Making Molehills Out Of Mountains:

F Stands For Success Rakhi Kapoor,2021-01-11 Most people find it hard to accept that they failed to achieve something It leaves them disheartened and broken They fall in their own eyes and then they give up on their dreams Author Rakhi Kapoor secretly nurtured a dream of writing books from her childhood but never saw it coming true She eventually gave up on her dream Rakhi then found her doorway to the path leading her to become an author In the year 2014 she embarked on a trek in the Himalayan ranges of Nepal that she failed to complete Based on her life s greatest failure Rakhi published her first book in the year 2017 called The Girl Who Was Left Behind Since then Rakhi Kapoor has published eighteen books amongst which four turned national best sellers Rakhi shares priceless insights for everyone out there aspiring to find success beyond their failures Nurturing dreams is one thing Building yourself to be worthy of success is for the brave hearts You had better be ready to fall fail and rise to every challenge turning it into your success story Failure is a long dark tunnel where one is trapped and blinded by their disappointments shame and pain The light is not at the end of the tunnel The blazing flame of glory lies within All one needs to do is kindle it

People Are No Damn Good Jimmy R. Watson,2022-04-21 Over thirty five years in the classroom and pulpit will give a person some perspective about homo ethicus the ethical human being In this intentionally non academic contribution to the moral pursuit Jimmy Watson offers personal anecdotes and reflections sardonic wit sarcastic humor and most importantly a wide array of information and laser beam insights into his chosen field of study He invites the reader to think deeply about the complexities and ambiguities of human nature and the discernment of good and evil from both secular and religious perspectives and encourages all of us to become the best damn people we can possibly be

The Doomed Horse Soldiers of Bataan Raymond G. Woolfe Jr.,2016-05-26 This is the story of the last mounted American troops to see action in battle when in late 1941 six hundred men and their horses held off the Japanese invasion of Luzon in the Philippines just long enough to allow General Douglas MacArthur s forces to withdraw to Bataan The 26th continued to fight on horseback until late February 1942 when tragically they were ordered dismounted and their horses and mules transferred to the Quartermaster s center and slaughtered for food for the defenders It is on record that the 26th troopers refused to accept meat rations from their animals regardless of their own starvation This stirring account of a little known aspect of the Philippine campaign is military history at its best

A Cognitive-Behavioral Approach to the Beginning of the End of Life, Minding the Body Jason M. Satterfield,2008-02-25 Individuals with serious and incurable illnesses often require care that goes beyond the body As they face the challenges of living with and eventually dying from their conditions they may need to acquire new skills to cope and increase their quality of life Even those at the beginning of the end of life can take an active role in their treatment This skill based program emphasizes flexibility and should be tailored to individual clients The first module introduces stress management techniques including cognitive restructuring relaxation and problem focused and emotion focused coping The second module targets mood management with sessions on depression anxiety and anger Social support is addressed in the third module where clients learn communication and conflict resolution skills Special attention is paid to supporting caregivers and working with medical providers The fourth module focuses on quality of life and covers symptom management goal setting positive psychology and spiritual issues An adaptation chapter details how to run the program as a group and discusses other possible formats Incorporating a wide variety of CBT techniques this program can benefit patients suffering from a range of chronic and terminal diseases The corresponding workbook helps clients personalize the content of sessions and practice new skills The facilitator guide is invaluable to any mental health professional working in a medical or other palliative care setting
