Musical Aesthetics Edward A. Lippman, 1986 Musical aesthetics in this century like music itself is distinguished by its concern with specifically musical forms and principles with the

interrelationships and transformation of motifs with the permutations of sets of tones with the characteristics of forms such as the fugue or sonata and with underlying or background structures that are not really audible themselves but that nevertheless are important determinants of the form and sense of the music Thus music and musical thought in this century have been significantly determined by a reaction against the predominating qualities and values of the 19th century musical hermeneutics symbolism and semiotics having replaced the traditional problem of emotional content This volume is the third of three which are designed to present the main trends of Western musical thought in the area of philosophy and aesthetics Each section of the work presenting the fundamental statements of a given aesthetic issue has its own brief introduction defining and interrelating the relevant ideas the various sections seek to clarify the underlying historical continuities of thought Each also concludes with its own bibliography

Kierkegaard's Influence on Philosophy Jon Bartley Stewart, 2012 Kierkegaard's relation to the field of philosophy is a particularly complex and disputed one He rejected the model of philosophical inquiry that was mainstream in his day and was careful to have his pseudonymous authors repeatedly disassociate themselves from philosophy But although it seems clear that Kierkegaard never regarded himself as a philosopher there can be no doubt that his writings contain philosophical ideas and insights and have been profoundly influential in a number of different philosophical traditions The present volume documents these different traditions of the philosophical reception of Kierkegaard's thought The articles featured here demonstrate the vast reach of Kierkegaard's writings in philosophical contexts that were often quite different from his own Tome I is dedicated to exploring the reception of Kierkegaard in Germanophone and Scandinavian philosophy Kierkegaard has been a major influence for such different philosophical projects as phenomenology hermeneutics dialogical thinking critical theory Marxism logical positivism and ordinary language philosophy Similarly in Denmark and Norway Kierkegaard's writings have been more or less constantly discussed by important philosophers despite the later dominance of analytic philosophy in these countries The present volume features articles on the leading Germanophone and Scandinavian philosophers influenced by Kierkegaard's thought

Heidegger and the Question of National Socialism Bernhard Radloff, 2007-01-01 The question of being was integral to the philosophy of Martin Heidegger 1889 1976 and was a large factor in the development of his political and aesthetic thought In

Heidegger and the Question of National Socialism Bernhard Radloff investigates the philosophical foundations and cultural context of Heidegger's conception of being focusing on the idea of gestalt as the guiding thread that determined German conservative thought throughout the 1930s In doing so Heidegger's philosophy is related to the whole of German society at the time a society in which gestalt was the guiding light and the ultimate aspiration of artists technicians and politicians Throughout the book Heidegger's own understanding of gestalt is used as a window to his thoughts on being which is conceived of as incorporated finite and historically situated in beings Concentrating on the years between 1933 and 1942 Radloff seeks to capture the response of Heidegger's philosophy to National Socialism examining key works and relating them to the literature of the German conservative revolution Heidegger and the Question of National Socialism is therefore a thorough treatment of his political philosophy as it relates to the question of being Adopting both a historical and phenomenological approach to the subject this book is equally an examination of German conservative ideology a critique of technological determinism and a study of one of the most controversial philosophers of twentieth century Philosophy and Theology John Caputo, 2011-07-01 A highly engaging essay that will draw students into a conversation about the vital relationship between philosophy and theology In this clear concise and brilliantly engaging essay renowned philosopher and theologian John D Caputo addresses the great and classical philosophical questions as they inextricably intersect with theology past present and future Recognized as one of the leading philosophers Caputo is peerless in introducing and initiating students into the vital relationship that philosophy and theology share together He writes If you take a long enough look beyond the debates that divide philosophy and theology over the walls that they have built to keep each other out or beyond the wars to subordinate one to the other you find a common sense of awe a common gasp of surprise or astonishment like looking out at the endless sprawl of stars across the evening sky or upon the waves of a midnight sea

Twentieth-century American Cultural Theorists Paul Hansom, 2001 This award winning series systematically presents career biographies of writers from all eras and all genres through volumes dedicated to specific types of literature and time periods Programs and Manifestoes on 20th-Century Architecture Ulrich Conrads, 1975-11-15 The present volume offers eloquent testimony that many of the master builders of this century have held passionate convictions regarding the philosophic and social basis of their art Nearly every important development in the modern architectural movement began with the proclamation of these convictions in the form of a program or manifesto The most influential of these are collected here in chronological order from 1903 to 1963 Taken together they constitute a subjective history of modern architecture compared with one another their great diversity of style reveals in many cases the basic differences of attitude and temperament that produced a corresponding divergence in architectural style In point of view the book covers the aesthetic spectrum from right to left from programs that rigidly generate designs down to the smallest detail to revolutionary manifestoes that call for anarchy in building form and town plan The documents placed in context by the editor are also international in their range among them are the seminal and prophetic statements of Henry van de Velde Adolf Loos and Bruno Taut from the early years of the century Frank Lloyd Wright's 1910 annunciation of Organic Architecture Gropius's original program for the Bauhaus founded in Weimar in 1919 Towards a New Architecture Guiding Principles by Le Corbusier the formulation by Naum Gabo and Antoine Pevsner of the basic principles of Constructivism and articles by R Buckminster Fuller on universal architecture and the architect as world planner Other pronouncements some in flamboyant style including those of Erich Mendelsohn Hannes Meyer Theo van Doesburg Oskar Schlemmer Ludwig Mies van der Rohe El Lissitzky and Louis I Kahn There are also a number of collective or group statements issued in the name of movements such as CIAM De Stijl ABC the Situationists and GEAM Since the dramatic effectiveness of the manifesto form is usually heightened by brevity and conciseness it has been possible to reproduce most of the documents in their entirety only a few have been excerpted
