virtue and the Moral Life William Werpehowski, Kathryn Getek Soltis, 2014-07-22 The scope of interest and reflection on virtue and the virtues is as wide and deep as the questions we can ask about what makes a moral agent's life decent or noble or holy rather than cruel or base or sinful or about the conditions of human character and circumstance that make for good relations between family members friends workers fellow citizens and strangers and the sorts of conditions that do not Clearly these questions will inevitably be directed to more finely grained features of everyday life in particular contexts Virtue and the Moral Life Theological and Philosophical Perspectives takes up these questions In its ten timely and original chapters it considers the specific importance of virtue ethics its public significance for shaping a society's common good the value of civic integrity warfare and returning soldiers sense of enlarged moral responsibility the care for and agency of children in contemporary secular consumer society and other questions involving moral failure humility and forgiveness Imperial Visions of Late Byzantium Florin Leonte, 2019-11-27 Explores a Byzantine emperor's construction of authority with the help of his rhetorical texts Examines the changes in the Byzantine imperial idea by the end of the fourteenth century with a particular focus on the instrumentalization of the intellectual dimension of the imperial rule Integrates late Byzantine imperial visions into the bigger picture of Byzantine imperial ideology Provides a fresh understanding of key pieces of Byzantine public rhetoric and introduces analytical concepts from rhetorical literary and discursive theories Offers translations of key passages from late Byzantine rhetoric Manuel II Palaiologos was not only a Byzantine emperor but also a remarkably prolific rhetorician and theologian His oeuvre included letters treatises dialogues short poems and orations Florin Leonte deals with several of his texts shaped by a didactic intention to educate the emperor's son and successor John VIII Palaiologos He argues that the emperor constructed a rhetorical persona which he used in an attempt to compete with other contemporary power brokers While Manuel Palaiologos adhered to many rhetorical conventions of his day he also reasserted the civic role of rhetoric With a special focus on the first two decades of Manuel II Palaiologos rule 1391-1417 Leonte offers a new understanding of the imperial ethos in Byzantium by combining rhetorical analysis with investigation of social and political phenomena The Priority of Love Timothy P. Jackson, 2021-06-08 This book explores the relation between agape or Christian charity and social justice Timothy Jackson defines agape as the central virtue in Christian ethical thought and action and applies his insights to three concrete issues political violence forgiveness and abortion Taking his primary cue from the New Testament while drawing extensively from contemporary theology and philosophy Jackson identifies three features of Christian charity unconditional commitment to the good of others equal regard for others well being and passionate service open to self sacrifice for the sake of others Charity prescribed by Jesus for his disciples and named by Saint Paul as the greatest theological virtue is contrasted with various accounts of justice Jackson argues that agape is not trumped by justice or other goods Rather agape precedes justice without the work of love society would not produce persons capable of merit demerit and contract the elements of most modern conceptions of justice Jackson then considers the implications of his ideas for several questions the nature of God the relation between Christian love and political violence the place of forgiveness and the morality of abortion Arguing that agapic love is to be construed as a gift of grace as well as a divine commandment Jackson concludes that love is the eternal life that makes temporal existence possible and thus the first Christian virtue Though foremost a contribution to Christian ethics Jackson's arguments and the issues he takes up will find a broader readership

Report of the ... Annual Meeting Franciscan Educational Conference, 1925 1 Corinthians Scot

McKnight, 2024-05-07 Scholarly insights with a pastoral heart for all the books of the New Testament Scot McKnight is one of my absolute favorite New Testament scholars and his Everyday Bible Study series is akin to Einstein creating a user friendly version of the Theory of Relativity Lisa Harper award winning author and Bible teacher Paul writes a letter to a church routinely in disagreement with Paul's vision for how to live as a Christian in Corinth a Roman city The Corinthians were daily challenged to pursue Romanitas or the social cultural and religious life of the elites in the Roman world and thus the Corinthians were pursuing too much prestige and status and honor Various factions or divisions had formed among the house churches Paul addresses a series of church problems presenting themselves in Corinth that need to be understood and corrected so the believers of Corinth can walk in the way of Christ more consistently In the New Testament Everyday Bible Study Series widely respected biblical scholar Scot McKnight reveals the newness and activeness of God's Word as it works in our everyday lives His unique approach to Bible study combines sound theology with relevant pastoral wisdom Each volume of this series provides Original Meaning Brief precise expositions of the biblical text and offers a clear focus for the central message of each passage Fresh Interpretation Brings the passage alive with fresh images and what it means to follow King Jesus Practical Application Biblical connections and questions for reflection and application for each passage The NIV is used as the primary Bible text but McKnight also includes insights from his own translation of the entire New Testament Each Bible study features a short compact clear exposition that both summarizes the whole and gives the reader a clear focus for what is central to the passage Christian Ethics Hak Joon Lee, 2021-11-09 In this capacious and accessible

