Call for Papers: Art and Nature

Papers should be submitted for blind review (with author’s name, affiliation, and contact information on a separate title page). Papers should be no more than 40 minutes reading length.

Philosophy Of Society:

A New Philosophy of Society Manuel DeLanda, 2006-11-14 A new and highly original interrogation of social philosophy from one of the world's leading theorists     The Philosophy of Society Rodger Beehler, Alan R. Drengson, 2023-09-20 The Philosophy of Society 1978 examines no less a weighty subject than human society In fifteen essays it analyses a series of fundamentally important questions about how human beings organise themselves     Values and Society Peter A. Facione, Donald Scherer, Thomas Attig, 1978     The Philosophy Student Writer's Manual and Reader's Guide Anthony J. Graybosch, Gregory M. Scott, Stephen M. Garrison, 2017-06-29 The Philosophy Student Writer's Manual and Reader's Guide Fourth Edition is a set of instructions and exercises that sequentially develop citizenship academic and professional skills while providing students with knowledge about a wide range of philosophical concepts phenomena and information sources Part 1 begins by teaching students to read newspapers and other media sources critically and analytically It focuses on the crafts of writing and scholarship by providing the basics of grammar style formats and source citation and then introduces students to a variety of rich information resources Part 2 provides advanced exercises in ethics metaphysics philosophy of the mind philosophy of religion and political philosophy     Philosophical Elements of a Theory of Society Theodor W. Adorno, 2019-05-29 As an exile in America during the War Theodor Adorno grew acquainted with the fundamentals of empirical social research something which would shape the work he undertook in the early 1950s as co director of the Frankfurt Institute for Social Research Yet he also became increasingly aware of the fetishism of method in sociology and saw the serious limitations of theoretical work based solely on empirical findings In this lecture course given in 1964 Adorno develops a critique of both sociology and philosophy emphasizing that theoretical work requires a specific mediation between the two disciplines Adorno advocates a philosophical approach to social theory that challenges the drive towards uniformity and a lack of ambiguity highlighting instead the fruitfulness of experience in all its messy complexity for critical social analysis At the same time he shows how philosophy must also realise that it requires sociology if it is to avoid falling for the old idealistic illusion that the totality of real conditions can be grasped through thought alone Masterfully bringing together philosophical and empirical approaches to an understanding of society these lectures from one of the most important social thinkers of the 20th century will be of great interest to students and scholars in philosophy sociology and the social sciences generally     Society and the Individual Richard T. Garner, Andrew Oldenquist, 2004     The Spiritual Foundations of Society Semen Liudvigovich Frank, 1987 Semyon Ludvigovich Frank 1877 1950 wrote major works on epistemology ontology philosophy of religion and social philosophy As a youthful Marxist he was arrested and banned from major Russian cities for his radical activities Becoming dissatisfied with Marxism he soon turned to idealism and then to religious philosophy Professor of Philosophy at Moscow University until 1922 when he was expelled to the West Frank worked in exile until his death in London in 1950 The Spiritual Foundations of Society is Frank's attempt to examine society as a type of spiritual being to develop an ontology of society Two ideas are central to his vision of future social thought The first of these sobornost from the Russian sobirat to gather is the living inner organic unity of all human societies Its primary form is the family unit Opposed to sobornost is obshchestvnnost obshchyi general or common the mechanical aspect of society in which the separate parts act to mutually limit and constrain one another The second idea is the principle of service as the most general expression of the ontological essence of man and therefore the highest normative principle of social life According to Frank all human right are grounded in one innte right the right to fulfill obligations the opportunity to serve Thus Frank reconciles the principles of solidarity and individual freedom through common subordination to the principle of service Though writing in the late twenties Frank addresses fundamental concepts of the ground of social life applicable to all periods of history His introduction of concepts from the Russian tradition enables us to see problems in a new light and his approach focused on concepts of community and service challenges the now dominant materialistic and naturalistic theories of the nature of social life

A New Philosophy of Society Manuel De Landa,2019 In A New Philosophy of Society Manuel DeLanda offers a fascinating look at how the contemporary world is characterized by an extraordinary social complexity Since most social entities from small communities to large nation states would disappear altogether if our cognitive abilities ceased to exist DeLanda proposes a novel approach to social ontology that asserts the autonomy of social entities from the conceptions we have of them He argues that Gilles Deleuze s theory of assemblages provides a framework in which sociologists and geographers studying social networks and regions can properly locate their work and fully elucidate the connections between them Indeed assemblage theory as DeLanda argues can be used to model any community from interpersonal networks and institutional organizations to central governments cities and nation states Bloomsbury Publishing

The Perverse Utopia: Exploring its Fiction, Philosophy and Social History Alan Greenhalgh,2012 This book critically examines the relationship between man and society in Utopian systems In order to do this the author reviews a selection of Utopian and dystopian literature There are excerpts from fiction philosophy social and political history and an appraisal of the relevant issues Various topics relating to Utopia such as harmony freedom and its expression conflict machines and thought homosexual rights to marriage the future of world languages the function of religion and God social control and democracy are explored with a view to investigating man s conflict with himself and society Many of these issues are relevant not only to today but to the 22nd century too This book provides a thought provoking addition to the body of literature on the subject
