Other Masters Five Contemporary Folk:

Encounters with Modern Indian Art Yashodhara Dalmia, 2025-09-22 This book explores modern art in India tracing its evolution from the setting up of the Progressive Artists Group in the 1940s to the contemporary movements today It discusses some of the fundamental issues around Indian art such as the extent of its rootedness in the country the amalgamation of Western art methods and Indian aesthetics in the art and its increasing infusion with popular modes In a series of essays the book looks at works from the late Mughal period when artists began to move towards modernism to the visionary approaches of artists like Rabindranath Tagore Nandalal Bose Ramkinkar Baij and Benodebehari Mukherjee in Santiniketan It also explores innovative works of the Indo Hungarian artist Amrita Sher Gil and contributions of progressive artists such as Francis Newton Souza Sayed Haider Raza and M F Husain to the new and experimental forms being practised in the present highlighting the transformative role of modern Indian art through the twentieth century as the works of each successive generation reflect the socio cultural contexts With rich illustrations the book will be of interest to students and educators of art art history intellectual and cultural history as well as to connoisseurs of art The Neighborhood of Gods

William Elison, 2018-12-10 There are many holy cities in India but Mumbai is not usually considered one of them More popular images of the city capture the world's collective imagination as a Bollywood fantasia or a slumland dystopia Yet for many if not most people who live in the city the neighborhood streets are indeed shared with local gods and guardian spirits In The Neighborhood of Gods William Elison examines the link between territory and divinity in India's most self consciously modern city In this densely settled environment space is scarce and anxiety about housing is pervasive Consecrating space first with impromptu displays and then eventually with full blown temples and official recognition is one way of staking a claim But how can a marginalized community make its gods visible and therefore powerful in the eyes of others The Neighborhood of Gods explores this question bringing an ethnographic lens to a range of visual and spatial practices from the shrine construction that encroaches on downtown streets to the tribal art practices of an indigenous group facing displacement to the work of image production at two Bollywood film studios A pioneering ethnography this book offers a creative intervention in debates on postcolonial citizenship urban geography and visuality in the religions of India

Speaking with Pictures Roma Chatterji, 2020-11-29 Speaking with Pictures offers a path breaking exploration of visual narratives in folk art It foregrounds folk art's engagement with modernity by re looking at its figurative modes and the ways in which they are embedded in mythic thought The book discusses folk art as a contemporary phenomenon which is a part of a complex visual culture where the essence of tradition is best captured in a new form or medium Each chapter picks up a theme that moves between the local and the global thereby attempting to problematise the stereotypical view of folk artists as carriers of timeless tradition The volume provides an ethnographic account of innovations through a detailed analysis of the scroll painting tradition of the patuas of West Bengal and the Pardhan Gond style of Madhya Pradesh highlighting some recent attempts at inter medium exchange in storytelling The book will interest those in visual and popular culture in anthropology sociology literary criticism and folklore It will also be of immense value to art historians museologists curators and NGOs working in media and communication apart from those with a general interest in folk art

Can Art History be Made Global? Monica Juneja, 2023-03-20 The book responds to the challenge of the global turn in the humanities from the perspective of art history A global art history it argues need not follow the logic of economic globalization nor seek to bring the entire world into its fold Instead it draws on a theory of transculturation to explore key moments of an art history that can no longer be approached through a facile globalism How can art historical analysis theorize relationships of connectivity that have characterized cultures and regions across distances How can it meaningfully handle issues of commensurability or its absence among cultures By shifting the focus of enquiry to South Asia the five meditations that make up this book seek to translate intellectual insights of experiences beyond Euro America into globally intelligible analyses

Adivasi Art and Activism Alice Tilche, 2022-02-19 As India consolidates an aggressive model of economic development indigenous tribal people known as adivasis continue to be overrepresented among the country's poor Adivasis make up more than eight hundred communities in India with a total population of more than 100 million people who speak more than three hundred different languages Although their historical presence is acknowledged by the state and they are lauded as a part of India's ethnic identity today their poverty has been compounded by the suppression of their cultural heritage and lifestyle In Adivasi Art and Activism Alice Tilche draws on anthropological fieldwork conducted in rural western India to chart changes in adivasi aesthetics home life attire food and ideas of religiosity that have emerged from negotiation with the homogenizing forces of Hinduization development and globalization in the twenty first century She documents curatorial projects located not only in museums and art institutions but in the realms of the home the body and the landscape Adivasi Art and Activism raises vital questions about preservation and curation of indigenous material and provides an astute critique of the aesthetics and politics of Hindu nationalism