introduction to Christian ethics Hak Joon Lee advances a renewed vision of Christian life that is liberative grace centered and justice and peace oriented in nature Responding to key ethical questions of today Lee applies the moral meaning and implications of the New Covenant in Jesus Christ to twenty first century life characterized by fluidity fragmentation division and violence Christian Ethics begins by introducing covenant as the central drama and storyline of Scripture that culminates in the New Covenant of Jesus It presents shalom the wholeness and flourishing of creation as God s ultimate purpose and God s covenant as God s organizing mechanism of community that mediates God s work of liberation and restoration Lee proposes a creative model of Christian ethics based on the New Covenant of Jesus and its organizing patterns reconstructing the key categories of ethics agency norms authority of Scripture ethical discernment etc and drawing out four practices communicative engagement just peacemaking grassroots organizing and nonviolence The result is a new model of Christian ethics that is inclusive egalitarian ecological and justice and peace oriented which overcomes the limitations of traditional covenantal ethics In the second part of the book Lee systematically applies New Covenant ethics to the most urgent and controversial social issues of our time democratic politics economic ethics creation care criminal justice race sex and marriage medicine and war and peace Through his deep pastoral and irenic inquiries into these difficult topics Lee demonstrates a pattern of covenantal moral reasoning that undercuts the dominant neoliberal ethos of individualism and transactional relationship that more and more influences Christian moral decisions His conclusion is that as covenant has been at the heart of modern democracy human rights civil society and civic formation a renewed understanding of covenant centered in Jesus can help to heal our broken society and imperiled planet and to reorganize the fragmented human life in the era of globalization and digitization

Moral Formation and the Virtuous Life Paul M. Blowers, 2019-07-02 In Moral Formation and the Virtuous Life volume editor Paul M Blowers has translated and gathered several key texts from early Christian sources to explore the broad themes of moral conscience and ethics Readers will gain a sense of how moral formation was part of a process sustained by pastoral instruction and admonition based on ritual practice baptism eucharist and liturgy as well as learned ethical behaviors related to moral issues such as sexual ethics marriage and celibacy wealth and poverty pagan entertainment military service and more Moral Formation and the Virtuous Life is part of Ad Fontes Early Christian Sources a series designed to present ancient Christian texts essential to an understanding of Christian theology ecclesiology and practice The books in the series will make the wealth of early Christian thought available to new generations of students of theology and provide a valuable resource for the Church Developed in light of recent Patristic scholarship the volumes will provide a representative sampling of theological contributions from both East and West The series aims to provide volumes that are relevant for a variety of courses from introduction to theology to classes on doctrine and the development of Christian thought The goal of each volume is not to be exhaustive but rather representative enough to denote for a non specialist audience the multivalent character of early Christian thought allowing readers to see how and

why early Christian doctrine and practice developed the way it did Reflections for Sundays, Year A Angela Ashwin, Rosalind Brown, Steven Croft, Andrew Davison, Malcolm Guite, Mark Oakley, Sue Pickering, John Pritchard, Jane Williams, 2016 Reflections for Daily Prayer has nourished thousands of Christians for a decade with its inspiring and informed weekday Bible reflections Now in response to demand Reflections for Sundays combines material from over the years with new writing to provide high quality reflections on the Principal Readings for Sundays and major Holy Days Contributors include some of the very best writers from across the Anglican tradition who have helped to establish it as one of the leading daily devotional volumes today For each Sunday and major Holy Day in Year A Reflections for Sundays offers full lectionary details for the Principle Service a reflection on the Old Testament reading a reflection on the Epistle a reflection on the Gospel It also contains a substantial introduction to the Gospel of Matthew written by renowned Bible teacher Paula Gooder

