Paris Hollywood Peter Wollen, 2002-11-17 Peter Wollen's book is based on the premise that there are no fixed ways of writing about film

Paris Hollywood Peter Wollen, 2020-05-05 In this new collection of essays on film all written over the last ten years Peter Wollen explores an extraordinarily wide range of topics stretching from an analysis of Time in Film and Video Art to a study of Riff Raff Realism in British films There are provocative discussions of the works of established auteur directors such as Howard Hawks and Alfred Hitchcock and of the film making careers of such experimental movie makers as William Burroughs and Viking Eggeling the dadaist pioneer of abstract film The collection also includes fascinating studies of a number of film classics such as John Huston's Freud Jean Renoir's Rules of the Game and Ridley Scott's Blade Runner Other essays deal with the relationship of film to the other arts such as dance and architecture and explore the interaction between film and anthropology This is not a theoretical book but it is one that suggests many new approaches to thinking about film and many unexpected connections between film studies and the history of such strangely related activities as espionage psychoanalysis Stalinism love of speed and digital technology Full of fascinating new insights Peter Wollen's new book is based on the premise that there are no fixed ways of writing about film but rather a plethora of paths leading in very different directions each contributing to a new understanding of the twentieth century's major art form Paris

Manhattan Peter Wollen, 2004-04-17 Peter Wollen is a master in the art of making unexpected connections and this new book suggests many different ways of writing and thinking about art

The Films of Laura Mulvey and Peter Wollen, 2023-04-20 This collection of Laura Mulvey and Peter Wollen's film scripts vividly evokes the close connection between their influential work as theorists and their work as filmmakers It includes scripts for all six of Mulvey and Wollen's collaborative films Wollen's solo feature film Friendship's Death 1987 and Mulvey's later collaborations Each text is followed by a new essay by a leading writer offering a critical interpretation of the corresponding film The collection also includes Wollen's short story Friendship's Death 1976 the outlines for two unrealised Mulvey and Wollen collaborations and a selection of scanned working documents The scripts and essays collected in this volume trace the historical significance of a complex cinematic project that brought feminist semiotic and psychoanalytic concerns together with formal devices and strategies The book includes original contributions from Nora M Alter Kodwo Eshun Nicolas Helm Grovas Esther Leslie Laura Mulvey Volker Pantenburg Griselda Pollock B Ruby Rich and Sukhdev Sandhu Hollywood Exiles in Europe Rebecca

Prime, 2014-01-14 Rebecca Prime documents the untold story of the American directors screenwriters and actors who exiled themselves to Europe as a result of the Hollywood blacklist During the 1950s and 1960s these Hollywood migrants directed wrote or starred in almost one hundred European productions their contributions ranging from crime film masterpieces like Du rififi chez les hommes 1955 Jules Dassin director to international blockbusters like The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 Carl Foreman and Michael Wilson screenwriters and acclaimed art films like The Servant 1963 Joseph Losey director At once a lively portrait of a lesser known American lost generation and an examination of an important transitional moment in European cinema the book offers a compelling argument for the significance of the blacklisted migrants to our understanding of postwar American and European cinema and Cold War relations Prime provides detailed accounts of the production and reception of their European films that clarify the ambivalence with which Hollywood was regarded within postwar European culture Drawing upon extensive archival research including previously classified material Hollywood Exiles in Europe suggests the need to rethink our understanding of the Hollywood blacklist as a purely domestic phenomenon By shedding new light on European cinema's changing relationship with Hollywood the book illuminates the postwar shift from national to transnational cinema

International Noir Homer B. Pettey, 2014-11-11 Ranging from Japanese silent films and women's films to French Hong Kong and Nordic New Waves this book explores the influence of noir on international cinematic traditions and challenges prevailing film scholarship It includes extensive bibliography and filmographies for recommended reading and viewing

Architecture, Politics, and Identity in Divided Berlin Emily Pugh, 2014-03-21 On August 13 1961 under the cover of darkness East German authorities sealed the border between East and West Berlin using a hastily constructed barbed wire fence Over the next twenty eight years of the Cold War the Berlin Wall grew to become an ever present physical and psychological divider in this capital city and a powerful symbol of Cold War tensions Similarly stark polarities arose in nearly every aspect of public and private life including the built environment In Architecture Politics and Identity in Divided Berlin Emily Pugh provides an original comparative analysis of selected works of architecture and urban planning in both halves of Berlin during the Wall era revealing the importance of these structures to the formation of political cultural and social identities Pugh uncovers the roles played by organizations such as the Foundation for Prussian Cultural Heritage and the Building Academy in conveying the political narrative of their respective states through constructed spaces She also provides an overview of earlier notable architectural works to show the precursors for design aesthetics in Berlin at large and considers projects in the post Wall period to demonstrate the ongoing effects of the Cold War Overall Pugh offers a compelling case study of a divided city poised between powerful contending political and ideological forces and she highlights the effort expended by each side to influence public opinion in Europe and around the World through the manipulation of the built environment

Transfigurations Asbjørn Grønstad, 2008 In many senses viewers have cut their teeth on the violence in American cinema from Anthony Perkins slashing Janet Leigh in the most infamous of shower scenes to the 1970s masterpieces of Martin Scorsese Sam Peckinpah and Francis Ford Coppola to our present day undertakings in imagining global annihilations through terrorism war and alien grudges Transfigurations brings our cultural obsession with film violence into a renewed dialogue with contemporary theory Grønstad argues that the use of violence in Hollywood films should be understood semiotically rather than viewed realistically Transfigurations thus alters both our methodology of reading violence in films and the meanings we assign to them depicting violence not as a self
