The thirteen articles presented here originated with a conference on emigre feminism held at Trent University in October 1996 The authors most of them now living in Canada are scholars from South Africa Uganda Chile Trinidad and Tobago Greece Hungary the Czech Republic Poland Turkey Iran Finland and New Zealand The Rotarian , 1996-09 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Gandhi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine The Lizard Cage Karen Connelly, 2011-09-21 Beautifully written and taking us into an exotic land Karen Connelly's debut novel The Lizard Cage is a celebration of the resilience of the human spirit Teza once electrified the people of Burma with his protest songs against the dictatorship Arrested by the Burmese secret police in the days of mass protest he is seven years into a twenty year sentence in solitary confinement Cut off from his family and contact with other prisoners he applies his acute intelligence Buddhist patience and humor to find meaning in the interminable days and searches for news in every being and object that is grudgingly allowed into his cell Despite his isolation Teza has a profound influence on the people around him His very existence challenges the brutal authority of the jailers and his steadfast spirit inspires radical change Even when Teza's criminal server tries to compromise the singer for his own gain Teza befriends him and risks falling into the trap of forbidden conversation food and the most dangerous contraband of all paper and pen Yet it is through Teza's relationship with Little Brother a twelve year old orphan who's grown up inside the walls that we ultimately come to understand the importance of hope and human connection in the midst of injustice and violence Teza and the boy are prisoners of different orders only one of them dreams of escape and only one of them will achieve it their extraordinary friendship frees both of them in utterly surprising ways The Literary History of Alberta Volume Two George Melnyk, 1998 In this the companion to the landmark volume The Literary History of Alberta Volume One From Writing on Stone to World War Two George Melnyk examines Alberta literature in the second half of the twentieth century At last Melnyk argues Alberta writers have found their voice and their accomplishments have been remarkable The contradictory landscape the stereotypes of the Indian the Mountie and the Cowboy and the language of the Other speaking from the margins these elements all left their impressions on the consciousness of early Alberta But writers in the last few decades have turned this inheritance to their advantage to create compelling stories about this place and its people Today Melnyk discovers Alberta writers can appreciate not only this achievement but also its essential source the symbolic communication of Writing on Stone The Literary History of Alberta Volume Two extends the study of Alberta's cultural history to the present day It is a vital text for anyone interested in Alberta

s vibrant literary culture Burmese Lessons Karen Connelly, 2010-05-18 Orange Prize winner Karen Connelly's compelling memoir about her journey to Burma where she fell in love with a leader of the Burmese rebel army. When Karen Connelly goes to Burma in 1996 to gather information for a series of articles, she discovers a place of unexpected beauty and generosity. She also encounters a country ruled by a brutal military dictatorship that imposes a code of censorship and terror. Carefully seeking out the regime's critics, she witnesses mass demonstrations, attends protests, interviews detained opposition leader Aung San Suu Kyi, and flees from police. When it gets too risky for her to stay, Connelly flies back to Thailand, but she cannot leave Burma behind. Connelly's interest in the political turns more personal on the Thai-Burmese border where she falls in love with Maung, the handsome and charismatic leader of one of Burma's many resistance groups. After visiting Maung's military camp in the jungle, she faces an agonizing decision: Maung wants to marry Connelly and have a family with her, but if she marries this man, she also weds his world and his lifelong cause. Struggling to weigh the idealism of her convictions against the harsh realities of life on the border, Connelly transports the reader into a world as dangerous as it is enchanting. In radiant prose layered with passion, regret, sensuality, and wry humor, Burmese Lessons tells the captivating story of how one woman came to love a wounded, beautiful country and a gifted man who has given his life to the struggle for political change.
