Nursing Leadership Preparing For The 21st Century:

Nursing Leadership Elizabeth Burkhart, Laura Skeggs, 1993 Nursing Leadership American Organization of Nurse Executives, 1993 Nursing and Informatics for the 21st Century - Embracing a Digital World, 3rd Edition - Book 2 Connie Delaney, Charlotte Weaver, Joyce Sensmeier, Lisiane Pruinelli, Patrick Weber, 2022-04-28

Nursing Education and Digital Health Strategies explores the current state of health and healthcare education as well as that of nursing informatics education. These topics include technologies enabled education for all nurses and interprofessional collaborations from a worldwide perspective. The New learning for applied critical thinking will include technology content skills versus tools and the use of smart systems for care delivery, the role of critical thinking and uniqueness of nursing care delivery. Further, how these changes are understood as a paradigm shift that needs to be incorporated along with nursing and healthcare education is emphasized. The effects of technology on human behavior are also explored, addressing human factors interaction, interdependence of human computer interaction and other effects of technology on wellbeing. As part of nursing education, learning from clients/patients to better shape and advance nursing education and scholarship are discussed. Academic/clinical practice partnerships for a digital future, how teams are working together, clinician/teacher for better healthcare delivery and applied knowledge including joint appointments, exchange of academia and applied expertise, academic/applied human resources and interprofessional learning development are discussed. This book closes by discussing and using case studies to showcase nursing competencies for the next decade, implications for preparing the healthcare workforce for a digital world, faculty readiness and the interaction with gaming and simulations. Nursing informatics education including continuing education beyond academia i.e. informal education worldwide as well as global challenges to support digital world capabilities are described. Hands on/Experiential Delivery and learning based case studies are also included.
