Philosophical Myths Of The Fall:

Philosophical Myths of the Fall Stephen Mulhall, 2005 Mulhall argues that each in different ways develops a conception of human beings as in need of redemption in their work we appear to be not so much capable of or prone to error and fantasy but instead structurally perverse living in untruth In this respect their work is more closely aligned to the Christian perspective than to the mainstream of the Enlightenment Jacket Philosophical Myths of the Fall Stephen

Mulhall, 2024-11-01 Did post Enlightenment philosophers reject the idea of original sin and hence the view that life is a quest for redemption from it In Philosophical Myths of the Fall Stephen Mulhall identifies and evaluates a surprising ethical religious dimension in the work of three highly influential philosophers Nietzsche Heidegger and Wittgenstein He asks Is the Christian idea of humanity as structurally flawed something that these three thinkers aim simply to criticize Or do they rather end up by reproducing secular variants of the same mythology Mulhall argues that each in different ways develops a conception of human beings as in need of redemption in their work we appear to be not so much capable of or prone to error and fantasy but instead structurally perverse living in untruth In this respect their work is more closely aligned to the Christian perspective than to the mainstream of the Enlightenment However all three thinkers explicitly reject any religious understanding of human perversity indeed they regard the very understanding of human beings as originally sinful as central to that from which we must be redeemed And yet each also reproduces central elements of that understanding in his own thinking each recounts his own myth of our Fall and holds out his own image of redemption The book concludes by asking whether this indebtedness to religion brings these philosophers thinking closer to or instead forces it further away from the truth of the human condition The Sources of the Doctrines of the Fall and Original Sin Frederick Robert

Tennant, 1903 T&T Clark Handbook of Theology and the Arts Stephen M. Garrett, Imogen Adkins, 2025-04-24 This volume presents the theology arts conversation from a distinctly Christian perspective as a witness of the Gospel of Christ to the world A widespread interest in the historical socio cultural and political embeddedness of theology and the arts permeates it This theme of embeddedness tracks through several overarching and interlocking concerns the relationship between form and content in both art and theology the intensification of the metaphysical and the theological contra materialist and positivist reductionisms the expansion of the epistemological possibilities of the theology art conversation and a robust understanding of the world as the theatre of God's glory Several chapters have been co written by theologians and artists as part of demonstrating the kind of conversation that this book commends A thorough going commitment to Scripture is also woven into the many different habits of thought represented in this volume Part I surveys different approaches to the theology arts conversation Part II focuses on how particular art forms bring theological issues to the surface and how theological and denominational traditions shape the making and receiving of the arts Part III delves into key topics in the current theology arts scene and asks how artistic and theological performance can both speak to theological and artistic knowing and help to celebrate and interrogate embodied lived reality Restless Secularism Matthew Mutter, 2017-06-27 A scholarly and deeply sensitive study that explores how religion and secularism are tightly interwoven in the major works of modernist literature Matthew Mutter provides a broad survey of modernist literature examining key works against a background of philosophy theology intellectual and social history while tracing the relationship of modernism's secular imagination to the religious cultures that both preceded and shaped it Mutter's provocative study demonstrates how despite their explicit desire to purify secular life of its religious residues Wallace Stevens Virginia Woolf and other literary modernists consistently found themselves entangled in the religious legacies they disavowed Aquinas, Original Sin, and the Challenge of Evolution Daniel W. Houck, 2020-03-12 Drawing on Aquinas Houck proposes a groundbreaking theory of original sin that is theologically robust and consonant with evolutionary theory A Theology of Creation Thomas S. Hibbs, 2023-08-15 This book provides the first sustained philosophical treatment of Pope Francis's Laudato Si and articulates a theology of creation to recover our place within the cosmos In the encyclical Laudato Si Pope Francis discerns beneath the imminent threat of ecological catastrophe an existential affliction of the human person who is lost in the cosmos increasingly alienated from self others nature and God Pope Francis suggests that one must reimagine humanity's place in the created cosmos In this ambitious and distinctive contribution to theological aesthetics Thomas S Hibbs provides the basis for just such a recovery working from Laudato Si to develop a philosophical and theological diagnosis of our ecological dislocation a narrative account of the sources of the crisis and a vision of the way forward Through a critical engagement with the artistic theory of Jacques Maritain Hibbs shows how certain strains of modern art both capture our alienation and anticipate visions of recovered harmony among persons nature and God In the second half of the book in an attempt to fulfill Pope Francis's plea for an aesthetic education and to apply and test Maritain's theory Hibbs examines the work of poets and painters He analyzes the work of poets Robinson Jeffers and William Everson and considers painters Georges Rouault a friend to Maritain and Makoto Fujimura whose notion of culture care overlaps in suggestive ways with Francis's notion of integral ecology Throughout this tour de force Hibbs calls for a commitment to an ecological poetics a project that responds to the crisis of our times by taking poets and painters as seriously as philosophers and theologians First Things ,2006 The Devil Reads Derrida - and Other Essays on the University, the Church, Politics, and the Arts James K.A. Smith, 2009-06-04 We hear a lot these days about the quest for alternative sources of energy Has anyone considered Jamie Smith This whirling dervish of public philosophy generates enough intellectual energy to supply a middle size city all by himself John Wilson editor of Books Culture By now Jamie Smith is not just a leading philosophical or postmodern or Reformed theologian he is simply a leading theologian This volume shows that he has not only ascended to that height but also descended to a depth that terrifies most academics journalism He offers a theology as everyday as the neighborhood the movies partisan politics the university and the street corner and with a twinkle in his eye he shows us Jesus lordship in each place I hope others will not just read Jamie

