Humour in Times of Confrontation, 1901 to the Present Shun-Liang Chao, Vivienne Westbrook, 2025-07-22 Humour in Times of Confrontation 1901 to the Present examines the various and surprising ways in which humour has been powerfully employed through a wider range of media than possible at any other time in history as a response to conflict With no earlier century undergoing more diverse more extensive and more intense conflicts than the period in question the last twelve decades provide a unique landscape to explore the farthest edge of humour its darkest side This book argues that such conflict has not only traumatically shaped the modern psyche but created a fertile ground for humour to grow and evolve with the advent of new representations and technologies The chapters in this volume focus on international conflicts that have been reported widely through news media but seldom regarded as material for serious humour studies Each chapter begins by engaging with a particular form of confrontation before providing a case study of how it has contributed to the creation enjoyment and or sharing of humour via

different media This volume is a valuable resource to students and scholars of humour studies modern cultural and social history the history of technology and media studies The China, 1928 Compassionate Light in Asia Jin Yong, Daisaku Ikeda, 2013-09-17 Life is a drama of encounters writes Daisaku Ikeda at the beginning of this dialogue Beautiful encounters Momentary encounters Each person's drama is unique This particular encounter between a celebrated Chinese novelist and prominent Japanese religious leader illustrates the truth of that reflection For in the discussion that stemmed from their meetings Jin Yong who is sometimes called the Asian Dumas and Daisaku Ikeda were able to find remarkable common ground what they refer to as a karmic bond resulting from the particularity of their experiences in wartime and mutual resistance to adversity Ranging across a variety of engaging themes the interlocutors explore such topics as the nature of friendship theories of civilization world literatures that have inspired them the importance of free speech Buddhist perspectives on life and death and the spiritual search for truth There is sustained reflection on the horrors of war and a plea for the importance of memory Daisaku Ikeda emphasises that peace is a battle against forgetfulness while Jin Yong echoes this in his observation that most important is to strive to avoid war whether it is between countries and whether it be domestic and thus to enable people to build and improve their lives in a peaceful environment Cultural differences between the peoples of China and Japan are explored sometimes amusingly with the Japanese propensity for discipline and rules contrasted with the Chinese spirit of creative individualism But the authors are focused above all on serious issues of meaning and identity and they reveal the mutual solace both have found in the face of personal loss and bereavement in the Buddhist scriptures especially the Lotus Sutra Demonstrating a remarkable capacity for empathy throughout they incarnate in their lives and work an intelligent and sympathetic compassion that represents a beacon of hope to the future direction of Sino Japanese relations
