Strangers in the Family Guo-Quan Seng, 2023-11-15 In Strangers in the Family Guo Quan Seng provides a gendered history of settler Chinese community formation in Indonesia during the Dutch colonial period 1816-1942 At the heart of this story lies the creolization of patrilineal Confucian marital and familial norms to the colonial legal moral and sexual conditions of urban Java Departing from male centered narratives of Overseas Chinese communities Strangers in the Family tells the history of community formation from the perspective of women who were subordinate to and alienated from full Chinese selfhood From native concubines and mothers creole Chinese daughters and wives and matriarchs to the first generation of colonial educated feminists Seng showcases women's moral agency as they negotiated manipulated and debated men in positions of authority over their rights in marriage formation and dissolution In dialogue with critical studies of colonial Eurasian intimacies this book explores Asian centered inter ethnic patterns of intimate encounters It shows how contestations over women's place in marriage and in society were formative of a Chinese racial identity in colonial Indonesia

Making the Right Choice Asha L. Abeyasekera, 2021-03-12 Making the Right Choice unravels the entangled relationship between marriage morality and the desire for modernity as it plays out in the context of middle class status concerns and aspirations for upward social mobility within the Sinhala Buddhist community in urban Sri Lanka By focusing on individual life histories spanning three generations the book illuminates how narratives about a gendered self and narratives about modernity are mutually constituted and intrinsically tied to notions of agency The book uncovers how becoming modern in urban Sri Lanka rather than causing inter generational conflict is a collective aspiration realized through the efforts of bringing up educated and independent women capable of making right choices The consequence of this collective investment is a feminist conundrum agency does not denote the right to choose but the duty to make the right choice hence agency is experienced not as a sense of freedom but rather as a burden of responsibility