s book but will go and do likewise Jason Byassee Center for Theology Writing Media Duke Divinity School A notable young voice in the academy James K A Smith has consistently spoken to the church as the most important public for his intellectual work Bringing together essays both thoughtful and entertaining The Devil Reads Derrida displays some of Smith s most significant forays into the public arena In this engaging work Smith grapples with the Wild at Heart phenomenon and the challenges of secularization deals with sex and consumerism and comments on creative works from American Beauty and Harry Potter to A History of Violence and the poetry of Franz Wright No matter what A Phenomenology of Christian Life Felix Ó Murchadha, 2021-12-22 A study of how the world is experienced through Christian philosophy and phenomenology How does Christian philosophy address phenomena in the world Felix Murchadha believes that seeing hearing or otherwise sensing the world through faith requires transcendence or thinking through glory and night being and meaning By challenging much of Western metaphysics Murchadha shows how phenomenology opens new ideas about being and how philosophers of the theological turn have addressed questions of creation incarnation resurrection time love and faith He explores the possibility of a phenomenology of Christian life and argues against any simple separation of philosophy and theology or reason and faith Murchadha makes abundant and timely references to the philosophical tradition from Plato through Heidegger but also perhaps more so to the post Heideggerian developments sometimes considered together and at once as the theological turn in phenomenology He is equally at home in the Christian theological traditions from Paul to Barth and von Balthasar Jeffrey Bloechl Boston College The book is engaging well written and from this reviewer s point of view generally convincing It constitutes an impressive and original contribution to both the philosophy of religion and has very much to offer to those interested in phenomenology and phenomenological analysis Modern Theology As an explication of how Christian belief can transform the meaning of the world this book shows its greatest worth Here it does as compelling a job as any in bringing out the novelty of Christianity before it became overly familiar and overwritten Philosophical Quarterly Heidegger and the Work of Art History Amanda Boetzkes, 2017-07-05 Heidegger and the Work of Art History explores the impact and future possibilities of Heidegger s philosophy for art history and visual culture in the twenty first century Scholars from the fields of art history visual and material studies design philosophy aesthetics and new media pursue diverse lines of thinking that have departed from Heidegger s work in order to foster compelling new accounts of works of art and their historicity This collected book of essays also shows how studies in the history and theory of the visual enrich our understanding of Heidegger s philosophy In addition to examining the philosopher s lively collaborations with art historians and how his longstanding engagement with the visual arts influenced his conceptualization of history the essays in this volume consider the ontological and ethical implications of our encounters with works of art the visual techniques that form worlds how to think about things beyond human centred relationships the moods dispositions and politics of art s history and the terms by which we might rethink aesthetic judgment and the interpretation of the visible world from the early modern period to the present day The Postsecular Political Philosophy of Jürgen Habermas Dafydd Huw Rees, 2018-09-01 This is the first full length treatment of Habermas postsecular political philosophy in English It gives a much more in depth analysis of this aspect of his work than the comparable books listed above It looks at this issue in the context of Habermas entire philosophical project drawing out hitherto overlooked connections It works as an intermediate level introduction to many aspects of Habermas philosophical project his social theory moral philosophy and metaphysics as well as his political theory and philosophy of religion The Fall of Man and the Foundations of Science Peter Harrison, 2007-12-20 See

