Making Connections Mary Kennedy, Cathy Lubelska, Val Walsh, 1993 Fifteen papers from women in the UK some academics some not are grouped in sections on identities redefining knowledge feminist research and education and feminists in and out of the Academy A recurrent theme is how to work with diversities and to make connections which do not recreate hierarchies or oppressive practices Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR New Frontiers In Women's Studies Mary Maynard, June Purvis, 2005-07-20 This text reveals the diversities which continue to shape women's beliefs and experiences It includes debates on women and nationalisms women and social policy sexuality black studies and ethnic studies women and education women and cultural production and women's studies and gender studies Women's Studies Quarterly (97:1-2) Dorothy Helly, Elaine Hedges, Nancy Porter, 1997-06 Special twenty fifth anniversary issue of the leading journal in women's studies Mature Women Students Rosalind Edwards, 2017-09-29 First Published in 1993 At a time when more mature women are encouraged to enter higher education this book investigates the effects that being a student has on women's family and social relationships Taking a multidisciplinary approach Mature Women Students draws on in depth interviews with women of different ethnic backgrounds and social classes all mothers and in long term relationships with a man The result is a comprehensive picture of the shifting patterns of the women's lives at various stages of social science degree level study This picture reveals amongst other things that the public and private spheres of education and family are not separate entities they interact and impinge with particular implications for the position of women within each sphere This accessible and challenging book illuminates an important and growing issue in women's lives and in society Difference In View: Women And Modernism Gabriele Griffin, 2003-09-02 This collection of essays challenges conceptions of high modernism its preoccupation with style at the expense of issues such as race class and gender and its exclusive focus both on predominately male writers poetry and prose fiction by highlighting the diversity of cultural production in the modernist period This book focusses specifically on women's cultural production covering a wide range of arts and genres including chapters on painting theatre and magazines The book investigates how women usually constructed as others themselves construct others in their work in a period prominently concerned with the construction of self as an issue This diversity offers a new format of reading modernism in a cross disciplinary context Gender, Teaching and Research in Higher Education Gillian Howie, Ashley Tauchert, 2019-04-09 Gender Teaching and Research in Higher Education presents new insights and research into contemporary problems practical solutions and the complex roles of teaching and learning in the international academy Drawing together new research from contributors spanning a range of international and interdisciplinary perspectives this book discusses topics of particular importance in the UK USA Australasia and South Africa including curriculum boundary disciplines and research assessments the Higher Education institution educational practice authority and authorization teaching and counselling Discussion of quality audits curriculum modifications teaching certificates and other key topics add to this book's value in informing current debate and providing valuable research aids for education into the 21st Century      The Illusions Of Post-Feminism Vicki Coppock, Deena Haydon, Ingrid

Richter, 2014-09-03 First Published in 1995 As feminists reflect on the impact of the second wave of feminism and assess the gains of the last thirty years invariably they have questioned whether claims that women have achieved equality are justified In the late 1980s there was a proliferation of popular imagery of new men and post feminist women with the concept of post feminism reinforcing and emphasizing the differences between independent upwardly mobile career orientated women and those women who choose the more natural role of wife and mother The Illusions of Post Feminism New Women Old Myths maintains that post feminism is a myth Through in depth interviews with women about four major areas of their lives education work the media and the family the authors challenge and expose the myths implicit in the concept of post feminism The research illustrates that women's discontent continues despite the assumption that gender equality would result from equal opportunities legislation The chapters highlight the ineffective nature of liberal reformism and demonstrate how power relations still lie at the root of the oppression of women With its provoking and challenging analysis this revealing book breaks the silence of women's real experiences by showing the actuality of women's lives today      Friendly Relations?

Pamela Cotterill, 2005-08-16 Power relationships between men and women have been discussed extensively in feminist literature but power relationships between women the significance of in law relationships between women has largely been overlooked There is very little positive imagery surrounding the role of the mother in law Why do myths about interfering mothers in law predominate Why are mother in law relationships seen as fraught with conflict and not expected to go well What gives rise to these ideas how are they maintained and how do they effect family life Friendly Relations examines the popular imagery expressed in mother in law jokes and demonstrates how daughters in law come to hold the balance of power in the relationship and are able to control it in ways not available to mothers in law The book explores how these relationships are supported and maintained within the context of private and public Notions Family Life It Traces The Development Of The Relationship through the life course demonstrating the influence of significant events such as divorce cohabitation grandparenting ageing and widowhood The book tackles areas of private life which are often Difficult To Talk About And Negative Emotions Such As Jealousy And possessiveness However the author refutes the idea that the relationship is always fraught with tension and conflict and examines opportunities for friendship and support in affinal women

Feminist Perspectives on Politics Chris Corrin, 2014-07-10 Feminist Perspectives on Politics considers how feminist perspectives have considerably broadened the scope of what is considered political Themes and issues covered range from nineteenth century debates around women's equality and liberation to twentieth century arguments and activities towards gaining a more nuanced understanding of women's differences and diversity Difference remains a key term in contemporary feminisms and the author examines debates engendered from women's liberation politics to open up discussion of Black

feminisms lesbian politics and disabled feminist agendas Formal political participation and the impact of women s movement politics are assessed in global comparisons as are the debates surrounding discourses on development and transnational politics and the influence of women at local national and international levels The book will be essential reading for students at all levels across the fields of Politics Women s Studies Sociology History Cultural Studies Political Economy and Development Studies more generally such as in studies concerned with anti racism gender social policy and the history of ideas within educational institutions local government and voluntary organisations Constructing Girlhood Penny

