Making Change Fifty Years Of The Laidlaw Foundation:

Making Change Nathan Gilbert, Joyce Zemans, 2012-08 The Laidlaw Foundation was established in 1949 by Walter and Robert Laidlaw sons of the founder of the R Laidlaw Lumber Company This book is a history of the Laidlaw family how it amassed money and why the brothers decided to disperse it as they did Making Change is also a record of the work of the Foundation over the past fifty years The impact has been to help children in need to train scholars and to support social cultural and environmental causes Overall this book seeks to identify what motivates people to act philanthropically and the implications of their doing so It is interesting to understand what persuades wealthy people to give away their money and provide leadership in areas where government stewardship is lacking

Making Change Sheila H. Kieran, Laidlaw Foundation, 2001 The Laidlaw Foundation was established in 1949 by Walter and Robert Laidlaw sons of the founder of the R Laidlaw Lumber Company This book is a history of the Laidlaw family how it amassed money and why the brothers decided to disperse it as they did Making Change is also a record of the work of the foundation over the past 50 years The impact has been to help children in need to train scholars and to support social cultural and environmental causes Overall this book seeks to identify what motivates people to act philanthropically and the implications of their doing so It is interesting to understand what persuades wealthy people to give away their money and provide leadership in areas where government stewardship is lacking

Constructing Policy Change Linda A. White, 2017-01-01 In Constructing Policy Change Linda A White examines the expansion of early childhood education and care ECEC policies and programs in liberal welfare states including Australia Canada New Zealand the UK and the USA In the first part of the book the author investigates the sources of policy ideas that triggered ECEC changes in various national contexts This is followed by a close analysis of cross national variation in the implementation of ECEC policy in Canada and the USA White argues that the primary mechanisms for policy change are grounded in policy investment logics as well as cultural logics that is shifts in public sentiments and government beliefs about the value of ECEC policies and programs are rooted in both evidence based arguments and in principled beliefs about the policy A rich nuanced examination of the reasons motivating ECEC policy expansion and adoption in different countries Constructing Policy Change is a corrective to the comparative welfare state literature that focuses on political interest alone

Alice Munro's Late Style Robert Thacker, 2023-11-30 Focusing on Alice Munro's last three collections this book examines the differences between these volumes and the rest of her work to analyse the emergence and the difference of her late style Alice Munro has effectively reshaped the short story as a form This book focuses on Munro's art of recursion an approach that has been evident throughout her career but came to the fore in her last three books The View from Castle Rock 2006 Too Much Happiness 2009 and especially Dear Life 2012 This recursion and return manifest themselves not only in Munro's return to previously published pieces but also to her discovery and meditations on her Scottish heritage which can be read as entrance to her own understanding of herself and her life Its provenance displayed through archival evidence is complex yet reveals a writer intent on a precise late style Munro s final works serve as a coda to both her late style and to her entire career as arguably one of the finest short story writers ever to put pen to paper      Spaces and Places for Art Anne Whitelaw,2017-04-01 When the Edmonton Museum of Arts opened in 1924 it was only the second art gallery in Canada west of Toronto Spaces and Places for Art tells the story of the financial and ideological struggles that community groups and artist societies in booming frontier cities and towns faced in establishing spaces for the cultivation of artistic taste Mapping the development of art institutions in western Canada from the founding of the Winnipeg Art Gallery in 1912 to the 1990s heyday of art museums in Manitoba Saskatchewan Alberta and British Columbia Anne Whitelaw provides a glimpse into the production circulation and consumption of art in Canada throughout the twentieth century Initially dependent on paintings loaned from the National Gallery of Canada art galleries across the western part of the country gradually built their own collections and exhibitions and formed organizations that made them less reliant on institutions and government agencies in Ottawa Tracing the impact of major national arts initiatives such as the Massey Commission the funding programs of the Canada Council and the policies of the National Museums Corporation Whitelaw sheds light on the complex relationships between western Canada and Ottawa surrounding art Building on extensive archival research and in depth analysis of government involvement Spaces and Places for Art is an invaluable explanation of the roles of cultural institutions and cultural policy in the emergence of artistic practice in Canada      Canadian Books in Print.