Postcolonial Custodianship Filippo Menozzi, 2014-02-05 This book engages with current developments in postcolonial research exploring notions of cultural transmission tradition and modernity authenticity cross cultural aesthetics and postcolonial ethics The author considers the ethical responsibility of the postcolonial intellectual enhancing our understanding of this topic through the concept of custodianship which may be defined as a responsibility towards the other in forms of cultural and literary inheritance The author introduces custodianship as a central theme and a vital question for the committed intellectual today proposing original interpretations of major postcolonial texts by key figures including Anita Desai Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Mahasweta Devi and Arundhati Roy Through close reading and historical analysis Postcolonial Custodianship reveals that a practice of custodianship has always been an essential element of these writers ethical engagement yet in a way that has never been explored The author contends that the question of custodianship should not be seen as a merely negative designation it is by redefining the very meaning of custodianship that the ethical dimension of postcolonialism can be rediscovered What's the Use of Art? Jan Mrazek, Morgan Pitelka, 2007-12-03 Post Enlightenment notions of culture which have been naturalized in the West for centuries require that art be autonomously beautiful universal and devoid of any practical purpose The authors of this multidisciplinary volume seek to complicate this understanding of art by examining art objects from across Asia with attention to their functional ritual and everyday contexts From tea bowls used in the Japanese tea ceremony to television broadcasts of Javanese puppet theater from Indian wedding chamber paintings to art looted by the British army from the Chinese emperor's palace from the adventures of a Balinese magical dagger to the political functions of classical Khmer images the authors challenge prevailing notions of artistic value by introducing new ways of thinking about culture The chapters consider art objects as they are involved in the world how they operate and are experienced in specific sites collections rituals performances political and religious events and imagination and in individual peoples lives how they move from one context to another and change meaning and value in the process for example when they are collected traded and looted or when their images appear in art history textbooks how their memories and pasts are or are not part of their meaning and experience Rather than lead to a single universalizing definition of art the essays offer multiple divergent and case specific answers to the question What is the use of art and argue for the need to study art as it is used and experienced Contributors Cynthia J. Bogel Louise Cort Richard H. Davis Robert DeCaroli James L. Hevia Janet Hoskins Kaja McGowan Jan Mrzek Lene Pedersen Morgan Pitelka Ashley Thompson Practicing Art and Anthropology Anna Laine, 2020-06-07 Practicing Art and Anthropology presents an in depth exploration of transdisciplinary work in the expanding space between art and anthropology Having trained and worked as an artist as well as an anthropologist Anna Laine's decades long engagement in art practice artistic research and anthropology provide her with a unique perspective on connections between the two fields both in theory and in practice Intertwining artistic and anthropological ways of working Laine asks what it means to engage a transdisciplinary stance when academia requires a specific disciplinary belonging In order to expand the methods of producing academic knowledge by going beyond conventional approaches to research she draws on examples from her own work with Tamils in India and the UK to present an original take on how we can cross the boundaries between art and anthropology to reach multiple dimensions of understanding Offering exceptional breadth and detail Practicing Art and Anthropology provides a unique approach to the discussion An important read for students and scholars in art and anthropology as well as artists and anyone interacting in the space in between Teaching Art and Design 3-11 Sue Cox, Robert Watts, 2016-08-25 Whether you are beginning a teacher education course or embarking on a career in teaching this introductory textbook provides comprehensive information on how to meet the standards for the effective teaching of art and design in foundation and primary settings The authors offer comprehensive guidance on everything from reflecting on your own subject knowledge as a teacher to organizing the classroom planning your lessons using a variety of art processes and using artists work in your teaching Artistic Labor, Sexual Form, and Modernism in India, C. 1930-1980 Sonal Khullar, 2009 Asia-Pacific Triennial of Contemporary Art, 2006 Bulletin - National Museum, New Delhi National Museum of India, 2002 Raw Vision, 2003 Woman/Goddess Gayatri Sinha, 1999 Collection of pictures dated from early 1950s to 1999 which later constituted a photographic exhibition Other Masters Jyotindra Jain, 1998 Art and Visual Culture in India, 1857-2007 Gayatri Sinha, 2009 The demand for Modern Post Modern and Contemporary Indian art among collectors all over the world has spiralled in the past few years This book covers major trends in Indian art over the last 150 years taking in a broad sweep the shift from traditional forms of painting through the mechanical reproduction to 21st century Contemporary art The Language Loss of the Indigenous G. N. Devy, Geoffrey V. Davis, K. K. Chakravarty, 2016-02-26 This volume traces the theme of the loss of language and culture in numerous post colonial contexts It establishes that the aphasia imposed on the indigenous is but a visible symptom of a deeper malaise the mismatch between the symbiotic relation nurtured by the indigenous with their environment and the idea of development put before them as their future The essays here show how the cultures and the imaginative expressions of indigenous communities all over the world are undergoing a phase of rapid depletion They unravel the indifference of market forces to diversity and that of the states unwilling to protect and safeguard these marginalized communities This book will be useful to scholars and researchers of cultural and literary studies linguistics sociology and social anthropology as well as tribal and indigenous studies Towards a New Art History Ratan Parimoo, 2003 The Essays Here Challenging The Boundaries And Assumptions Of Mainstream Art History Question Many Preconceived Notions About Meaning In Representations Artistic And Art Historical Emphasizing On Specific Visual Cultures Within The Dynamics Of Historical Processes They Raise Critical Issues Of Art Production Circulation And Consumption And Attempt To Rescue Traditional Arts From A Past That Is Hermetically Sealed Off From The Present Annual Report India. Ministry of Textiles, 1997 Edge of Desire Chaitanya Sambran, 2005-05-11 The book presents a decade long perspective on contemporary visual practices in India with stunning visuals and insightful essays by leading intellectuals in the field Engaging with a diversity of art practices and creative conditions the publication and exhibition questions cultural structures that segregate visual practices making a case for a polycentric aesthetic In this argument for an inclusive and non hierarchical consideration of visual culture Edge of Desire presents a new contribution from the sub continent to the debate on the nature and purpose of art practices and art histories At the same time it offers a visually exciting and intellectually stimulating array of new art from India generated through an intermingling of influences and traditions
