Mariejo Lafontaine:

Marie-Jo Lafontaine, 1985 Women Artists in the 20th and 21st Century Ilka Becker, 2001 Taschen's inventive layout is effective in presenting the provocative works, words and biographies of the nearly 100 women artists gathered here. Grosenick, a freelance art historian in Germany, has selected women artists working in Germany, the US, South Africa, Japan, Poland, France, Scandinavia, and Spain among other countries. The entry for each artist is six pages with much of the space devoted to good quality color photos of her work. c. Book News Inc. Art of the 20th Century Karl Ruhrberg, Klaus Honnef, Manfred Schneckenburger, Christiane Fricke, 2000. The original edition of this ambitious reference was published in hardcover in 1998 in two oversize volumes 10x13. This edition combines the two volumes into one; it's paperbound, flexi cover, the paper has a plastic coating, smaller 8x10 and affordable for art book buyers with shallower pockets, none of whom should pass it by. The scope is encyclopedic; half the work originally, the first volume is devoted to painting, the other half to sculpture, new media and photography. Chapters are arranged thematically and each page displays several examples in color of work under discussion. The final section, a lexicon of artists, includes a small bandw photo of each artist as well as biographical information and details of work, writings and exhibitions. Ruhrberg and the three other authors are veteran art historians, curators and writers, as is editor Walther. c. Book News Inc. Marie-Jo Lafontaine Marie-Jo Lafontaine, 1999 Art and Sovereignty in Global Politics Douglas Howland, Elizabeth Lillehoj, Maximilian Mayer, 2016-12-01. This volume aims to question, challenge, supplement and revise current understandings of the relationship between aesthetic and political operations. The authors transcend disciplinary boundaries and nurture a wide ranging sensibility about art and sovereignty, two highly complex and interwoven dimensions of human experience that have rarely been explored by scholars in one conceptual space. Several chapters consider the intertwining of modern philosophical currents and modernist artistic forms, in particular those revealing formal abstraction, stylistic experimentation, self-conscious expression and resistance to traditional definitions of Art. Other chapters deal with currents that emerged as facets of art became increasingly commercialized, merging with industrial design and popular entertainment industries. Some contributors address Post Modernist art and theory, highlighting power relations and providing sceptical critical commentary on repercussions of colonialism and notions of universal truths rooted in Western ideals. By interfering with established dichotomies and unsettling stable debates related to art and sovereignty, all contributors frame new perspectives on the co-constitution of artworks and practices of sovereignty.

The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter, 2011. Arranged in alphabetical order, these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries. Installation and the Moving Image Catherine Elwes, 2015-05-12. Film and video create an illusory world, a reality elsewhere and a material presence that both dramatizes and demystifies the magic trick of moving pictures. Beginning in the 1960s, artists have explored filmic and televisual phenomena in the controlled environments of galleries and museums, drawing on multiple antecedents in cinema.

television and the visual arts This volume traces the lineage of moving image installation through architecture painting sculpture performance expanded cinema film history and countercultural film and video from the 1960s 1970s and 1980s Sound is given due attention along with the shift from analogue to digital issues of spectatorship and the insights of cognitive science Woven into this genealogy is a discussion of the procedural political theoretical and ideological positions espoused by artists from the mid twentieth century to the present Historical constructs such as Peter Gidal s structural materialism Maya Deren s notion of vertical and horizontal time and identity politics are reconsidered in a contemporary context and intersect with more recent thinking on representation subjectivity and installation art The book is written by a critic curator and practitioner who was a pioneer of British video and feminist art politics in the late 1970s Elwes writes engagingly of her encounters with works by Anthony McCall Gillian Wearing David Hall and Janet Cardiff and her narrative is informed by exchanges with other practitioners While the book addresses the key formal theoretical and historical parameters of moving image installation it ends with a question What s in it for the artist

Ephemeral Monuments Marina Pugliese, 2013 This is an indispensable volume for creators curators and conservators of installation art Installation art is an evolving often ephemeral medium that defies rigid categorization It has also radically transformed the concepts of space time and the experience of art The conservation field is faced with unique challenges over how best to manage and preserve the essence of these works How detailed can documentation get When does the replacement of original components become acceptable How does the field cope with the obsolescence of certain technologies By exploring the questions and dilemmas facing those who care for art installations this book intends to raise awareness and promote discussion about the various conservation approaches for these works

Art and architecture of the late 20th century Dorothea Eimert, 2024-11-12 During the second half of the twentieth century in a world transformed by international tensions the centre of artistic creation shifted from Europe to the United States In a world where major countries asserted their power individualism now ruled The art world was a perfect example of this phenomenon even now the emphasis of creativity is placed on the individual instead of the trend Moreover growing globalization and the various types of media have facilitated a multiplication of means and offered artists new possibilities Now at the dawn of the twenty first century everything has the potential to be art and art more than ever is the opportunity to take risks to present and transform almost anything This work invites the reader to discover the diversity of this most recent artistic environment
