Photoflexion A History Of Bodybuilding Photography:

Photoflexion William Doan, Craig Dietz, 1984-01-01 All life in the world is ultimately dependent upon the lowly appearing members of the plant family Routledge Revivals: Homosexuality: A Research Guide (1987) Wayne R. Dynes, 2017-02-17 First published in 1987 this book encompasses a broad range interdisciplinary research into homosexuality displaying a full spectrum of points of view and given that the major traditions of modern homosexual research began in Europe is not restricted to works in English In general topics that are densely covered in the literature are presented in this guide selectively with some less studied topics such as Economics and Music fleshed out with signposts to more comprehensive research It seeks to not only mirror existing publications but also to stimulate new work by pinpointing neglected themes and methods This book will be of interest to students of sociology Hard to Imagine Thomas Waugh, 1996 Waugh identifies four primary aspects of homoerotic photography and film the artistic the commercial the illicit and the politico scientific tracing their development against a background of advances in visual technology This comprehensive work explores a vast eclectic tradition in its totality analyzing the visual imagery in addition to its production circulation and consumption Race and the Subject of Masculinities Harry Stecopoulos, Michael Uebel, 1997 Although in recent years scholars have explored the cultural construction of masculinity they have largely ignored the ways in which masculinity intersects with other categories of identity particularly those of race and ethnicity The essays in Race and the Subject of Masculinities address this concern and focus on the social construction of masculinity black white ethnic gay and straight in terms of the often complex and dynamic relationships among these inseparable categories Discussing a wide range of subjects including the inherent homoeroticism of martial arts cinema the relationship between working class ideologies and Elvis impersonators the emergence of a gay black masculine aesthetic in the works of James Van der Zee and Robert Mapplethorpe and the comedy of Richard Pryor Race and the Subject of Masculinities provides a variety of opportunities for thinking about how race sexuality and manhood are reinforced and reconstituted in today's society Editors Harry Stecopoulos and Michael Uebel have gathered together essays that make clear how the formation of masculine identity is never as obvious as it might seem to be Examining personas as varied as Eddie Murphy Bruce Lee Tarzan Malcolm X and Andre Gide these essays draw on feminist critique and queer theory to demonstrate how cross identification through performance and spectatorship among men of different races and cultural backgrounds has served to redefine masculinity in contemporary culture By taking seriously the role of race in the making of men Race and the Subject of Masculinities offers an important challenge to the new studies of masculinity Contributors Herman Beavers Jonathan Dollimore Richard Dyer Robin D G Kelly Christopher Looby Leerom Medovoi Eric Lott Deborah E McDowell Jos E Mu oz Harry Stecopoulos Yvonne Tasker Michael Uebel Gayle Wald Robyn Wiegman Coming Out Under Fire Allan Bérubé, 2010-09-07 During World War II as the United States called on its citizens to serve in unprecedented numbers the presence of gay Americans in the armed forces increasingly conflicted with the expanding antihomosexual policies and procedures of the military In Coming Out Under Fire Allan B rub examines in depth and detail these social and political confrontation not as a story of how the military victimized homosexuals but as a story of how a dynamic power relationship developed between gay citizens and their government transforming them both Drawing on GIs wartime letters extensive interviews with gay veterans and declassified military documents B rub thoughtfully constructs a startling history of the two wars gay military men and women fought one for America and another as homosexuals within the military B rub s book the inspiration for the 1995 Peabody Award winning documentary film of the same name has become a classic since it was published in 1990 just three years prior to the controversial don t ask don t tell policy which has continued to serve as an uneasy compromise between gays and the military With a new foreword by historians John D Emilio and Estelle B Freedman this book remains a valuable contribution to the history of World War II as well as to the ongoing debate regarding the role of gays in the U S military White Richard Dyer,2017-09-19 Now twenty years since its initial release Richard Dyer s classic text White remains a groundbreaking and insightful study of the representation of whiteness in Western visual culture White explores how while racial representation is central to the organisation of the contemporary world white people have remained a largely unexamined category in sharp contrast to the many studies of images of black and Asian peoples Looking beyond the apparent unremarkability of whiteness Dyer demonstrates the importance of analysing images of white people Dyer places this representation within the contexts of Christianity race and colonialism In a series of absorbing case studies he shows the construction of whiteness in the technology of photography and film as part of a wider culture of light discusses heroic white masculinity in muscle man action cinema from Tarzan and Hercules to Conan and Rambo analyses the stifling role of white women in end of empire fictions like Jewel in the Crown and traces the associations of whiteness with death in Falling Down horror movies and cult dystopian films such as Blade Runner and the Aliens trilogy This twentieth anniversary edition includes a new introductory chapter by Maxime Cervulle entitled Looking into the light Whiteness racism and regimes of representation This new introduction illuminates how Dyer has made a major contribution to the study of contemporary regimes of representation by unveiling the cultural mechanisms that have formed and reinforced white hegemony mechanisms under which white people have come to represent what is ordinary neutral even universal Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1984 Arion ,1997
