Television Aesthetics and Style Steven Peacock,Jason Jacobs,2013-07-04 Although Film Studies has successfully re turned attention to matters of style and interpretation its sibling discipline has left the territory uncharted until now The question of how television operates on a stylistic level has been critically underexplored despite being fundamental to our viewing experience This significant new work redresses a vital gap in Television Studies by engaging with the stylistic dynamics of TV exploring the aesthetic properties and values of both the medium and particular types of output specific programmes and raising important questions about the way we judge television as both cultural artifact and art form Television Aesthetics and Style provides a unique and vital intervention in the field raising key questions about television s artistic properties and possibilities Through a series of case studies by internationally renowned scholars the collection takes a radical step forward in understanding TV s stylistic achievements      Beauty: A Very Short Introduction Roger

Scruton,2011-03-24 In a book that is itself beautifully written renowned philosopher Roger Scruton explores this timeless concept asking what makes an object either in art in nature or the human form beautiful From publisher description

Aesthetics Bence Nanay,2019-10-24 Aesthetics is a branch of philosophy that explores the nature of art beauty and taste It doesn t just consider traditional artistic experiences such as artworks in a museum or an opera performance but also everyday experiences such as autumn leaves in the park or even just the light of the setting sun falling on the kitchen table It is also about your experience when you choose the shirt you re going to wear today or when you wonder whether you should put more pepper in the soup Aesthetics is everywhere It is one of the most important aspects of our life In this Very Short Introduction Bence Nanay introduces the field of aesthetics considering both Western and non Western aesthetic traditions and exploring why it is sometimes misunderstood or considered to be too elitist by artists musicians and even philosophers As Nanay shows so called high art has no more claims on aesthetics than sitcoms tattoos or punk rock In fact the scope of aesthetics extends far wider than that of art high or low including much of what we care about in life It is not the job of aesthetics to tell you which artworks are good and which ones are bad It is not the job of aesthetics to tell you what experiences are worth having If an experience is worth having for you it thereby becomes the subject of aesthetics This realisation is important because thinking about aesthetics in this inclusive way opens up new ways of understanding old questions about the social aspect of our aesthetic engagements and the importance of aesthetic values for our own self ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable

Faith and Beauty Edward Farley, 2020-04-14 Aesthetics and theological aesthetics usually imply a focus on questions about the arts and how faith or religion relates to the arts only the final pages of this work take up that problem The central theme of this book is that of beauty Farley employs a new typology of western texts on beauty and a theological analysis of the image of God and redemption to counter the centuries long tendency to ignore or marginalize beauty and the aesthetic as part of the life of faith Studying the interpretation of beauty in ancient Greece eighteenth century England the work of Jonathan Edwards and nineteenth and twentieth century philosophies of human self transcendence the author explores whether Christian existence the life of faith and the ethical exclude or require an aesthetic dimension in the sense of beauty The work will be of particular interest to those interested in Christian theology ethics and religion and the arts Death and the Displacement of Beauty: Foundations of violence Grace Jantzen, 2004 The pursuit and love of death has characterized Western culture since Homeric times Foundations of Violence enters the ancient world of Homer Plato and Aristotle to explore the genealogy of violence in Western thought It covers the origins of ideas of death the beautiful death of Homeric heroes through to the gendered misery of war Jantzen examines the tensions between those who tried to eliminate fear of death by denying its significance and those like Plotinus who looked to another world for life and beauty An EPZ

Introduction to Philosophy Jacques Maritain, 2005-03-04 Jacques Maritain 1882 1973 was a Neo Thomist philosopher who taught in France and the United States and was French Ambassador to the Vatican from 1945 48 A Protestant who became a Roman Catholic through association with Leon Bloy he devoted himself to the study of Thomism and its application to all aspects of modern life and urged Christian involvement in secular affairs An Introduction to Philosophy is perhaps the most well known and enduring of all Maritain s many books It offers a clear and highly readable introduction to the philosophies of both Aristotle and St Thomas Aquinas Introduction to Digital Humanism Hannes Werthner, Carlo Ghezzi, Jeff

Kramer, Julian Nida-Rümelin, Bashar Nuseibeh, Erich Prem, Allison Stanger, 2023-12-20 This open access textbook introduces and defines digital humanism from a diverse range of disciplines Following the 2019 Vienna Manifesto the book calls for a digital humanism that describes analyzes and most importantly influences the complex interplay of technology and humankind for a better society and life fully respecting universal human rights The book is organized in three parts Part I Background provides the multidisciplinary background needed to understand digital humanism in its philosophical cultural technological historical social and economic dimensions The goal is to present the necessary knowledge upon which an effective interdisciplinary discourse on digital humanism can be founded Part II Digital Humanism a System s View focuses on an in depth presentation and discussion of the main digital humanism concerns arising in current digital systems The goal of this part is to make readers aware and sensitive to these issues including e g the control and autonomy of AI systems privacy and security and the role of governance Part III Critical and Societal Issues of Digital Systems delves into critical societal issues raised by advances of digital technologies While the public debate in the past has often focused on them separately especially when they became visible through sensational events the aim here is to shed light on the entire landscape and show their interconnected relationships This includes issues such as AI and ethics fairness and bias privacy and surveillance platform power and democracy This textbook is intended for students teachers and policy makers interested in digital humanism It is designed for stand alone and for complementary courses in computer science or curricula in science engineering humanities and social sciences Each chapter includes questions for students and an annotated reading list to dive deeper into the associated chapter material The book aims to provide readers with as wide an exposure as possible to digital advances and their consequences for humanity It includes constructive ideas and approaches that seek to ensure that our collective digital future is determined through human agency

Women on Philosophy of Art Alison Stone, 2024-08-14 Women on Philosophy of Art is the first study of women s philosophies of art in long nineteenth century Britain It looks at seven women spanning the time from the Enlightenment to the beginning of modernism They are Anna Barbauld Joanna Baillie Harriet Martineau Anna Jameson Frances Power Cobbe Emilia Dilke and Vernon Lee The central issue that concerned them was how art related to morality and religion Baillie and Martineau treated art as an agency of moral instruction whereas Dilke and Lee argued that art must be made for beauty s sake Barbauld Jameson and Cobbe thought that beauty and religion were linked while other women believed that art and religion must be decoupled Other topics explored are gender and genius tragedy literary realism why we enjoy the sufferings of fictional characters the hierarchy of the art forms whether art can transcend its historical circumstances and critical issues around the artistic canon Examining the print culture that made these women s interventions possible this book shows that these women were doing a particular kind of philosophy of art which was interdisciplinary and closely tied to artistic criticism and practice The book traces how these seven women influenced one another as well as engaging with their male contemporaries But unlike their male interlocutors these women have been unjustly left out of narratives about the history of aesthetics By including these women we can enrich and broaden our understanding of the history of philosophy of art
