

PHOENIX COMMUNITIES

Sun City/Surprise

Largely a retirement area, these homes are mostly newer and the area (especially Surprise) is experiencing massive growth.

North Phoenix

A mix of older homes and new builds, North Phoenix is an area of transition. South of the 101 is more urban while north has more desert terrain.

Scottsdale/PV

Scottsdale and Paradise Valley are two of the most expensive areas in the city. Custom homes in desert terrain is the norm.

Central Phoenix

Urban living at its finest, in central Phoenix you're close to everything: sports arenas, the city's best dining, and shopping galore. You will find mid-century moderns, condos, and custom estates.

West Valley

A mix of newer subdivisions and old farm country, the West Valley boasts affordable living and quick access to downtown Phoenix and the Arizona Cardinals stadium.

South Phoenix

With the exception of Laveen, the area is known for mostly post war homes, and is one of the least expensive areas to purchase in the valley.

East Valley

Known for being family friendly, the East Valley boasts many suburbs with master planned communities as well as custom estates. Home prices typically go down the further east and south you get and the surroundings become more rural.
