Russell's Magazine ,1859 Givol Felicity Dell'Aquila-Geyra,2011-09-19 Her son introduces his mother s life story which she has written as a fictional narrative as she relives traumatic experiences while writing about them She traces her life from a sheltered childhood and girlhood in her disfunctional Italo American Catholic family to her meeting a handsome young Israeli hero of his country s War of Independence who is studying in the United States now that there is hope of peace in his country They are both romantics she a vulnerable young music student he a sensitive idealistic artist whose dream is to do something memorable for his young country They fall deeply in love and marry secretly He calls his delicate child bride Givol the Hebrew word for the stem of a flower Inspired her father has him deported to Israel where they are supremely happy until tragedy changes their lives for ever Every Man His Own Trumpeter George Walter Thornbury,1858 Russell's Magazine Paul Hamilton Haynes,1965 The Ickabog ,2020-11-10 From J K Rowling a warm fast paced funny fairy tale of a fearsome monster thrilling adventure and hope against all odds Once upon a time there was a tiny kingdom called Cornucopia as rich in happiness as it was in gold and famous for its food From the delicate cream cheeses of Kurdsburg to the Hopes of Heaven pastries of Chouxville each was so delicious that people wept with joy as they ate them But even in this happy kingdom a monster lurks Legend tells of a fearsome creature living far to the north in the Marshlands the Ickabog Some say it breathes fire spits poison and roars through the mist as it carries off wayward sheep and children alike Some say it s just a myth And when that myth takes on a life of its own casting a shadow over the kingdom two children best friends Bert and Daisy embark on a great adventure to untangle the truth and find out where the real monster lies bringing hope and happiness to Cornucopia once more Featuring full color illustrations by children from across the United States and Canada this original fairy tale from one of the world s most celebrated storytellers will captivate readers of all ages No Known Grave Maureen Jennings,2016-05-10 From the well known author whose books inspired the wildly popular Murdoch Mysteries TV series comes the third WWII era DI Tom Tyler mystery for fans of Foyle s War wartime dramas and of course Maureen Jennings It s summer 1942 and after a tough couple of years DI Tom Tyler is making a fresh start in Ludlow Shropshire On the outskirts of town St Anne s Convalescent Hospital staffed by nursing sisters who are Anglican nuns has been established in an old manor house to help victims of the war to recover After a horrifying double murder is discovered on the grounds Tyler must figure out how the crime could have occurred in such a secluded and presumably impenetrable place where most of the patients are unable to walk or are blind or both not to mention deeply traumatized To add to the puzzle Tyler begins almost immediately to receive mysterious letters recounting terrible crimes far away He realizes that he is not only seeking the murderer but that the horrors of the war are closing in on this place that was meant to be a refuge Maureen Jennings beloved author of the Murdoch novels that inspired the popular TV series known as The Artful Detective in the US surpasses herself in this vivid portrayal of wartime Britain brilliantly blending a classic murder mystery with a deeply human story of how the effects of war live on far from the fields of battle Good Grief! Eddie Brady,2003-09-09 This is a book about tears and laughter in relationships As the world gets more complex so does the interfacing between man and woman Issues are raised from these stories Whatever solution lines up with your own values is the right answer My vision is that a man and a woman will read this book discuss the issues it raises and reach agreed solutions Then having agreed on their common values they will be furnished with a foundation for a happy future that started with absorbing what these stories tell and teach us Eddie Brady Babylon, Dd4, and the Dancing Nun Bob Battersby,2014-06-24 For the young boys of Valley Stream Long Island growing up in the shadow of the horrors of December of 1941 is about finding ways to cope The boys join in on the wartime efforts where they can helping with scrap drives and working in the victory gardens Just as their gardens mature so do the boys who tend them In baseball they find welcome distraction from their grief amid more joyful reminders of their youthful innocence Delmar Darby IV better known as DD4 to his friends is in love The irresistible Alice Meacham also known as Alice Blue Eyes to her young beau captured his heart at the start of their teens Now with the world threatening to tear itself apart they do the only thing that seems sensible when nothing makes sense anymore Their wedding is a symbol of hope and love and optimism even if its hard to make promises in war Their story is told by their friend Bob and a would be hermit known as HAG Compared to the war the desire to learn how to dance may not mean much but to DD4 and Alice Blue Eyes its what they can do to stay sane With the help of Maud and Sister Mary Elizabeth a nun renowned for her spirited Irish jig their community hopes to learn that the surest cure for tragedy abroad may be the embrace of small victories at home Eternal Sarah A. Osborne,2016-03-03 Aging at one tenth the rate of the average human Helena has never really understood her place in the mortal world The first six decades of her life she lived behind the walls of a convent but after committing a horrendous crime Helena is sent to a maximum security institute and spends another seven decades in solitary confinement When she finally escapes her imprisonment she has the physical looks of a thirteen year old girl but with a highly developed mental ability Now on the run Helena embarks on a journey to discover more about herself but finds her abilities are far more intricate than she could ever imagine and dealing with mortal emotions is even more strenuous than managing her insatiable urge to hunt the evil that lurks around every corner While seeking refuge at a southern plantation she meets an eccentric psychic who may hold the key to Helenas past while unintentionally falling for an exotic mortal boy with a past just as mysterious as her own Unable to run from her past or mortal emotions any longer Helena must free herself not only from her captors but also from the people she truly cares about and decide whether to keep the one person who truly makes her happy or to let him go entirely Inheriting China Margaret Hollister,2010 Memoirs of the daughter of American missionaries to China
