Love That Wont Walk Away:

A Love That Won't Walk Away Kathy Troccoli, 2005-05-29 People fail People are conditional But God is waiting to give the assurance that in a world that is uncertain He is certain Even after times of immense joy or incredibly deep sadness He will never walk away from His Beloved So how do we grasp God's promise to love us and never walk away First of all we remind ourselves of the scriptural foundation through which God speaks to us and commits his undying love In addition to this study of God's word and the telling of the author's own experiences in this area the reader will be led by the author through real journeys of everyday people who have discovered a way to make the cliché a reality Rejection is certainly not limited to romantic relationships as you will see in many of these stories Acknowledging that God's love will never walk away has transformed their lives in every conceivable way and it can transform yours as well In this book readers will embrace a newfound acceptance of God's love and mercy find new concepts for approaching relationships be assured of incredible comfort and rekindle their deepest hope
