Onesimus The Runaway Slave:

Onesimus Henry Boyer Brumbaugh,1910 Onesimus the Run-Away Slave E. E Coleman,T. Marie Smith,2011-03-15

Born a slave Onesimus was educated to serve Master Mamun a physician in the art of healing for the Masters vast household and to help with his practice Master Mamun died when Onesimus was nineteen and he was separated from his beloved mother and sold to Philemon a wealthy stranger from Colosse Onesimus served Master Philemon as a physician for his many servants and animals but vowed to someday find his mother One day Onesimus was riding Pharaoh Philemons favorite Arabian stallion and came upon a wagon caravan traveling to Ephesus He saw and instantly fell in love with Martha the most beautiful girl he had ever seen and made another vow I will someday find and marry Martha Stealing Pharaoh and a sack of gold from Master Philemon Onesimus became a run away slave andwell heres the rest of his compelling story Onesimus

this story come from the Bible I have taken a little known man Omnesimus and formed a uplifting high moral story He is only heard of in the new testament books of Philemon and Colossions The Apostle Paul who wrote Philemon sent this letter to Philemon to help him show mercy to this run away slave This is a story that the young will enjoy It has excitement drama and love but without language that would offend anyone I have gleamed information from encyclopedias and from the Internet concerning the area in which this story takes place gaining information about the climate agriculture and terrain of the land trying to make the story s setting accurate while still folding a fictitious story around the main character I have also talked to a person who has lived in the area my story takes place and gained information here too The first few pages start with Omne s childhood in what is now Turkey Then as a strong husky youth he is taken by raiders He is treated harshly as a slave and for several months lives in the filthy camps of those who stole him Here he is befriended by another slave a lad about his own age who tells him about the God in Heaven This boy tells Omne that the gods of silver and wood are worthless After many months Omne is taken away from this camp and sold as a slave to a man who treats his slaves well This man had been visited by one of the men who help Paul and he believed in Christ too One day while Omne is working his team of oxen in a field near the river he rescues his master's young son from drowning This feat he did even though he had never learned to swim and this act nearly takes the life of this helpful slave As a reward for the valiant act Omne is given Martha a most lovely and sweet young lady for his wife With the passing of time children are born into this couple's home Omne and his family are treated almost like children of the master's household Omne is respected by his master and the other slaves whom he is now boss over All goes well until Omne's eldest son dies and Omne can't accept his death He grows very despondent and blames God for his son's death Feeling that all hope is gone he steals from his master and leaves his beloved wife and children He tries to run away from God but in the process finds that God is ever with him even through 2 robberies and beati

The Runaway Slave and a Letter of Forgiveness Philemon and Onesimus Kids' Bible Stories Ayokunle Mathew Akinbi, 2025-07-31 Journey back in time to the bustling streets of the Roman Empire and meet Onesimus a young helper in the house of a kind man named Philemon After one terrible mistake Onesimus is filled with fear and makes a daring choice he runs away Join Onesimus on his long and lonely journey to the giant city of Rome Feel the dust of the road beneath your feet see the towering buildings that block out the sun and sense the fear of being lost and alone But in the most unexpected of places a dark and chilly prison Onesimus finds a surprising friend the apostle Paul In that gloomy cell Onesimus hears the most wonderful story of all the story of Jesus's amazing love and a forgiveness so powerful it can change everything With a new hope in his heart Onesimus must make the bravest journey yet the journey home He carries with him a very special letter from Paul a letter filled with a plea for love and reconciliation Will Philemon his master listen to Paul's words Can a runaway helper truly be welcomed back not as a servant but as a beloved brother Filled with rich sensory details that bring the ancient world to life The Runaway Slave and a Letter of Forgiveness beautifully retells the powerful biblical story of Philemon and Onesimus Each engaging chapter delves deep into the heart of courage compassion and the incredible power of a second chance This book is a perfect way to teach young hearts about the true meaning of forgiveness and how God's love can mend any broken relationship making us all one family in Christ

The First Christian Slave Mary Ann Beavis, 2021-01-06 The slave Onesimus is the central figure in the letter to Philemon but he remains silent throughout the discourse Studies of the letter focus on whether or not Onesimus was a fugitive slave and on the question of Paul's intentions for him did he want Philemon to accept him back as a brother in faith did he expect Philemon to return Onesimus to him for his own use or was Paul hinting that Philemon should manumit Onesimus This study centers on Onesimus as an intentional convert the first Christian slave whose name we know Using research about early Christian slavery slavery in the Roman world and comparative evidence from African American slave narratives this study starts from the assumption that Onesimus had his own motives and aspirations in pursuing his association with Paul and reconstructs his voice using hints within and outside the text that suggest his agency and subjectivity Paul in the Greco-Roman World J. Paul Sampley, 2003-11-01 Distinguished Pauline scholars offer an insightful examination of Paul and his world using carefully chosen examples to demonstrate how particular features of Greco Roman culture shed light on Paul s letters and on his readers possible perceptions of them Ecce Homo George W. Hall, 1933
