Philosophy In And Out Of Europe:

Philosophy in and Out of Europe Marjorie Grene, 1976      A Philosophy for Europe Roberto Esposito, 2018-06-11 Amid a devastating economic crisis two tragic events coming from the outside the wave of immigration and Islamic terrorism have radically changed the profile and significance of the space we call Europe Given a paradigm leap of this sort philosophical reflection is in a position to exert its creative power more than other types of knowledge But this can only happen if it is able to go beyond its own lexical boundaries by turning its gaze outside itself Here the leading Italian philosopher Roberto Esposito looks at how various strands of German French and Italian thought have achieved this outward turn and successfully captured international attention by breaking with the language of early nineteenth century crisis philosophies When analyzed from this novel perspective the great texts of Adorno Derrida Foucault and Deleuze as well as works by the latest Italian thinkers are cast in a new light From the relationship and tension between them reconstructed here with extraordinary theoretical sensitivity a form of thought can arise that is equal to the challenges faced by Europe today This erudite and wide ranging analysis of European thought in the light of the crises facing the continent today will appeal to students and scholars of philosophy critical theory and beyond      Philosophy in Colonial India Sharad Deshpande, 2015-05-13 This volume focuses on the gradual emergence of modern Indian philosophy through the cross cultural encounter between indigenous Indian and Western traditions of philosophy during the colonial period in India specifically in the 19th and early 20th centuries This volume acknowledges that what we take Indian philosophy or modern Indian philosophy to mean today is the sub text of a much wider complex and varied Indian reception of the West during the colonial period Consisting of twelve chapters and a thematic introduction the volume addresses the role of academic philosophy in the cultural and social ferment of the colonial period in India and its impact on the development of cross cultural philosophy the emergence of a cosmopolitan consciousness in colonial India as also the philosophical contribution of India to cultural globalization The issue of colonialism and emergence of new identities in India has engaged the critical attention of scholars from diverse fields of inquiry such as history sociology politics and subaltern studies However till today the emergence of modern Indian philosophy remains an unexplored area of inquiry Much of the academic philosophical work of this period despite its manifest philosophical originality and depth stands largely ignored not only abroad but even in India This neglect needs to be overcome by a re reading of philosophical writings in English produced by scholars located in the universities of colonial India This edited volume will facilitate further explorations into the presence of colonial tensions as they are visible in the writings of modern Indian academic philosophers like B N Seal Hiralal Halder Rasvihary Das G R Malkani K C Bhattacharyya G N Mathrani and others      Key Concepts in World Philosophies Sarah Flavel, Chiara Robbiano, 2023-01-12 Crossing continents and running across centuries Key Concepts in World Philosophies brings together the 45 core ideas associated with major Indian Chinese Japanese Islamic African Ancient Greek Indigenous and modern European philosophers The universal theme of self cultivation and transformation connects each concept Each one seeks to change our understanding the world or the life we are living From Chinese xin and karma in Buddhist traditions to okwu in African philosophy equity in Islamic thought and the good life in Aztec philosophy an international team of philosophers cover a diverse set of ideas and theories originating from thinkers such as Confucius Buddha Dogen Nezahualcoyotl Nietzsche and Zhuangzi Organised around the major themes of knowledge metaphysics and aesthetics each short chapter provides an introductory overview supported by a glossary This is a one of a kind toolkit that allows you to read philosophical texts from all over the world and learn how their ideas can be applied to your own life

Phenomenology and Intercultural

Understanding Kwok-Ying Lau, 2016-09-29 This book approaches the topic of intercultural understanding in philosophy from a phenomenological perspective It provides a bridge between Western and Eastern philosophy through in depth discussion of concepts and doctrines of phenomenology and ancient and contemporary Chinese philosophy Phenomenological readings of Daoist and Buddhist philosophies are provided the reader will find a study of theoretical and methodological issues and innovative readings of traditional Chinese and Indian philosophies from the phenomenological perspective The author uses a descriptive rigor to avoid cultural prejudices and provides a non Eurocentric conception and practice of philosophy Through this East West comparative study a compelling criticism of a Eurocentric conception of philosophy emerges New concepts and methods in intercultural philosophy are proposed through these chapters Researchers teachers post graduates and students of philosophy will all find this work intriguing and those with an interest in non Western philosophy or phenomenology will find it particularly engaging

