Shopping All the Way to the Woods Rachel S. Gross, 2024-03-26 A fascinating history of the profitable paradox of the American outdoor experience visiting nature first requires shopping No escape to nature is complete without a trip to an outdoor recreational store or a browse through online offerings This is the irony of the American outdoor experience visiting wild spaces supposedly untouched by capitalism first requires shopping With consumers spending billions of dollars on clothing and equipment each year as they seek out nature the American outdoor sector grew over the past 150 years from a small collection of outfitters to an industry contributing more than 2 percent of the nation s economic output Rachel S Gross argues that this success was predicated not just on creating functional equipment but also on selling an authentic anticommercial outdoor identity In other words shopping for the woods was also about being or becoming the right kind of person Demonstrating that outdoor culture is commercial culture Gross examines Americans journey toward outdoor expertise by tracing the development of the nascent outdoor goods industry the influence of World War II on its growth and the boom years of outdoor businesses Swords & Roses Joseph Hergesheimer,1929 Short stories of the South during the Civil War *Catalog of Copyright Entries. A Second Chance at a Forbidden Love Keith Albrecht,2022-08-05 Ed watched as Sasha and Solu rode away from the Krehbiel farm on their horse they called Buck He had to wonder were they as happily married as he and Katrina were Would he ever see Sasha again Probably not if they were moving all the way to Montana to be teachers there Then he felt a little guilty although he loved Katrina with all his heart he had to admit that he still had feelings for Sasha and wondered if she still had any feelings for him In the next few months Sasha and Solu found themselves very busy in the School of Higher Education studying to be teachers Occasionally Sasha thought of Ed and wondered what he was doing but always quickly pushed those thoughts aside and went on with her busy activities at school Ed too occasionally thought of Sasha and wondered what she was doing but he had little time to dwell on those thoughts since a tragic and unfortunate event left him the single parent of a beautiful little girl he named Abigale or Abbi for short Ed was a wonderful daddy for his daughter but she needed and wanted more than anything a real mommy to tuck her in bed at night and tell her she loved her How was Ed to raise a child by himself when he was so busy at times with his thriving new business of custom wheat binding Then one day when Ed and Abbi were at the cemetery to wish Katrina a happy birthday a young teenage boy came riding a horse to deliver a telegram for Ed When Ed saw who the telegram was from he was so excited he could hardly read what it said

Contact Zones Myra Rutherdale, Katie Pickles, 2011-11-01 Contact Zones locates Canadian women's history within colonial and imperial systems As both colonizer and colonized sometimes even simultaneously women were uniquely positioned at the axis of the colonial encounter the so called contact zone between Aboriginals and newcomers Some women were able to transgress the bounds of social expectation while others reluctantly conformed to them Aboriginal women such as E Pauline Johnson Bernice Loft and Ethel Brant Monture shaped identities for themselves in both worlds By recognizing the necessity to perform they enchanted and educated white audiences across Canada On the other side of the coin newcomers imposed increasing regulation on Aboriginal women's bodies Missionaries for example preached the virtues of Christian conjugality over mixed race and polygamous marriages especially those that hadn't been ratified by the church The Department of Indian Affairs agents withheld treaty payments or removed the children of Aboriginal women who did not properly perform their duties as wives and mothers In short Aboriginal women were expected to consent to moral sexual and marital rules that white women were already beginning to contest Contact Zones draws upon a vast array of primary sources to provide insight into the ubiquity and persistence of colonial discourse and to demonstrate how it ultimately was an embodied experience Above all it shows how the colonial enterprise was about embodied contacts What bodies belonged inside the nation who were outsiders and who transgressed the rules these are the questions at the heart of this provocative book Jean Barman's chapter from Contact Zones Aboriginal Women on the Streets of Victoria Rethinking Transgressive Sexuality during the Colonial Encounter won the award from the Canadian Committee on the History of Sexuality Cecilia Morgan's Performing for Imperial Eyes Bernice Loft and Ethel Brant Monture Ontario 1930s 60s from Contact Zones was awarded the Hilda Neatby Prize in Canadian Women's History

Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997

Laughter in the Mountains Mountain, 2012 This book is a celebration of life Its astonishing view is from the perspective of someone living a simple isolated life in the Rocky Mountains as a mountain man Sylvan Ambrose Hart was born in the Oklahoma Territory in 1906 In the 1930s while still a young man he walked into the Rocky Mountains and designed a unique life for himself in the wilds hunting fishing trapping panning gold crafting his own tools weapons shelter and clothes For almost fifty years he lived the life of a reclusive mountain man eventually gaining national fame as Buckskin Bill Last of the Mountain Men In 1973 another young man studying philosophy in a private college back east found that he could no longer abide being shackled by the conventional wisdoms of our culture To the dismay of all who knew and loved him he dropped out of college and headed for the mountains He caught a train cross country to Montana then hopped a bus southbound skirting the Rocky Mountains At one point he simply stepped off the bus and walked into the mountains with only a backpack machete and knife no food or gun determined to learn what the mountains offered to teach or die trying After a few months of eating rattlesnakes ants and field mice this struggling newcomer to the mountains the author discovered the now old and grizzled mountain man living not only successfully but quite flamboyantly in the depths of the Rocky Mountain wilderness on the River of No Return Buckskin was an extraordinary man Anyone who ever met him walked away with stories and memories to be cherished for a lifetime Here are my favorite memories of the Last of the Mountain Men Ma'am Jones of the Pecos Eve Ball,2021-11-16 highly entertaining and provides a valuable picture of the New Mexico frontier Journal of the West An unusual story of an American pioneer woman who used a needle skillet or gun as needed and who tended the dying during frontier wars or outbreaks of equally deadly diseases The Old Bookaroos For vivid descriptions of pioneer life in southeastern New Mexico no work of history or fiction can match Eve Ball s dramatic story of Barbara Jones and her family Anyone who picks it up will be reluctant to stop reading Few western historians have made such expert use of oral history as Mrs Ball Colloquial language adds color and carefully drawn sketches of the family their acquaintances and the major figures in Lincoln County provide a degree of intimacy seldom found in historical works That the resulting tale is believable and deeply moving demonstrates just how effective these techniques can be Southwestern Historical Quarterly The Confederacy's Greatest Cavalryman Brian Steel Wills,1998 This is the best biography of one of the most exciting colorful and controversial figures of the Civil War A renowned cavalryman Nathan Bedford Forrest perfected a ruthless hit and run guerrilla warfare that terrified Union soldiers and garnered the respect of warriors like William Sherman who described his adversary as that Devil Forrest the most remarkable man our Civil War produced on either side Historian Bruce Catton rated Forrest one of the authentic military geniuses of the whole war but Brian Steel Wills covers much more than the cavalryman s incredible feats on the field of battle He also provides the most thoughtful and complete analysis of Forrest s hardscrabble childhood in backwater Mississippi his rise to wealth in the Memphis slave trade his role in the infamous Fort Pillow massacre of black Union soldiers his role as early leader and Grand Wizard of the first Ku Klux Klan and his declining health and premature death in a reconstructing America Chief Posey's Run Al Boyd,2004 General Forrest James Harvey Mathes,1902 Sweet Chaos Carol Brightman,1999-09 A social and cultural history of the Grateful Dead America s greatest folk rock institution by a National Book Critics Circle Award winning author 8 page photo insert
