Guilds and the Parish Community in Late Medieval East Anglia, C. 1470-1550 Ken Farnhill, 2001 The parish and the guild were the two poles round which social and religious life revolved in late medieval England This study drawing freely on East Anglian records shows how influential they were in the lives of their communities in the years before the break with Rome and provides an implicit commentary on the impact of the Henrician Reformation at parish level The records of many of the guilds or fraternities of East Anglia in the years 1470 1550 are examined for evidence of their form function and popularity the spread of fraternities across East Anglia the size of individual guilds types of member and the benefits of guild membership are all studied in detail The social and religious functions of the fraternities are then compared with the parish through a study of the records of two Norfolk market towns Wymondham and Swaffham and two Suffolk villages Bardwell and Cratfield A final chapter studies the fortunes of the guilds during the early years of the Reformation up to their dissolution in 1548 KEN FARNHILL is research associate at the Centre for Medieval Studies University of York

Syon Abbey and Its Books Edward Alexander Jones, Alexandra Walsham, 2010 Founded in 1415 the double monastery of Syon Abbey was the only English foundation of the order established by the fourteenth century mystic St Bridget of Sweden After its dispersal at the Dissolution the community survived in exile and was briefly restored during the reign of Mary I with Elizabeth's accession some of the nuns and brothers once again sought refuge on the Continent first in the Netherlands and later in Lisbon This volume of essays traces the fortunes of Syon Abbey and the Bridgettine order between 1400 and 1700 examining the various ways in which reading and writing shaped its identity and defined its experience It explores the interconnections between late medieval and post Reformation monastic history and the rapidly evolving world of communication learning and books The essays extend our understanding of religious culture and institutions on the eve of the Reformation and the impulses that inspired initiatives for early modern Catholic renewal They illuminate the spread of literacy and the gradual and uneven transition from manuscript to print in the process engaging with larger questions about the origins and consequences of religious intellectual and cultural change in late medieval and early modern Europe great crusading hero ruler a second Arthur who would lead his people into the Last Days The book is completed with a handlist of manuscripts containing political prophecies Dr LESLEY A COOTE is a Research Fellow in the Department of English at the University of Hull Valuable research tool Handlist of manuscripts containing political prophecies
