BIBLE STUDIES

"I thank my God every time I remember you . . ."
(Philippians 1:3)

"I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting the one who called you in the grace of Christ . . ."
(Galatians 1:6)

Philippians and Galatians

The letters to the Philippian and Galatian congregations illustrate well the passion and intensity of the writing of the apostle Paul. Philippians is perhaps Paul's warmest letter, affirming the already close relationship between the Philippians and Paul with the language of partnership, joy, and humility. Galatians, on the other hand, reveals frustration and anger and lacks the expression of thanksgiving typically found near the beginning of Paul's letters. Although Paul presumes a relationship of trust and respect with the Philippians, the tone of Galatians suggests that he thinks he may already have lost this community to an erroneous vision of the gospel—a perspective that was not really the gospel at all.

Philippians And Galatians Interpretation Bible Studies:

Philippians and Galatians Stanley P. Saunders, 2001-09-01 The letters to the Philippian and Galatian congregations illustrate well the passion and intensity of Paul's writing. Together these letters provide a compelling portrait of a complex original thinker who probably was the most significant missionary of his day, a theologian and social critic of rare power and insight whose legacy continues today to spark heated debate. Yet if we can catch even a little of Paul's vision, we are likely to be transformed. We may find ourselves called like Paul himself to a fresh vision of what God is doing in the world and to participation in the crucified body of Christ. Interpretation Bible Studies (IBS) offers solid biblical content in a creative study format. Forged in the tradition of the celebrated Interpretation commentary series, IBS makes the same depth of biblical insight available in a dynamic, flexible, and user-friendly resource. Designed for adults and older youth, IBS can be used in small groups, in church school classes, in large group presentations, or in personal study. Philippians and Galatians Stanley P. The Best Books William Swan Sonnenschein, 1910      The Influence of Early Keswick Theology of Sanctification in the Socio-ethical Life of the East African Revival Movement Robinson Kariuki Mwangi, 2025-03-31

Sanctification is an essential part of every Christian life But how do its differing theologies shape our Christian walk and wider socio ethic contexts Grounded in the East Africa Revival Movement EARM this work seeks to answer how the Keswick theology of sanctification contributes to the socio ethical understanding of walking in the light and consequently influences the mission of the Anglican Church in the Mount Kenya region Dr Robinson Kariuki Mwangi uses careful exegetical analysis to understand the biblical roots of revival and calls us to action in showing what our faith stands for integrating practical theology with pastoral practice Scholars of theology and lived Christianity will find the observations in this work informative for further study

God of Sense and Traditions of Non-Sense Sigve K. Being 'in Christ' in the Letters of Paul Teresa Morgan, 2020-11-05 In this study Teresa Morgan offers a radically new interpretation of in Christ and related expressions in the undisputed letters of Paul Starting from a reassessment of Deissmann's Die neutestamentliche Formel in Christo Jesu she argues that Deissmann's philology is flawed the Schweitzerian concept of participation in Christ which is indebted to it is problematic and many contemporary accounts of participation are better understood in other terms Through close readings of each letter Teresa Morgan shows how Paul uses en Christo language instrumentally to speak of what God has done through Christ by Christ's death and encheiristically to speak of the life the faithful now live in Christ's hands in Christ's power under his authority under his protection and in his care This creative use of en Christo language forms part of and connects Paul's soteriology eschatology and Christology shaping his narrative of God's intervention in the world the relationship between God Christ and the faithful the lordship and work of Christ between the resurrection and the parousia and God's ultimate triumph This narrative is closely connected with Paul's ecclesiology and ethics where life in Christ's hands is envisaged as the this worldly dimension of the new creation an aspect of eternal life already active in the present time In Christ's hands the faithful not least Paul himself live a new life in communities with a distinctive structure and dynamic In Christ's hands they hope to remain in right standing with God and serve God until Christ's return

Newly Created Children of God Hyung-tae Kim, 2025-10-07 This study makes an original contribution to our understanding of the connection between Paul's language of adoption huiothesia and his concept of new creation kaine ktisis Although there has been much research on Paul s use of the adoption metaphor and of his concept of new creation no previous study has paid close attention to the connection between them and what this relationship means for the shape of Pauline theology For example recent studies of ethnicity in Paul often appeal to Abrahamic sonship or divine sonship in Romans and Galatians but the sense of new creation is virtually absent in the arguments The present study attempts to rectify that oversight through a dialogue with the Paul within Judaism school of scholars Esther and Ruth Patricia K.
