Authorship and Aesthetics in the Cinematography of Gregg Toland Philip Cowan, 2022-10-03 In this three part book length study of the work of Gregg Toland Philip Cowan explores approaches to co authorship in collaborative filmmaking to propose new ways of identifying attributing and evaluating the creative work of cinematographers In the first part of the study Cowan challenges the dominant director centered auteur approach to film studies critiquing the historical development of authorship theory and providing a contemporary analysis of the cinematographer's authorial role in creating images that communicate meaning through content and construction By synthesizing and updating the work of previous film theorists to define the complexities of composition movement and lighting in the second part of the study Cowan develops a new comprehensive taxonomy of functional and aesthetic elements of the moving image Finally by using the co author approach and the analytical tools developed in part two of the book Cowan provides an in depth re examination of Toland s work highlighting the historical neglect of the cinematographer's artistic contribution to filmmaking and developing a fresh approach to the analysis of contemporary cinematography in film Czech and Slovak Cinema Peter Hames, 2010-08-09 Examines the key themes and traditions of Czech and Slovak cinema linking inter war and post war cinemas together with developments in the post Communist period The Altering Eve Robert Phillip Kolker, 2009 The Altering Eye covers a golden age of international cinema from the end of WWII through to the New German Cinema of the 1970s Combining historical political and textual analysis the author develops a pattern of cinematic invention and experimentation from neorealism through the modernist interventions of Jean Luc Godard and Rainer Maria Fassbinder focusing along the way on such major figures as Luis Bu uel Joseph Losey the Brazilian director Glauber Rocha and the work of major Cuban filmmakers Kolker's book has become a much quoted classic in the field of film studies providing essential reading for anybody interested in understanding the history of European and international cinema This new and revised edition includes a substantive new Preface by the author and an updated Bibliography The Apocalypse in Film Karen A. Ritzenhoff, Angela Krewani,2015-12-30 We live in a world at risk Dire predictions about our future or the demise of planet earth persist Even fictional representations depict narratives of decay and the end of a commonly shared social reality Along with recurring Hollywood blockbusters that imagine the end of the world there has been a new wave of zombie features as well as independent films that offer various visions of the future The Apocalypse in Film Dystopias Disasters and Other Visions about the End of the World offers an overview of Armageddon in film from the silent era to the present This collection of essays discusses how such films reflect social anxieties ones that are linked to economic ecological and cultural factors Featuring a broad spectrum of international scholars specializing in different historical genres and methodologies these essays look at a number of films including the silent classic The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse the black comedy Dr Strangelove or How I Learned to Stop Worrying and Love the Bomb the Mayan calendar disaster epic 2012 and in particular Lars Von Trier s Melancholia the focus of several essays As some filmmakers translate the anxiety about a changing global climate and geo political relations into visions of the apocalypse others articulate worries about the planet's future by depicting chemical warfare environmental disasters or human made destruction This book analyzes the emergence of apocalyptic and dystopic narratives and explores the political and social situations on which these films are based Contributing to the dialogue on dystopic culture in war and peace The Apocalypse in Film will be of interest to scholars in film and media studies border studies gender studies sociology and political science Making Pictures ,2003 Film making is a collaborative business and when it comes to the way a filmooks the critical relationship is that between the director and theinematographer now often called the director of photography whose rolen the enterprise is too often undervalued if not wholly overlooked Yet ashis book shows the cinematographer's contribution to many great movies haseen both vital and distinctive and director cinematographer partnerships uch as those between David Lean and Freddie Young or Ingmar Bergman and Svenykvist have played a significant role in the history of the cinema Thisook systematically examines and documents the technical and creative role ofhe cinematographer in European cinema over the past 100 years It has beenompiled under the aegis of the Association of European Cinematographers Imago and the contributors include many distinguished figures in Europeaninema history such as the director Bernardo Bertolucci the actor Marcelloastroianni cinematographers Sven Nykvist Jack Cardiff and Giuseppe Rotunnond a number of leading film historians Individual contributions cover a Towards a Philosophy of Cinematography Alexander Nevill, 2021-06-01 This book presents three interrelated essays about cinematography which offer a theoretical understanding of the ways that film practitioners orchestrate light in today s post digital context Cinematography is a practice at the heart of film production which traditionally involves the control of light and camera technologies to creatively capture moving imagery During recent years the widespread adoption of digital processes in cinematography has received a good deal of critical attention from practitioners and scholars alike however little specific