Philosophical Problems An Annotated Anthology:

Philosophical Problems Laurence Bonjour, Ann Baker, 2005 Offers the reader a process for thinking philosophically and provides immediate guidance in reading philosophical work through margin annotations Classic and contemporary philosophical works Introduction to Philosophy featuring work by major historical and contemporary philosophers

Epistemology Laurence Bonjour, 2009-11-15 In Epistemology Laurence Bonjour introduces the serious philosophy student to the history and concepts of epistemology while simultaneously challenging them to take an active part in its ongoing debates The text reflects Bonjour's conviction that the place to start any discussion of the theories of knowledge is with the classical problems beginning with and centered around Descartes Only after the groundwork for understanding epistemology is laid does Bonjour move on to the more contemporary revolutions against the classical approach A versatile text that can be used in introductory level epistemology courses it can also be used by an upper level epistemology class when supplemented by appropriate readings This book is not however a simple reader of the different theories of knowledge Epistemology prods students to think independently about the various epistemological approaches presented in the text and form their own conclusions thus becoming active participants in the ongoing debate

Ways of Being in the World Andrea Sullivan-Clarke, 2023-08-22 Ways of Being in the World is an anthology of the Indigenous philosophical thought of communities across Turtle Island offering readings on a variety of topics spanning many times and geographic locations It was created especially to meet the needs of instructors who want to add Indigenous philosophy to their courses but are unsure where to begin as well as for students Indigenous or otherwise who wish to broaden their horizons with materials not found in the typical philosophy course This collection is an invitation to embark on a relationship with Indigenous peoples through the introduction of their unique philosophies

Atuolu Omalu Jonathan O. Chimakonam, 2014-12-15 The story of African philosophy is surrounded by controversy Decades after the great debate over its mere existence many vital questions have been left unanswered From examining the origins of African philosophy to addressing fundamental issues in ontology epistemology ethics and political thought this collection of essays brings fresh insight to questions both old and new First time readers and seasoned scholars alike will find this book to be an essential resource in African thought At l mal gives shape and direction to a hitherto formless discipline and heralds an exciting future for African philosophy

Epistemology Laurence Bonjour, 2009-11-15 In Epistemology Laurence Bonjour introduces the serious philosophy student to the history and concepts of epistemology while simultaneously challenging them to take an active part in its ongoing debates The text reflects Bonjour's conviction that the place to start any discussion of the theories of knowledge is with the classical problems beginning with and centered around Descartes Only after the groundwork for understanding epistemology is laid does Bonjour move on to the more contemporary revolutions against the classical approach A versatile text that can be used in introductory level epistemology courses it can also be used by an upper level epistemology class when supplemented by

Crowder, 2016-03-02 Too often skeptics charge Christians with having a blind faith Unfortunately believers have added fuel to the charges of skeptics by speaking of their faith illogically But the Christian faith is not a blind faith In fact biblical faith is never a blind irrational faith Christianity rests firmly on the stone that was rejected by the builders which has become the cornerstone Jesus Christ Acts 4 11 Living biblically requires thinking biblically just as to think biblically entails to live biblically as Winfried Corduan notes in the Foreword As followers of Christ believers cannot separate biblical thinking and biblical living These two behaviors are eternally connected not only in the person of Jesus Christ but they stem from the eternal being of God the Father and his eternal truth Christ mandates that his followers love God with their entire being heart soul mind and strength Mark 12 30 How are believers to go about living out this biblical mandate Christian faith is a warranted belief This is why it is so essential that Christians recognize the value and importance of philosophy and its proper place in Christendom and in the Christian's walk Sport, Philosophy, and Good Lives Randolph Feezell, 2013-07-01