Chinese and Indian Ways of Thinking in Early Modern European

Philosophy Selusi Ambrogio, 2020-11-12 Why were Chinese and Indian ways of thinking excluded from European philosophy in early modern times This is a study of what happened to the European understanding of China and India between the late 16th century and the first half of the 18th century Investigating the description of these two Asian civilizations during a century and a half of histories of philosophy this book accounts for the change of historiographical paradigms from Neoplatonic philosophia perennis and Spinozistic atheism to German Eclecticism Uncovering the reasons for inserting or excluding Chinese and Indian ways of thinking within the field of Philosophy in early modern times it reveals the origin of the Eurocentric understanding of Philosophy as a Greek European prerogative By highlighting how this narrowing and exclusion of non Western ways of thought was a result of conviction of superiority and religious prejudice this book provides a new way of thinking about the place of Asian traditions among World philosophies in Phenomenology      An Introduction to Metaphilosophy Søren Overgaard, Paul Gilbert, Stephen Burwood, 2013-03-07 A clear and comprehensive introduction to what philosophy is how it should be done and why we should do it      Locating Europe Rodolphe Gasché, 2021-06-01 Is the idea of Europe outdated The concept of European unity the animating spirit of the European Union seems increasingly fragile in the face of far right populist movements In Locating Europe Rodolphe Gasché attempts to answer the question of how to think about Europe Is it a figure a concept or an idea Is there anything still compelling and urgent about the idea of Europe By looking at phenomenologist and postphenomenological thinkers in the second half of the 20th century Gasché reveals that Europe is more than just one geographical and cultural entity The idea of Europe is based on common foundations a distinctive conception of reason of self criticism of responsibility freedom equality human rights and democracy and it is these foundations that are under threat In Locating Europe A Figure a Concept an Idea Gasché engages the philosophy of Hans Georg Gadamer Karl Jaspers Karl L with and others focuses on the most significant philosophical representations of Europe and explores the potential and especially the limits of the notion of Europe      100 years of European Philosophy Since the Great War Matthew Sharpe, Rory Jeffs, Jack Reynolds, 2017-02-14 This book is a collection of specifically commissioned articles on the key continental European philosophical movements since 1914 It shows how each of these bodies of thought has been shaped by their responses to the horrors set in train by World War I and considers whether we are yet post post war The outbreak of World War I in August 1914 set in chain a series of crises and re configurations which have continued to shape the world for a century industrialized slaughter the end of colonialism and European empires the rise of the USA economic crises fascism Soviet Marxism the gulags and the Shoah Nearly all of the major movements in European thinking phenomenology psychoanalysis Hegelianism Marxism political theology critical theory and neoliberalism were forged in or shaped by attempts to come to terms with the global trauma of the World Wars This is the first book to describe the development of these movements after World War I and as such promises to be of interest to philosophers and historians of philosophy around the world      Plato and Europe Jan Patočka, 2002 The Czech philosopher Jan Patočka 1907 1977 is widely recognized as the most influential thinker to come from postwar Eastern Europe This book presents his most mature ideas about the history of Western philosophy      Postcolonial Philosophy of Religion Purushottama Bilimoria, Andrew B. Irvine, 2009-09-30 The present collection of writings on postcolonial philosophy of religion takes its origins from a Philosophy of Religion session during the 1996 Annual Meeting of the American Academy of Religion held in New Orleans Three presentations by Purushottama Bilimoria Andrew B Irvine and Bhibuti Yadav were to be offered at the session with Thomas Dean presiding and Kenneth Surin responding Yadav unfortunately could not be present because of illness This was the first AAR session ever to examine issues in the study of religion under the rubric of the postcolonial turn in academia Interest at the session was intense For instance Richard King then at work on the manuscript of the landmark Orientalism and Religion was present so too was Paul J Griffiths whose subsequent work on interreligious engagement has been so noteworthy In response to numerous audience appeals revised versions of the presentations eventually were published as a Dedicated Symposium on Subalternity in volume 39 no 1 2000 of Sophia the international journal for philosophy of religion metaphysical theology and ethics Since that time the importance of the nexus of religion and the postcolonial has become increasingly patent not only to philosophers of religion but to students of religion across the range of disciplines and methodologies The increased internationalization of the program of the American Academy of Religion especially in more recent years is a significant outgrowth of this transformation in consciousness among students of religion

Phenomenology and Indian Philosophy D. P. Chattopadhyaya, Lester Embree, Jitendranath Mohanty, 2011-05-01 This book shows the close relation between the phenomenology of the West and the phenomenological approach taken by Indian thinkers both classical and modern It illustrates that the underlying spirit of phenomenology and hermeneutics has been consciously followed by Indian philosophers for centuries and is not peculiar to Western thinkers It also shows that Edmund Husserl and K C Bhattacharyya were aware of these parallel trends of thought Phenomenology and Indian Philosophy addresses not only the basic theme of phenomenology but its aesthetic social psychological scientific and technological aspects as well