Reflections for Daily Prayer: Advent 2016 to Christ the King 2017 Steven Croft, Joanna Collicutt, Paula Gooder, Helen-Ann Hartley, Libby Lane, Graham James, Helen Orchard, Angela Tilby, 2016-05-30 Reflections for Daily Prayer is a highly valued daily Bible companion based on the Common Worship Lectionary Each day Monday to Saturday some of the very best writers from across the Anglican tradition offer insightful informed and inspiring reflections on one of the day's readings for Morning Prayer Their reflections will appeal to anyone who values both the companionship of daily Bible notes and the structure of the Lectionary For every day excluding Sundays of the 2016-17 church year there are full references and a quotation from the day's set of Scripture readings a concise but challenging commentary on the readings and a collect In addition the book includes a simple order for morning and night prayer an introduction to the practice of daily prayer by Bishop John Pritchard and a guide to reading the Bible reflectively by Bishop Stephen Cottrell The Christian Doctrine of Sin Julius Müller, 1868

English Benedictine nuns in exile in the seventeenth century Laurence Lux-Sterritt, 2017-03-24 This study of English Benedictine nuns is based upon a wide variety of original manuscripts including chronicles death notices clerical instructions texts of spiritual guidance but also the nuns own collections of notes It highlights the tensions between the contemplative ideal and the nuns personal experiences illustrating the tensions between theory and practice in the ideal of being dead to the world It shows how Benedictine convents were both cut off and enclosed yet very much in touch with the religious and political developments at home but also proposes a different approach to the history of nuns with a study of emotions and the senses in the cloister delving into the textual analysis of the nuns personal and communal documents to explore aspect of a lived spirituality when the body which so often hindered the spirit at times enabled spiritual experience All the Messianic Prophecies of the Bible Herbert Lockyer, 1988-09-30 This compendium of all the prophecies in Scripture concerns the promised Messiah Dr Lockyer's discussion is divided into two sections Specific Messianic Prophecies and Symbolic Messianic Prophecies Expositor and Current Anecdotes, 1914 Ethics without Principles Roy H. May, 2015-10-21 Ethics in the West too often equates morality with universal moral principles thus imposing lifestyles and moral criteria that do not respect differences and local histories Even Christianity proposes ethics that is based on eternal absolute and universal truths or principles independent of sociocultural and historical contexts The problem is that these universal moral laws become a means of social control to exclude those who are different non Christian religions nonwhite races non Western cultures and poor and marginalized social classes everywhere To these can be added minorities marginalized because of sexual orientation physical handicaps and women of all sectors and cultures Another kind of ethics is urgent For these reasons Christians in Latin America and other parts are seeking innovative ways of envisioning ethics from their marginalized and discriminated social locations in order to find another possible ethics an ethics that is not universal and not based on eternal truths or principles but rather is contextual and historical and that takes into account real life realities Only an ethics that does this will be liberative Important steps toward this other possible ethics have been taken by the theology of liberation by developing a contextual and intercultural morality

Receptive Human Virtues Elizabeth Agnew Cochran,2015-08-26 This book offers a new reading of Jonathan Edwards s virtue ethic that examines a range of qualities Edwards identifies as virtues and considers their importance for contemporary ethics Each of Edwards s human virtues is receptive in nature humans acquire the virtues through receiving divine grace and therefore depend utterly on Edwards s God for virtue s acquisition By contending that humans remain authentic moral agents even as they are unable to attain virtue apart from his God s assistance Edwards challenges contemporary conceptions of moral responsibility which tend to emphasize human autonomy as a central part of accountability

The Influential Christian Michael W. Andrews,2021-10-15 As Christians each of us is called to bring people together through the Spirit of God By developing our inner character our heart we can have a greater role in other people s lives and others can have more significance in our own growth as leaders Genuine influence is a deep summons to our most authentic selves an exciting exploration that is often missing in our culture of quick fixes and easy advice In The Influential Christian Michael W Andrews reveals how engaging in spiritual practices that exercise empathy allows us to cultivate influence in our personal professional and spiritual lives Drawing upon God s spiritual resources as we interact with other people we build the integrity necessary to be empathic leaders As readers will discover building character is much more than completing a checklist of self improvement initiatives it s a pilgrimage into the full meaning of being human and being Christian