Tinkler,2013-11-05 This text explores the contribution of magazines to the social construction of female adolescence during a historical period of rapid change and locates the role of magazines in the lives of contemporary girls In addressing this theme the book explores the changing social economic political and cultural conditions which shaped and continue to influence the experience of girlhood The author discusses key concepts such as adolescence and girlhood and outlines theories concerning the interpretation of gender relations cultural production meaning and reading The chapters use life course events and changes such as schooling work entrance into relationships marriage and motherhood as their main themes The author discusses the importance attached to age and social class for the form and content of the magazines and explores the interlinked factors which contributed to decisions about what were legitimate concerns for girls for example publisher s objectives and culture reader interests and ideologies of femininity The final chapter outlines the patterns of leisure consumption in this era providing insights into the changing role of leisure in today s society Women And The State

Shirin Rai,Geraldine Lievesley,2013-07-23 Offering a wide ranging selection of case studies this book evaluates women s political social and economic involvement in Third World countries It explores both specific experiences of women as well as common themes such as identity empowerment and the conflict between tradition and modernity Representing the Other Sue Wilkinson,Celia Kitzinger,1996-07-16 This innovative collection addresses a challenging issue in contemporary feminist theory and practice whether and how we should represent members of groups to which we do not ourselves belong The discussions identify key concerns related to representation and difference Contributors draw on personal experiences of speaking for and about Others in their research professional practice writing or political activism Problems of representing Others with ethnic or cultural backgrounds different from one s own are highlighted and the discussions extend to representations of children prostitutes infertile women fat women gay men with HIV AIDS and people with disabilities

Love Anna G. Jónasdóttir,Ann Ferguson,2013-11-12 This unique timely book of original essays sets the stage for a new materialist feminist debate on the analysis ethics and politics of love The contributors raise questions about social power and domination situating their research in a materialist feminist perspective that investigates love historically in order to understand changing ideologies representations and practices The essays range from studies of particular representations and examples of love feminist translation mass media images and internet love blogs to feminist theories of love and marriage to ethical and political theories describing critiquing or advocating the use of love in groups as a radical force They break new ground in bringing together questions of gendered interests in love temporal dimensions of loving practices and the politics of love in radical transformations of society Breaking Boundaries Val Walsh, Louise Morley, 2005-08-04 This text presents evidence of the work and action of feminists in academia and shows that there is still much to be done before academia is a safe and welcoming environment for women Women integrate their experience with theory to document and challenge the obstacles to equality and difference Differently Academic? Sue Jackson, 2013-03-09 Lifelong learning is a key feature of society today and is apparently embraced by a wide range of educators and trainers as well as by governments and employers In this wide ranging book Sue Jackson shows that universities have been slow to embrace a lifelong learning agenda and argues that the lifelong learning experiences of women and especially of working class students are seldom welcomed in the academy In its unique considerations of the experiences of women students and academics this book expounds an innovative and critical analysis of women in higher education It will give a clear indication of alternative strategies for learners teachers and policy makers This book will be of key interest to anyone working in the fields of lifelong learning or continuing education who is interested in making learning accessible and meaningful for disadvantaged groups It will also appeal to students of education women s studies gender studies and sociology and to those interested in issues of gender social class feminist theory and feminist research Desperately Seeking Sisterhood Magdalene Ang-Lygate, Chris Corrin, Henry Millsom, 2020-04-15 First Published in 1997 A collection of contributions from feminist researchers who attended the annual Women s Studies Network WSN conference in June 1995 Emphasizing theory practice and campaigning chapters seek to address contemporary issues from different perspectives theoretical practical and strategic Changing The Subject Jocey Quinn, Sue Davies, Cathy Lubelska, 2017-09-25 First Published in 1994 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Feminist Activism in the 1990s Gabriele Griffin, 2005-11-01 Feminist activism is often taught as an historical phenomenon and many students entering courses on women s studies are not familiar with current feminist work in the field This book documents a wide variety of different forms of feminist activism in the 1990s from organisations such as Rights for Women and Southall Black Sisters to Asian Women s Work in Refuges It raises questions about the meaning of feminist activism and its interpretation within women s studies and other academic disciplines The chapters suggest against much current representation within women s studies and elsewhere that feminism is still alive With a comprehensive introduction providing an historical overview of the development of feminist activism from second wave feminism onwards this text is intended to be of use as a resource for all students of women s studies and related courses Feminist Academics Louise Morley, Val Walsh, 2002-11-01 This text brings together leading feminists who explore questions of feminist interventions in organisations of knowledge production covering both the structure and culture of academic institutions and the social divisions between women Feminism is located as a force for change empowering women to gain a political understanding and providing a methodology for new approaches to teaching learning research and writing in the academy Contributions demonstrate how an analysis of the micropolitics of the academy in terms of power policies discourses pedagogy and interpersonal relationships provides a framework for deprivatising women's experience and influencing change Using theoretical constructs and their own biographies and experience the contributors present predicaments inequalities and strategies Power and influence are considered in conjunction with gender race social class and sexuality

AIDS Setting a Feminist Agenda presents an overview of the important issues raised for feminist theory and practice by the HIV AIDS epidemic and outlines the direction in which feminist debates about the subject are developing It makes essential links between feminism and HIV AIDS work and not only demonstrates that AIDS is a feminist issue but also suggests areas where feminism is long overdue The essays discuss medical issues the specific social and political impact of HIV AIDS on the lives of women of colour lesbians injecting drug users and prostitute women And Current Health Educational And Health Promotional Practice As It relates to women The volume is theoretical and practical suggesting theoretical models for understanding and challenging the social factors which are conducive to the spread of HIV among women and among men as well as offering models of good practice for working with and for women
