Models Of Adult Religious Education Practice:

Models of Adult Religious Education Practice R. E. Y. Wickett, 1991 MODELS OF ADULT RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PRACTICE offers a foundational rationale plus a wide inventory of workable teaching procedures for vitalizing the religious education of adults No other major book on adult religious education offers as wide a range of concrete teaching procedures as does this volume The distinctiveness of this book lies in its holism It provides concrete practical models for teaching cognitive affective and lifestyle outcomes to all kinds of adult learners in all kinds of settings This volume has been widely praised by major authorities in adult education and religious education including Allen Tough Nancy Foltz Ron Habermas and Kenneth Gangel

The Religious Education of Adults Leon McKenzie, R. Michael Harton, 2002 Increasingly adults do not see the church as a credible provider of quality religious education This revision by R Michael Harton of the classic work by Leon McKenzie addresses the foundational issues of what constitutes such an education for adults and how ministers and teachers can determine and understand the needs of learners It also offers ways to involve learners in the planning and execution of their own religious education A must read for ministers and seminarians who care about the religious education of adults Leon McKenzie is a retired professor of adult education at Indiana University where he also served as Director of Human Resource Development for Indiana University Hospital He received his Ed D in adult education from IU and has authored several books including Adult Education and the Burden of the Future and Adult Education and World View Construction He lives in Indianapolis R Michael Harton has authored several articles on local church adult education and contributed to A Church's Ministry to Adults and Handbook on Adult Religious Education A former congregational educator and seminary professor he now serves the Virginia Baptist Resource Center in Richmond Virginia and teaches adjunctively at the Baptist Theological Seminary at Richmond He received his Ed D in adult education and instructional systems technology from Indiana University

The Power of Small Groups in Christian Formation Harley T. Atkinson, 2018-01-10 Small groups continue to be a significant part of church life and Christian formation in the twenty first century impacting a church and society characterized by loneliness and fragmentation As such Julie Gorman is prompted to declare Small groups have come of age They have found unprecedented acceptance and endorsement This is a comprehensive book on small groups and Christian formation informed by theology church history and the social sciences It addresses both the foundations and praxis of groups with a special emphasis on leading dynamic group discussions Learning in the Way Jeff Astley, 2000 Adult Christian learning is central to the life of the Christian church and is essential for its health outreach and very survival Leading Christian educators here apply the principles of Christian education to adult learning in the churches and present the results and methods of empirical research relevant to the church's ministry of adult Christian education This book will be of interest to all who are concerned for the ways in which adults learn to be Christian The editor Jeff Astley is Director of the North of England Institute for Christian Education and Honorary Professorial Fellow in Practical Theology and Christian Education in the University of Durham Open Minds, Devoted Hearts Sarah Tauber, 2015-07-16 How do religious educators meaningfully engage adult learners How do they invite adults to begin a learning journey and inspire them to stay on it In an era of spiritual but not religious how can religious educators and clergy in particular respond to the yearnings of adults for connection wholeness and purpose Open Minds Devoted Hearts offers the examples of three outstanding congregational rabbis whose teaching answers that call to action Through innovatively incorporating biographical portraits and educational scholarship the book provides a comprehensive exploration of how the themes of narrative transformation and spirituality bring adult religious educators and learners into a powerful interactive educational process The portraits and accompanying analysis reveal how constructing personal meaning and building sacred community through study situates adult learning as a dynamic centerpiece of an energized congregational life Living Spiritual Praxis Eric J. Kyle, 2013-10-24 Christian ministers working in congregations and with nonprofits seek to discern what it is that God has been doing and where it is that the Spirit might be leading them In Living Spiritual Praxis Eric Kyle looks to address the lack of resources on the work and dynamics of Christian spiritual formation that actually develop a specific process for spiritual formation programs Kyle strives to provide a guide for spiritual formation by using the praxis oriented fields of action research and practical theology He explores a process for understanding the nature and dynamics of a situation discerning specific formative interventions assessing various approaches and continually assessing and modifying these understandings and approaches Living Spiritual Praxis will be an invaluable resource for all Christians leaders and laity alike who are challenged by the spiritual formation of church members communities groups and individuals Resources in Education, 2001-04 Thinking Theologically about Language Teaching Cheri L. Pierson, Will Bankston, 2017-08-31 Christians can often overlook the need to bring their daily vocations in accord with the reality created sustained and purposed through Christ This is no less true for language teachers who find themselves at a difficult interdisciplinary crossroads where the paths of linguistics culture and education merge This challenge should not discourage these educators but instead aid them in their journey to form a pedagogy rooted in theological truths from Scripture one that provides a nuanced approach that glorifies God in a manner specific to the language classroom The contributors of this book outline why and how theology must inform teaching methods so that Christian language educators might better serve their students with both faith and excellence thereby pointing them to the

Online Small Groups as Sites of Teaching Simon

Hallonsten,2024-04-25 Centered around a reflective narrative recounting the experiences of a participatory action research project into leading online small groups for adults in the Church of Sweden Diocese of Stockholm during 2021 and 2022 the dissertation argues for the need to reconceptualize and reemphasize teaching as an important aspect in Christian religious education Employing creative non fiction methods the dissertation aims to broaden the scope of the initial Online Small Groups project by inviting readers to join into a learning journey The narrative account is complemented with more traditional forms of analysis that connect experiences from online small groups in the Church of Sweden to similar research from Anglo Saxon countries noting especially how notions of community diverge due to different ecclesiological understandings Insights are then synthesized into eight teaching strategies aimed at communicating actionable knowledge to small group leaders before noting how the study complements research on Christian religious education and particularly the current debate about learning and teaching in the Church of Sweden Studies in the Education of Adults ,1986-04

The Palgrave Handbook of Learning for Transformation Aliko Nicolaides,Saskia Eschenbacher,Petra T.

Buergelt,Yabome Gilpin-Jackson,Marguerite Welch,Mitsunori Misawa,2022-01-24 This handbook offers an expanded discourse on transformative learning by making the turn into new passageways to explore the phenomenon of transformation It curates diverse discourses knowledges and practices of transformation in ways that both includes and departs from the adult learning mainstay of transformative learning and adult education The purpose of this handbook is not to resolve or unify a theory of transformation and all the disciplinary contributions that clearly promote a living concept of transformation Instead the intent is to catalyze a more complex and deeper inquiry into the Why of transformation Each discipline culture ethics and practice has its own specialized care and reasons for paying attention to transformation How can scholars practitioners and active members of discourses on transformative learning make a difference How can they foster and create conditions that allow us to move on to other unaddressed or understudied questions To answer these questions the editors and their authors employ the metaphor of the many turns into passageways to convey the potential of transformation that may emerge from the many connecting passageways between for instance people and society theory and practice knowledge created by diverse disciplines and fields professions individual and collective transformations and individual and social action