Cuba and the Fall Eduardo González, 2010-08-05 The literature of Cuba argues Eduardo González in this new book takes on quite different features depending on whether one is looking at it from the inside or from the outside a view that in turn is shaped by official political culture and the authors it sanctions or by those authors and artists who exist outside state policies and cultural politics González approaches this issue by way of two twentieth century writers who are central to the canon of gay homoerotic expression and sensibility in Cuban culture José Lezama Lima 1910 1976 and Reinaldo Arenas 1943 1990 Drawing on the plots and characters in their works González develops both a story line and a moral tale revolving around the Christian belief in the fall from grace and the possibility of redemption that bring the writers into a unique and revealing interaction with one another The work of Lezama Lima and Arenas is compared with that of fellow Cuban author Virgilio Piñera 1912 1979 and in a wider context with the non Cuban writers John Milton Nathaniel Hawthorne William Faulkner John Ruskin and James Joyce to show how their themes get replicated in González's selected Cuban fiction Also woven into this interaction are two contemporary films The Devil's Backbone 2004 and Pan's Labyrinth 2007 whose moral and political themes enhance the ethical values and conflicts of the literary texts Referring to this eclectic gathering of texts González charts a cultural course in which Cuba moves beyond the Caribbean and into a latitude uncharted by common words beyond the tyranny of place

A Philosophy for Communism Panagiotis Sotiris, 2020-05-18 In A Philosophy for Communism Rethinking Althusser Panagiotis Sotiris attempts a reading of the work of the French philosopher centered upon his deeply political conception of philosophy Althusser's endeavour is presented as a quest for a new practice of philosophy that would enable a new practice of politics for communism in opposition to idealism and teleology The central point is that in his trajectory from the crucial interventions of the 1960s to the texts on aleatory materialism Althusser remained a communist in philosophy This is based upon a reading of the tensions and dynamics running through Althusser's work and his dialogue with other thinkers Particular attention is paid to crucial texts by Althusser that remained unpublished until relatively recently Shortlisted for the Deutscher Memorial Prize 2021 Ricoeur's Early Ethical Philosophy Leovino Madriaga Garcia, 2025-07-10 Using the themes of responsibility and hope this introduction to the thought of Paul Ricoeur addresses both the beginner and the specialist By focusing on the early essays and early mature works including the Philosophy of the Will volumes Freedom and Nature Fallible Man and The Symbolism of Evil Leovino Garcia shows that Ricoeur's entire orientation is primarily ethical in that it awakens in us the power to exist creatively Ricoeur brings the Joy of the Yes to the sadness of the finite the passion for the possible to the resignation to necessity and the vehemence of the primary affirmation to the radical negation Bonhoeffer's New Beginning Andrew D. DeCort,2018-09-15 Bonhoeffer s New Beginning investigates the ethics of making new beginnings after devastating moral rupture The work argues that new beginnings must be made in order to sustain the fundamental convictions that it is good to exist and that life in the world with others should be loved without exclusion Bonhoeffer s ethics of new beginning is set in conversation with the thought of four moral philosophers Friedrich Nietzsche Hannah Arendt Jonathan Glover and Jonathan Lear DeCort argues that Bonhoeffer s ethics of new beginning opens and energizes a more promising world affirming moral vision with radical hope for new beginnings vis vis the perceived absence of God in the face of devastation The Modern Cultural Myth of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire Jonathan Theodore,2016-08-13 This book investigates the decline and fall of Rome as perceived and imagined in aspects of British and American culture and thought from the late nineteenth through the early twenty first centuries It explores the ways in which writers filmmakers and the media have conceptualized this process and the parallels they have drawn deliberately or unconsciously to their contemporary world Jonathan Theodore argues that the decline and fall of Rome is no straightforward historical fact but a myth in terms coined by Claude L vi Strauss meaning not a falsehood but a complex social and ideological construct Instead it represents the fears of European and American thinkers as they confront the perceived instability and pitfalls of the civilization to which they belonged The material gathered in this book illustrates the value of this idea as a spatiotemporal concept rather than a historical event a narrative with its own unique moral purpose

The Rise and Fall of the Christian Myth Burton L. Mack,2017-01-01 A preeminent scholar explores the evolution of the Christian worldview and argues that it no longer offers a satisfactory vision for our democratic multicultural society This book is the culmination of a lifelong scholarly inquiry into Christian history religion as a social institution and the role of myth in the history of religions Mack shows that religions are essentially mythological and that Christianity in particular has been an ever changing mythological engine of social formation from Roman times to its distinct American expression in our time The author traces the cultural influence of the Christian myth that has persisted for sixteen hundred years but now should be much less consequential in our social and cultural life since it runs counter to our democratic ideals We stand at a critical impasse badly splintered by conflicting groups pursuing their own social interests a binding common myth needs to be established by renewing a truly cohesive national and international story rooted in our democratic and egalitarian origins committed to freedom equality and vital human values Provided by publisher The Science of Culture in Enlightenment Germany Michael C. Carhart,2007 In the late 1770s as a wave of revolution and republican unrest swept across Europe scholars looked with urgency on the progress of European civilization Carhart examines their approaches to understanding human development by investigating the invention of a new analytic category culture
