Love Carried Me Home Joy Erlichman Miller, 2000-10 Profiles sixteen female survivors of internment at Auschwitz and discusses the gender specific experiences of women during the Holocaust and the coping mechanisms they used to survive

Remembering Survival: Inside a Nazi Slave-Labor Camp Christopher R. Browning, 2011-01-10 Winner of the National Jewish Book Award An important revealing story exceptionally well told Jonathan Yardley Washington Post Employing the rich testimony of almost three hundred survivors of the slave labor camps of Starachowice Poland Christopher R Browning draws the experiences of the Jewish prisoners the Nazi authorities and the neighboring Poles together into a chilling history of a little known dimension of the Holocaust Combining harrowing detail and insightful analysis on the Starachowice camps and their role in the Holocaust Browning's history is indispensable scholarship and an unforgettable story of survival

Transcending Trauma Bea Hollander-Goldfein, Nancy Isserman, Jennifer Goldenberg, 2012-04-27 Based on twenty years of intense qualitative research Transcending Trauma presents an integrated model of coping and adaptation after trauma that incorporates the best of recent work in the field with the expanded insights offered by Holocaust survivors In the book's vignettes and interview transcripts survivors of a broad range of traumas will recognize their own challenges and mental health professionals will gain invaluable insight into the dominant themes both of Holocaust survivors and of trauma survivors more generally Together the authors and contributors Sheryl Perlmutter Bowen Hannah Kliger Lucy Raizman Juliet Spitzer and Emilie Scherz Passow have transformed qualitative narrative analysis and framed for us a new and profound understanding of survivorship Their study has illuminated universal aspects of the recovery from trauma and Transcending Trauma makes a vital contribution to our understanding of how survivors find meaning after traumatic events Accompanying Transcending Trauma are downloadable resources of full text life histories that documents the survivor experience In seven comprehensive interviews survivors paint a picture of life before and after war and trauma their own feelings beliefs and personalities as well as those of their family their struggles to deal with loss and suffering and the ways in which their family relationships were able in some cases to mediate the transmission of trauma across generations and help the survivors transcend the trauma of their experiences

Tracing the Autobiographical Marlene Kadar, Susanna Egan, 2009-10-22 The essays in Tracing the Autobiographical work with the literatures of several nations to reveal the intersections of broad agendas for example national ones with the personal the private and the individual Attending to ethics exile tyranny and hope the contributors listen for echoes and murmurs as well as authoritative declarations They also watch for the appearance of auto biography in unexpected places tracing patterns from materials that have been left behind Many of the essays return to the question of text or traces of text demonstrating that the language of autobiography as well as the textualized identities of individual persons can be traced in multiple media and sometimes unlikely documents each of which requires close textual examination These unlikely documents include a deportation list an art exhibit reality TV Web sites and chat rooms architectural spaces and government memos as well as the more familiar literary genres a play the long poem or the short story Interdisciplinary in scope and contemporary in outlook Tracing the Autobiographical is a welcome addition to autobiography scholarship focusing on non traditional genres and on the importance of location and place in life writing Read the chapter Gender Nation and Self Narration Three Generations of Dayan Women in Palestine Israel by Bina Freiwald on the Concordia University Library Spectrum Research Repository website      Experience and Expression Elizabeth R.

Baer, Myrna Goldenberg, 2003-02-01 The introduction provides a thorough overview of the current status of research in the field and each essay seeks to push the theoretical boundaries that shape our understanding of women's experience and agency during the Holocaust and of the ways in which they have expressed their memories      Stealth Altruism Arthur B.

Shostak, 2017-07-12 Though it has been nearly seventy years since the Holocaust the human capacity for evil displayed by its perpetrators is still shocking and haunting But the story of the Nazi attempt to annihilate European Jewry is not all we should remember Stealth Altruism tells of secret non militant high risk efforts by Carers those victims who tried to reduce suffering and improve everyone's chances of survival Their empowering acts of altruism remind us of our inherent longing to do good even in situations of extraordinary brutality Arthur B Shostak explores forbidden acts of kindness such as sharing scarce clothing and food rations holding up weakened fellow prisoners during roll call secretly replacing an ailing friend in an exhausting work detail and much more He explores the motivation behind this dangerous behavior how it differed when in or out of sight who provided or undermined forbidden care the differing experiences of men and women how and why gentiles provided aid and most importantly how might the costly obscurity of stealth altruism soon be corrected To date memorialization has emphasized what was done to victims and sidelined what victims tried to do for one another Carers provide an inspiring model and their perilous efforts should be recognized and taught alongside the horrors of the Holocaust Humanity needs such inspiration      The United States Holocaust Memorial Museum Encyclopedia of Camps and Ghettos, 1933-1945: Volume I Geoffrey P. Megargee, 2009-05-22 Winner of the National Jewish Book Award This valuable resource covers an aspect of the Holocaust rarely addressed and never in such detail Library Journal This is the first volume in a monumental seven volume encyclopedia reflecting years of work by the Jack Joseph and Morton Mandel Center for Advanced Holocaust Studies at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum which will describe the universe of camps and ghettos many thousands more than previously known that the Nazis and their allies operated from Norway to North Africa and from France to Russia For the first time a single reference work will provide detailed information on each individual site This first volume covers three groups of camps the early camps that the Nazis established in the first year of Hitler's rule the major SS concentration camps with their constellations of subcamps and the special camps for Polish and German children and adolescents Overview essays provide context for each category while each camp entry provides basic information about the site's purpose prisoners guards working and living conditions and key events in the camp's history Material from personal

