The Philosophy of Eros and European Art Vyacheslav P. Shestakov, 1996

The Romantic and Transcendental

Quests of Ralph Waldo Emerson and Victor-Marie Hugo Regina Moeller Young, 2003 This study demonstrates that there is a substantial philosophical congeniality between Ralph Waldo Emerson and Victor Hugo which has so far gone unnoticed It shows many striking affinities offering a fresh perspective on both authors It examines how both Emerson's and Hugo's ideas and perceptions grew out of 19th century Western ideology as well as their personal psycho physiological experiences of the world In arguing for an understanding of Hugo as a Gallic Transcendentalist this comparative study corrects one popular image of the French writer that of a moody eccentric megalomaniac and superficial trifler as well as socio historical backgrounds it examines specific authentic 19th century articles from French and American journals in order to shed light on what critics had to say about the foreign poet There is also a collection and analysis of Emerson's never written French traits Emerson's perceptions of the French as a nation as expressed in his journal entries The study then gives a detailed analysis of Emerson's and Hugo's main affinity their Transcendentalist cosmology

Exploring the formation of networks across late medieval Central Europe this book examines the complex interaction of merchants students artists and diplomats in a web of connections that linked the region These individuals were friends in business ventures occasionally families and not infrequently foes No single activity linked them but rather their interconnectivity through matrices based in diverse modalities was key Partnerships were not always friendship networks art was sometimes passed between enemies and families created for financial gain Taking an interdisciplinary approach the chapters focus on inclusion and exclusion within intercultural networks both interpersonal and artistic using a wide spectrum of source materials and methodological approaches The concept of friends is considered broadly not only as connections of mutual affection but also simply through business relationships Families are considered in terms of how they helped or hindered local integration for foreigners and the matrimonial strategies they pursued Networks were also deeply impacted by rivalry and hostility

Dewey and European Education Jürgen Oelkers, Heinz Rahn, 2012-12-06 Although John Dewey's ideas have been of central interest in Anglo Saxon philosophy and history of education it is only recently that similar interest has developed in continental Europe Deweyan philosophy of education has had to pass through national filters which meant that it was received in national contexts of reform The German Dewey was differently construed to the French Italian or English Dewey This seems to change after 1989 and the fall of socialist education when interest in Dewey increased The new political and philosophical interest in Dewey has to do with the lost alternative socialism and thus with the opening of Eastern Europe and the new problems of education within a worldwide community This volume stresses two points The original interest of European education in Dewey will be presented in case studies concerning different national contexts and thus different Dewey's What can be called the renewal of interest will be argued from different sides It is our intention to show that today's interest in Dewey is not the remake of the reception within the different camps of progressive education This volume will be of interest to philosophers of education historians of education and people engaged in the philosophy history and the reception of Dewey

Gender and Medieval Mysticism from India to Europe Alexandra Verini, Abir Bazaz, 2023-09-29 This book opens up a dialogue between pre modern women identified as mystics in diverse locations from South Asia to Europe It considers how women from the disparate religious traditions of Hinduism Islam and Christianity expressed devotion in parallel ways The argument is that women's mysticism demands to be compared not because of any essential female experience of the divine but because the parallel positions of marginalization that pre modern women experienced led them to deploy intimate encounters with the divine to speak publicly and claim authority The topics covered range from the Sufi devotional tradition of Sidiya Indians of African ancestry to the Bhakti poet Mirabai and the nuns of Barking Abbey Collectively the chapters show how mysticism allowed premodern women to speak and act by unsettling traditional gender roles and expectations for religious behavior At the same time as uncovering connections the juxtaposition of women from different traditions serves to highlight distinctive features The book draws on a range of disciplinary expertise and will be of particular interest to scholars of medieval religion and theology as well as history and

Iconology, Neoplatonism, and the Arts in the Renaissance Berthold Hub, Sergius Koderer, 2020-09-23 The mid twentieth century saw a change in paradigms of art history iconology The main claim of this novel trend in art history was that renowned Renaissance artists such as Botticelli Leonardo or Michelangelo created imaginative syntheses between their art and contemporary cosmology philosophy theology and magic The Neoplatonism in the books by Marsilio Ficino and Giovanni Pico della Mirandola became widely acknowledged for its lasting influence on art It thus became common knowledge that Renaissance artists were not exclusively concerned with problems intrinsic to their work but that their artifacts encompassed a much larger intellectual and cultural horizon This volume brings together historians concerned with the history of their own discipline and also those whose research is on the art and culture of the Italian Renaissance itself with historians from a wide variety of specialist fields in order to engage with the contested field of iconology The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history Renaissance history Renaissance studies historiography philosophy theology gender studies and literature