consideration about evolving lighting practices can be found amongst this discourse Drawing on new materialist ideas actor network theory and the concept of co creativity these essays examine the impact of changing production processes for the role and responsibilities of a cinematographer with a specific focus on lighting Each essay advances a new perspective on the discipline moving from the notion of light as vision to light as material from technology as a tool to technology as a network and from cinematography as an industry to cinematography as a collaborative art Transnational Cinematography Studies Roberto Schaefer, Lindsay Coleman, Daisuke Miyao, 2016-12-27 Transnational Cinematography Studies introduces new perspectives to the discipline of film and media studies First this volume focuses on a crucial yet largely unexplored area in film and media studies the substantial communication between critical studies of cinema and film production practices This book integrates theories and practices of cinematographic technology Secondly Transnational Cinematography Studies expands the scope of film and media studies into the arena of transnationalism Cinema is now discussed in terms of globalization of audio visual cultures with regard to such issues as Hollywood film studios so called runaway productions and multi national co productions Hollywood remakes of Asian horror films or Hong Kong martial arts films and the growing significance of international film festivals However this volume proposes that globalization is not in itself new in the history of cinema and that cinema has always been at the forefront of transnational culture from the beginning of its history

Shooting Movies Without Shooting Yourself in the Foot Jack Anderson, John Douglas Anderson, 2012 This text is for all those film enthusiasts who can t get on a professional set or can t undertake studies at an expensive film school Beginning with fundamental techniques and concepts of cinematography the author shares his many years of experience with the Anthropology and Beauty Stephanie Bunn, 2018-01-17 Organised around the theme of beauty this innovative reader collection offers insight into the development of anthropological thinking on art aesthetics and creativity in recent years The volume incorporates current work on perception and generative processes and seeks to move beyond a purely aesthetic and relativist stance The chapters invite readers to consider how people sense and seek out beauty whether through acts of human creativity and production through sensory experience of sound light or touch or experiencing architecture visiting heritage sites or ancient buildings experiencing the environment through places of outstanding natural beauty or through cooperative action machine engineering or designing for the future Chronicle of a Camera Norris Pope, 2013-03-06 This volume provides a history of the most consequential 35mm motion picture camera introduced in North America in the quarter century following the Second World War the Arriflex 35 It traces the North American history of this camera from 1945 through 1972 when the first lightweight self blimped 35mm cameras became available Chronicle of a Camera emphasizes theatrical film production documenting the Arriflex's increasingly important role in expanding the range of production choices styles and even content of American motion pictures in this period The book s exploration culminates most strikingly in examples found in feature films dating from the 1960s and early 1970s including a number of films associated with what came to be known as the Hollywood New Wave The author shows that the Arriflex prompted important innovation in three key areas it greatly facilitated and encouraged location shooting it gave cinematographers new options for intensifying visual style and content and it stimulated low budget and independent production Films in which the Arriflex played an absolutely central role include Bullitt The French Connection and most significantly Easy Rider Using an Arriflex for car mounted shots hand held shots and zoom lens shots led to greater cinematic realism and personal expression Marcel Carné Jonathan Driskell, 2019-01-04 This book provides a scholarly yet accessible account of the work of Marcel Carn one of the great directors of classical French cinema and the key figure behind the poetic realist film movement of the 1930s His films a number of which were made in collaboration with the poet turned scriptwriter Jacques Pr vert include such well known works as Le Quai des brumes Le Jour se l ve and Les Enfants du paradis As the first book to be written on Carn for a number of years it offers a fresh perspective on his cinema particularly through a re examination of his post war work although many of these films were very popular and offer a fascinating insight into France at the time they have until now largely been neglected Adopting a carefully crafted aesthetic his films explore a tension between pessimism and entrapment on the one hand and transcendence idealised romantic love and a populist celebration of working class life on the other His career traversed key moments in French cinema including poetic realism the tradition of quality and the French New Wave and spanned important historical moments such as the Popular Front of the 1930s the Second World War and France s post war modernisation This book will be of interest to scholars students and film lovers alike Martin Scorsese Vincent LoBrutto, 2007-11-30 Martin Scorsese's current position in the international film community is unrivaled and his name has become synonymous with the highest standards of filmmaking excellence He is widely considered America's best living film director and his Taxi Driver and Raging Bull appear frequently on worldwide surveys of the best films