The Making of Modern Russia Lionel Kochan, Richard Abraham, 1983      The making of men Herbert George Wells, 1921      The Making of the Atomic Bomb Richard Rhodes, 2012-06-12 Winner of the Pulitzer Prize the National Book Award and the National Book Critics Circle Award The definitive history of nuclear weapons from the turn of the century discovery of nuclear energy to J Robert Oppenheimer and the Manhattan Project this epic work details the science the people and the sociopolitical realities that led to the development of the atomic bomb This sweeping account begins in the 19th century with the discovery of nuclear fission and continues to World War Two and the Americans race to beat Hitler s Nazis That competition launched the Manhattan Project and the nearly overnight construction of a vast military industrial complex that culminated in the fateful dropping of the first bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki Reading like a character driven suspense novel the book introduces the players in this saga of physics politics and human psychology from FDR and Einstein to the visionary scientists who pioneered quantum theory and the application of thermonuclear fission including Planck Szilard Bohr Oppenheimer Fermi Teller Meitner von Neumann and Lawrence From nuclear power s earliest foreshadowing in the work of H G Wells to the bright glare of Trinity at Alamogordo and the arms race of the Cold War this dread invention forever changed the course of human history and The Making of The Atomic Bomb provides a panoramic backdrop for that story Richard Rhodes s ability to craft compelling biographical portraits is matched only by his rigorous scholarship Told in rich human political and scientific detail that any reader can follow The Making of the Atomic Bomb is a thought provoking and masterful work      The Politics of HIV/AIDS in Russia Ulla Pape, 2013-10-01 This book studies the role of civil society organisations in the fight against HIV AIDS in Russia It looks at how Russia s HIV AIDS epidemic has developed into a serious social economic and political problem and how according to the United Nations Programme on HIV AIDS UNAIDS Russia is currently facing the biggest HIV AIDS epidemic in all of Europe with an estimated number of 980 000 people living with HIV in 2009 The book investigates civil society organisations contribution to social change and civil society development in post Soviet Russia and thus situates a specific type of civil society actors into a broader socio political context and questions their ability to represent civic interests particularly in the field of social policy making and health This allows for a better understanding of the dynamics of state society relations in present day Russia and gives insight into the ways HIV AIDS NGOs in Russia have used transnational ties in order to exert influence on domestic policy making in the field of HIV AIDS      Making Russia and Turkey Great Again? Norman A. Graham, Folke Lindahl, Timur Kocaoglu, 2021-03-19 This study analyzes theoretically and empirically the background of the rise to power of Vladimir Putin in Russia and Recep Tayyip Erdogan in Turkey It situates this analysis in the contexts of the historical assessment of the fragility of liberal democracy and the persistence and growth of authoritarianism populism and dictatorship in many parts of the world The authors argue that the question whether Putin and Erdogan can make Russia and Turkey great again is hard to confirm personal ambition for power and wealth is certainly key to an understanding of both rulers. They each squandered opportunities to build from free and fair democratic electoral legitimacy and economic progress. The prospect for restored national greatness depends on how they can handle the economic and political challenges they now face and will continue to face in the near future in a climate of global pandemic and economic recession. Both rulers so far have succeeded in maintaining and increasing their powers and influence in their respective regions but neither has made real contributions to regional stability and order. Chaos seems to be growing and the EU and the U S thus far seem unable to provide coherent responses to mitigate the impact of their adventurism and disruption. Russia's Policies Toward the Axis of Evil United States. and the Making of Austria-Hungary and Germany Elizabeth Wormeley Latimer, 1898 Market Entry and Operational Decision Making in East-West Business Relationships Jorma Larimo, 2013-04-03 Understand the dynamics of East West relationships in business to make better decisions. The Eastern expansion of the European Union has increased interest in this geographic region. Market Entry and Operational Decision Making in East West Business Relationships presents 10 case studies that focus on firms in Central and Eastern Europe and the strategies used for success. Academics, researchers, and practitioners examine a variety of topics including entry and marketing strategies of Western multinational companies, choices of locations for foreign direct investments, first mover advantages, entry behavior of retailing companies, dynamics in subsidiary operations, industry clusters, decision making, autonomy, and internationalization. Market Entry and Operational Decision Making in East West Business Relationships provides information that is uniquely timely and practical to those in business in this region. The chapters bring the academic and the practical perspectives together by analyzing various research studies from different companies in several Central and Eastern European countries. This resource discusses companies and the decisions about where they begin and maintain operations and why these strategies were chosen. The book provides a clear spotlight on the business decisions currently taking place in the East West interaction. Topics in Market Entry and Operational Decision Making in East West Business Relationships include studies of four Estonian companies on their emergence and success factors, a comparative study of performance measures of companies in Central and Eastern Europe, a detailed look at the strategies of Finnish and Swedish companies in the Baltic states and Russia, the location decisions of Italian firms, a comparative study of in-store shopping behavior in Italy, France, and Poland, the regionalization of multinational company strategies, studies of Estonian companies including the wood and forest industries, and more. Market Entry and Operational Decision Making in East West Business Relationships is an essential resource that examines issues of critical importance to business researchers, practitioners, and policymakers. Russia, the Former Soviet Republics, and

Europe Since 1989 Katherine Graney, 2019-08-27 Nearly three decades after the fall of the Berlin Wall early hopes for the integration of the post Soviet states into a Europe whole and free seem to have been decisively dashed Europe itself is in the midst of a multifaceted crisis that threatens the considerable gains of the post war liberal European experiment In Russia the Former Soviet Republics and Europe Since 1989 Katherine Graney provides a panoramic and historically rooted overview of the process of Europeanization in Russia and all fourteen of the former Soviet republics since 1989 Graney argues that deeply rooted ideas about Europe's cultural civilizational primacy and concerns about both ideological and institutional alignment with Europe continue to influence both internal politics in contemporary Europe and the processes of Europeanization in the post Soviet world By comparing the effect of the phenomenon across Russia and the ex republics Graney provides a theoretically grounded and empirically rich window into how we should study politics in the former USSR
