American Evangelicals in Egypt Heather J. Sharkey,2015-07-28 In 1854 American Presbyterian missionaries arrived in Egypt as part of a larger Anglo American Protestant movement aiming for worldwide evangelization Protected by British imperial power and later by mounting American global influence their enterprise flourished during the next century American Evangelicals in Egypt follows the ongoing and often unexpected transformations initiated by missionary activities between the mid nineteenth century and 1967 when the Six Day Arab

Israeli War uprooted the Americans in Egypt Heather Sharkey uses Arabic and English sources to shed light on the many facets of missionary encounters with Egyptians These occurred through institutions such as schools and hospitals and through literacy programs and rural development projects that anticipated later efforts of NGOs To Egyptian Muslims and Coptic Christians missionaries presented new models for civic participation and for women s roles in collective worship and community life At the same time missionary efforts to convert Muslims and reform Copts stimulated new forms of Egyptian social activism and prompted nationalists to enact laws restricting missionary activities Faced by Islamic strictures and customs regarding apostasy and conversion and by expectations regarding the proper structure of Christian Muslim relations missionaries in Egypt set off debates about religious liberty that reverberate even today Ultimately the missionary experience in Egypt led to reconsiderations of mission policy and evangelism in ways that had long term repercussions for the culture of American Protestantism Conferences of Christian Workers Among the Moslems, 1924 International Missionary

Both Egyptian and foreign historians have testified to the high status of women in all spheres of life during the ancient Egyptian period Women were queens in their own right once the chief physician was a woman In the spiritual life there were priestesses and female musicians and dancers serving in temples This book deals with the role of women in the Christian Coptic Orthodox Church which was established in the first century AD The Coptic church has been blessed with thousands of female martyrs and saints some of whom are of worldwide fame There are fourteen female saints after whom Coptic churches in Egypt are named The Virgin St Mary is the most prominent of them The two Egyptian saints Demianah and Refqah are also popular Sts Verena and Regula are Egyptian saints who were martyred and buried in Switzerland St Verena evangelized in Switzerland and taught Swiss maidens hygiene practices There are more than eighty monuments consecrated to St Verena in Switzerland The Egyptian St Sophia has a world famous church in her name in Istanbul Turkey Unfortunately after the Arab invasion of Egypt in the seventh century the role of women in the church diminished considerably However since the middle of the twentieth century a great revival of the role of women has occurred more women have entered religious life as nuns and deaconesses serving as Sunday school teachers writing books about the church and even teaching in Coptic seminaries My goal is for this book to reach English language readers all over the world and enlighten them about the contribution of women in the service of Christianity through the Coptic Orthodox Church of Egypt Missionary Review of the World, 1928 Major Companies of Europe 1991-1992 Vol. 1 : Major Companies of the Continental