of all time Here in the first biographical account of this artist s life Vincent LoBrutto traces Scorsese s Italian American heritage his strict Catholic upbringing the continuing role of religion in his life and art his obsessive love of cinema history and the powerful impact that the streets of New York City had on his personal life and his professional career Meanwhile the filmmaker s humble soft spoken public persona tells only part of the story and LoBrutto will delve into the other side of a complex and often tortured personality Scorsese's intense passion his private relationships his stormy marriages and his battles with drugs and depression are all chronicled here and in many cases for the first time In addition the book includes an interview with the director as well as filmographies cataloging his work as a director producer actor and presenter As his Best Director award at the 2007 Oscars clearly demonstrated Scorsese has become something like Hollywood royalty in recent years finally enjoying the insider status and favor that eluded him for most of his career But these recent developments aside Scorsese is also notable as a distinctly American type of artist one whose work created in a medium largely controlled by commercialism and marketing has always been unmistakably his own and who thus remains a touchstone of artistic integrity in American cinema In Martin Scorsese A Biography readers can examine not only the work of one of the form's genuine artists but also the forces that have propelled the man behind it Texture In Film Lucy Fife Donaldson, 2014-08-13 Drawing on interdisciplinary perspectives of art literature and music Donaldson develops a stimulating understanding of a concept that has received little detailed attention in relation to film Based in close analysis Texture in Film brings discussion of style and affect together in a selection of case studies drawn from American cinema Theorising Media and Practice Birgit Bräuchler, John Postill, 2010-11-01 Although practice theory has been a mainstay of social theory for nearly three decades so far it has had very limited impact on media studies This book draws on the work of practice theorists such as Wittgenstein Foucault Bourdieu Barth and Schatzki and rethinks the study of media from the perspective of practice theory Drawing on ethnographic case studies from places such as Zambia India Hong Kong the United States Britain Norway and Denmark the contributors address a number of important themes media as practice the interlinkage between media culture and practice the contextual study of media practices and new practices of digital production Collectively these chapters make a strong case for the importance of theorising the relationship between media and practice and thereby adding practice theory as a new strand to the study of anthropology of media The Provocation of the Senses in Contemporary Theatre Stephen Di Benedetto, 2011-01-13 Di Benedetto considers theatrical practice through the lens of contemporary neuroscientific discoveries in this provoking study which lays the foundation for considering the physiological basis of the power of theatre practice to affect human behavior He presents a basic summary of the ways that the senses function in relation to cognitive science and physiology offering an overview of dominant trends of discussion on the realm of the senses in performance Also presented are examples of how those ideas are illustrated in recent theatrical presentations and how the different senses form the structure of a theatrical event Di Benedetto concludes by suggesting the possible implications these neuroscientific ideas have upon our understanding of theatrical composition audience response and the generation of meaning Aesthetics of Shadow Daisuke Miyao, 2013-03-04 In this revealing study Daisuke Miyao explores the aesthetics of shadow in Japanese cinema in the first half of the twentieth century This term coined by the production designer Yoshino Nobutaka refers to the perception that shadows add depth and mystery Miyao analyzes how this notion became naturalized as the representation of beauty in Japanese films situating Japanese cinema within transnational film history He examines the significant roles lighting played in distinguishing the styles of Japanese film from American and European film and the ways that lighting facilitated the formulation of a coherent new Japanese cultural tradition Miyao discusses the influences of Hollywood and German cinema alongside Japanese Kabuki theater lighting traditions and the emergence of neon commercial lighting during this period He argues that lighting technology in cinema had been structured by the conflicts of modernity in Japan including capitalist transitions in the film industry the articulation of Japanese cultural and national identity and increased subjectivity for individuals By focusing on the understudied element of film lighting and treating cinematographers and lighting designers as essential collaborators in moviemaking Miyao offers a rereading of Japanese film history

The Place of the Viewer Kerr Houston, 2019-05-07. In recent decades art historians and critics have occasionally emphasized a dynamic embodied mode of looking accenting the role of the viewer and the complex interplay between beholders and works of art. In The Place of the Viewer Kerr Houston shows that an attention to the position and physical experiences of beholders has in fact long informed art historical analyses and that close study of the theme can lead to a fuller understanding of the discipline the act of viewership and individual works of art Simultaneously attentive to historical ideas and contemporary scholarship this book identifies a vein of thought that has been generally overlooked and proposes new ways of seeing familiar works and traditions