European Cinema and Continental Philosophy Thomas Elsaesser, 2019-01-01 This groundbreaking volume for the Thinking Cinema series focuses on the extent to which contemporary cinema contributes to political and philosophical thinking about the future of Europe's core Enlightenment values In light of the challenges of globalization multi cultural communities and post nation state democracy the book interrogates the borders of ethics and politics and roots itself in debates about post secular post Enlightenment philosophy By defining a cinema that knows that it is no longer a competitor to Hollywood i e the classic self other construction Elsaesser also thinks past the kind of self exoticism or auto ethnography that is the perpetual temptation of such a co produced multi platform national cinema as world cinema Discussing key filmmakers and philosophers like Claire Denis and Jean Luc Nancy Aki Kaurismäki abjection and Julia Kristeva Michael Haneke the paradoxes of Christianity and Slavoj Žižek Fatih Akin Alain Badiou and Jacques Rancière Elsaesser is able to approach European cinema and assesses its key questions within a global context His combination of political and philosophical thinking will surely ground the debate in film philosophy for years to come

Africana Critical Theory Reiland Rabaka, 2009-01-01 Africana Critical Theory innovatively identifies and analyzes continental and diasporan African contributions to classical and contemporary critical theory through the works of W E B Du Bois C L R James Aimé Césaire Leopold Senghor Frantz Fanon and Amílcar Cabral

A Philosophy for Europe Roberto Esposito, 2018-06-11 Amid a devastating economic crisis two tragic events coming from the outside the wave of immigration and Islamic terrorism have radically changed the profile and significance of the space we call Europe Given a paradigm leap of this sort philosophical reflection is in a position to exert its creative power more than other types of knowledge But this can only happen if it is able to go beyond its own lexical boundaries by turning its gaze outside itself Here the leading Italian philosopher Roberto Esposito looks at how various strands of German French and Italian thought have achieved this outward turn and successfully captured international attention by breaking with the language of early nineteenth century crisis philosophies When analyzed from this novel perspective the great texts of Adorno Derrida Foucault and Deleuze as well as works by the latest Italian thinkers are cast in a new light From the relationship and tension between them reconstructed here with extraordinary theoretical sensitivity a form of thought can arise that is equal to the challenges faced by Europe today This erudite and wide ranging analysis of European thought in the light of the crises facing the continent today will appeal to students and scholars of philosophy critical theory and beyond

The Coloniality of the Secular Yountae An,2023-12-15 In The Coloniality of the Secular An Yountae investigates the collusive ties between the modern concepts of the secular religion race and coloniality in the Americas Drawing on the work of douard Glissant Frantz Fanon Aim C saire Sylvia Wynter and Enrique Dussel An maps the intersections of revolutionary non Western thought with religious ideas to show how decoloniality redefines the sacred as an integral part of its liberation vision He examines these thinkers rejection of colonial religions and interrogates the narrow conception of religion that confines it within colonial power structures An explores decoloniality s conception of the sacred in relation to revolutionary violence gender creolization and racial phenomenology demonstrating its potential for reshaping religious paradigms Pointing out that the secular has been pivotal to regulating racial hierarchies under colonialism he advocates for a broader understanding of religion that captures the fundamental ideas that drive decolonial thinking By examining how decolonial theory incorporates the sacred into its vision of liberation An invites readers to rethink the transformative power of decoloniality and religion to build a hopeful future

Global Manifestos for the Twenty-First Century Nicol A. Barria-Asenjo,Brian Willems,Slavoj Žižek,2023-11-22 Bringing together over forty original short essays some academic others more creative in nature this collection responds to the political historical social and economic situation in which we find ourselves today The editors argue that we are living in a repetition that must be stopped if our goal is that the signifier humanity remains in the following centuries the time has come to work in the present The objective is not to deliver precise or quick answers but to gather varied voices from different continents bringing together different languages ideas practices theories thoughts and desires In the words of Yanis Varoufakis urging us to become agents of a future that ends unnecessary mass suffering and inspire humanity to realise its potential for authentic freedom To leave the concept of a manifesto open the contradictory aspects of the chapters are a subject of the manifesto itself This is a manifesto of contradictions that reflects our reality as well as our struggles and our aspirations This unique anthology will appeal to students and scholars across the humanities and social sciences interested in critical theory and social change