There's more to sports than the ethos of competition entertainment and commercialism expressed in popular media and discourse Sport Philosophy and Good Lives discusses sport in the context of several traditional philosophical questions including What is a good human life and how does sport factor into it To whom do we look for ethical guidance What makes human activities or projects meaningful Randolph Feezell examines these questions along with other relevant topics in the philosophy of sport such as the contribution of play to a meaningful life the various reasons for pessimistic views of sport the various claims that celebrated athletes are role models and the seldom questioned view that coaches are in a position to offer advice to athletes on how to live or on leadership skills He also discusses the way that non Western attitudes found in Buddhism Taoism and the Bhagavad Gita might be used to address the vulnerabilities of sports participants Feezell draws from current sports issues popular literature and contemporary sports figures to shed light on the attraction and value of sports and examine the accompanying ethical issues Viktor E. Frankl Anthology Timothy Lent, 2004-08-30

Introduction to Viktor E Frankl The Man and His Message Philosopher of Meaning Viktor Emil Frankl was a philosopher of meaning Even from his childhood days and into his adolescent years Frankl was concerned with meaning At the early age of four he vividly remembered the thought of his own mortality In his autobiography he recalled one evening just before falling asleep I was startled by the unexpected thought that one day I too would have to die What troubled me then as it has done throughout my life was not the fear of dying but the question of whether the transitory nature of life might destroy its meaning Even as a teenager Frankl was on a quest for meaning searching for the answer to the question What is the meaning of life He wrote I well remember how I felt when I was exposed to reductionism in education as a junior high school student at the age of thirteen Once our natural science teacher told us that life in the final analysis was nothing but a combustion process an oxidation process I sprang to my feet and said Professor Fritz if this is the case what meaning does life have In 1921 as a high school student at the age of 16 he gave his first public lecture to an adult education school It was entitled The Meaning of Life For Frankl all of life was imbued with meaning no matter what situation in which one may find oneself no how well of ill chronically or terminally ill one was no matter where one was along life's journey no matter how badly a person may have wrecked his or her life In all of its various conditions life still has meaning as Frankl often said every life in every situation and to the last breath has a meaning retains a meaning He was emphatic The so called life not worth living does not exist Frankl was an amazing man who had an amazing message to tell men and women in the 20th century He was an extremely gifted human being a physician psychiatrist and philosopher

Drob, 1999-11-01 Symbols of the Kabbalah Philosophical and Psychological Perspectives provides a philosophical and psychological interpretation of the major symbols of the theosophical Kabbalah It shows that the Kabbalah particularly as it is expressed in the school of Isaac Luria provides a coherent and comprehensive account of the cosmos and humanity's role within it that is intellectually morally and spiritually significant for contemporary life Global Issues in Contemporary Hispanic Women's Writing Estrella Cibreiro, Francisca López, 2013 Carolyn Tuttle led a group that interviewed 620 women maquila workers in Nogales Sonora Mexico The responses from this representative sample refute many of the hopeful predictions made by scholars before NAFTA and reveal instead that little has improved for maquila workers The women's stories make it plain that free trade has created more low paying jobs in sweatshops where workers are exploited Families of maquila workers live in one or two room houses with no running water no drainage and no heat The multinational companies who operate the maquilas consistently break Mexican labor laws by requiring women to work more than nine hours a day six days a week without medical benefits while the minimum wage they pay workers is insufficient to feed their families These findings will make a crucial contribution to debates over free trade CAFTA DR and the impact of globalization The book visits continuities and discontinuities among Spanish and Latin American women with regards to the ways in which they approach writing as a political weapon to express ecological concerns to denounce social injustice to re-articulate existing paradigms such as local versus global violence versus pacifism immigrant versus citizen and to raise consciousness about racist sexist and other discriminatory practices Such use of writing as an instrument of ethical and political exploration is underlined throughout the different articles in the volume as the authors emphasize pluralism social justice gender equality tolerance and political representation This book offers readers a broad perspective on the multiple ways in which Hispanic women writers are explicitly exploring the social political and economic realities of our era and integrating global perspectives and gender concerns into their writing highlighting the unprecedented level of sociopolitical engagement practiced by 20th and 21st century Hispanic women writers