The plight and fate of female victims during the course of genocide is radically and profoundly different from their male counterparts Like males female victims suffer demonization ostracism discrimination and deprivation of their basic human rights They are often rounded up deported and killed But unlike most men women are subjected to rape gang rape and mass rape Such assaults and degradation can and often do result in horrible injuries to their reproductive systems and unwanted pregnancies This volume takes one stride towards assessing these grievances and argues against policies calculated to continue such indifference to great human suffering The horror and pain suffered by females does not end with the act of rape There is always the fear and reality of being infected with HIV AIDS Concomitantly there is the possibility of becoming pregnant Then there is the birth of the babies For some the very sight of the babies and children reminds mothers of the horrific violations they suffered When mothers harbor deep seated hatred or disdain for such children it results in more misery The hatred may be so great that children born of rape leave home early in order to fend for themselves on the street This seventh volume in the Genocide series will provoke debate discussion reflection and ultimately action The issues presented include ongoing mass rape of girls and women during periods of war and genocide ostracism of female victims terrible psychological and physical wounds the plight of offspring resulting from rapes and the critical need for medical and psychological services Slave Labor in Nazi Concentration Camps Marc Buggeln, 2014-12-18 Slave Labor in Nazi Concentration Camps examines the slave labor carried out by concentration camp prisoners from 1942 and the effect this had on the German wartime economy. This work goes far beyond the sociohistorical reconstructions that dominate Holocaust studies; it combines cultural history with structural history, drawing relationships between social structures and individual actions. It also considers the statements of both perpetrators and victims and takes the biographical approach as the only possible way to confront the destruction of the individual in the camps after the fact. The first chapter presents a comparative analysis of slave labor across the different concentration camps, including Auschwitz, Buchenwald, and Dachau. The subsequent chapters analyse the similarities and differences between various subcamps where prisoners were utilised for the wartime economy, based on the example of the 86 subcamps of Neuengamme concentration camp, which were scattered across northern Germany. The most significant difference between conditions at the various subcamps was that in some hardly any prisoners died, while in others almost half of them did. This work carries out a systematic comparison of the subcamp system, a kind of study which does not exist for any other camp system. This is of great significance because by the end of the war, most concentration camps had placed over 80 percent of their prisoners in subcamps. This work therefore offers a comparative framework that is highly useful for further examinations of National Socialist concentration camps and may also be of benefit to comparative studies of other camp systems such as Stalin's gulags.

Comparative Central European Holocaust Studies Louise Olga Vasvári, Steven Tötösy de Zepetnek, 2009. The work presented in the volume in fields of the humanities and social sciences is based on 1 the notion of the existence and the describability and analysis of a culture including e.g. history, literature, society, the arts, etc. specific of to the region designated as Central Europe; 2 the relevance of a field designated as Central European Holocaust studies; and 3 the relevance in the study of culture of the comparative and contextual approach designated as comparative cultural studies. Papers in the volume are by scholars working in Holocaust Studies in Australia, Germany, Hungary, Israel, Serbia, the United Kingdom, and the US.

Paths to Teaching the Holocaust Tibbi Dubois, 2008-01-01. Paths to Teaching the Holocaust, edited by Tibbi Dubois, is an important new book. It offers contributions by childhood, middle, and secondary teacher educators from various regions and universities in the continental United States. The array of material is a strength of this unique book. Some contributors write about ways in which they infuse existing courses with Holocaust materials, while others focus on where and when to begin the education of their students with respect to genocide. Curriculum and instruction are examined from the perspective of existing research. Preparing oneself to teach the material and personal teaching style are presented in ways that will be helpful both to new and to experienced teachers, and those interested in the kinds of questions embedded in this material. Educators and others will see how events focused upon in the Holocaust are connected to violations of human rights and social justice committed during the period of National Socialism. Readers are reminded of the approximate nature of knowledge when it is not born of lived experience and are invited to raise questions about the Holocaust and other genocides. The varied nature of the chapters offers a platform for engaging in discourse likely to pique the interest of people who have limited experience with the topic and of those whose knowledge may be rich and of long standing Teachers often seek to bridge the gap between theory and practice and will find the References of each writer an invaluable resource The contents of Paths to Teaching the Holocaust will be useful to educators and others concerned with oppression human rights and social justice Jewish Book World ,2000 thelordismyshepherd.com Joshua Hammerman,2000-09-01 thelordismyshepherd com opens a new and necessary dialogue on the soul of cyberspace It will change the way people think about their computers about God about the future and about the interconnected destiny of humanity in this ever shrinking world The author a noted rabbi and journalist alternates between analytic and experiential approaches to the subject escorting the reader on a multi dimensional quest for spiritual and intellectual growth a virtual pilgrimage if you will A pilgrimage that travels tens of thousands of miles in a matters of instants from Jerusalem to Mecca to Chartres even to Kosovo and provides a new means of utilizing the vast power of technology to connect us to God and to transcend the artificial boundaries that separate us Essere donne nei lager Istituto storico della Resistenza e dell'età contemporanea in Ravenna e provincia,2009 Civil Courage Naomi Kramer,2007 If we are responsible educators the causes of the Holocaust must be addressed in order to prevent future genocide Contemporary Jewish Identity Emanuele Ottolenghi and Mark Weitzman examine contemporary antisemitism in Europe and North America respectively Michael Pollan reflects upon Jewish identity from the unique perspective of a young Jew who worked as a civil servant for the Austrian government in a program designed to acknowledge Austria's role as a perpetrator of the Shoah Testimony Firsthand testimony will soon be available only in memoirs or recorded oral histories In the future second and subsequent generations must speak as witnesses Sheldon Schreter a grandchild of Holocaust victims describes a visit with his four sons to Sighet Romania his parents birthplace and struggles with the question of Why The prevention of genocide is in large measure dependent upon the good will and intervention of citizens living in modern cultures
