is epistemologically self conscious philosophy conducted in a manner honoring to the revelation of the Hebrew and Christian scriptures It is argued that philosophy should be transformative rather than just therapeutic or elucidatory The author examines competing philosophical and scientific accounts from both the empiricist and rationalist schools arguing they are coherent and successful only to the degree that they have imported consciously or unconsciously Christian transcendentals He then applies this insight to explore the character and practice of a Christian political philosophy

Rethinking Knowledge Carlo Cellucci, 2017-03-29 This monograph addresses the question of the increasing irrelevance of philosophy which has seen scientists as well as philosophers concluding that philosophy is dead and has dissolved into the sciences It seeks to answer the question of whether or not philosophy can still be fruitful and what kind of philosophy can be such The author argues that from its very beginning philosophy has focused on knowledge and methods for acquiring knowledge This view however has generally been abandoned in the last century with the belief that unlike the sciences philosophy makes no observations or experiments and requires only thought Thus in order for philosophy to once again be relevant it needs to return to its roots and focus on knowledge as well as methods for acquiring knowledge Accordingly this book deals with several questions about knowledge that are essential to this view of philosophy including mathematical knowledge Coverage examines such issues as the nature of knowledge plausibility and common sense knowledge as problem solving modeling scientific knowledge mathematical objects definitions diagrams mathematics and reality and more This monograph presents a new approach to philosophy epistemology and the philosophy of mathematics It will appeal to graduate students and researchers with interests in the role of knowledge the analytic method models of science and mathematics and reality

Christian Philosophy Craig G. Bartholomew, Michael W. Goheen, 2013-10-15 This third book in a series of successful introductory textbooks by Craig Bartholomew and Michael Goheen builds on their previous projects The Drama of Scripture and Living at the Crossroads to offer a comprehensive narrative of philosophical thought from a distinctly Christian perspective After exploring the interaction among Scripture worldview theology and philosophy the authors tell the story of philosophy from ancient Greece through postmodern times positioning the philosophers in their historical contexts and providing Christian critique along the way The authors emphasize the Reformed philosophical tradition without neglecting other historical trajectories and show how philosophical thought relates to contemporary life

Philosophy of Religion Roy W. Perrett, 2013-10-15 First Published in 2001 No anthologist succeeds in including everyone's favorites so a few words about the principles of selection seem appropriate Firstly as with other volumes in this series priority has been given to journal articles rather than book chapters However some essential book chapters have been included and the introductions to each volume include references to significant books Secondly the emphasis throughout is on philosophical studies of Indian philosophy Consequently much excellent historical and philological work has been omitted Thirdly the desire to make Indian philosophy accessible to interested Western philosophers has meant not only that all the selections are in English but also that most of them use a minimal amount of unglossed Sanskrit terminology Rudolf Otto and the Foundation of the History of Religions Yoshitsugu Sawai, 2022-02-10 This book provides an up to date treatment of Rudolf Otto and his work placing him in the context of comparative religion theology and the philosophy of religion

Yoshitsugu Sawai shows how Otto has three faces the Lutheran Theologian the Philosopher of Religion and the Comparative Religionist The book also shows how of these Otto saw himself primarily as a Lutheran Theologian and provides an account of Otto's engagement with India and the centrality that Hindu theology had on his thinking In Otto's theory of religion his well known concepts including wholly other and numinous constitute a multiple structure of meaning For example his concept of the wholly other das ganz Andere no doubt has the meaning of God in his Christian theological studies At the same time however from the perspective of comparative religion or the phenomenology of religion this same term semantically implies the ultimate reality of other religious traditions Brahman and God Isvara in Hindu religious tradition as well as God in Christianity

The Philosophy of Reenchantment Michiel Meijer, Herbert De Vriese, 2020-10-27 This book presents a philosophical study of the idea of reenchantment and its merits in the interrelated fields of philosophical anthropology ethics and ontology It features chapters from leading contributors to the debate about reenchantment including Charles Taylor John Cottingham Akeel Bilgrami and Jane Bennett The chapters examine neglected and contested notions such as enchantment transcendence interpretation attention resonance and the sacred or reverence worthy notions that are crucial to human self understanding but have no place in a scientific worldview They also explore the significance of adopting a reenchanting perspective for debates on major concepts such as nature naturalism God ontology and disenchantment Taken together they demonstrate that there is much to be gained from working with a more substantial and affirmative concept of reenchantment understood as a fundamental existential orientation towards what is seen as meaningful and of value The Philosophy of Reenchantment will be of interest to scholars and advanced students in philosophy especially those working in moral philosophy metaphysics philosophy of religion theology religious studies and sociology

Theism and Cosmology John Laird, 2013-05-02 Theism is one of the major types of metaphysics and cosmology is the general theory of the whole wide world Must the world have an over worldly source or any source Would space crumble unless God perpetually sustained it by his brooding omnipresence Is all power properly understood divine power These large questions never out of date are examined by Professor Laird in the light of contemporary philosophy This seminal work originally published in 1940 is a lucid and profound discussion in theological philosophy
